April Fool's Day next Tuesday.

—Easter is just a little over two weeks away.

—Telephone lines and hydro wires in the district suffered during Saturday evening's storm.

—Robbers have arrived in town, but won't think much of our hospitality as far as weather goes.

—An article appeared in the most recent issue of Family Herald and Weekly Star entitled, "This Councillor is No Gentleman," written by Esther Taylor.

—Water was cut off on Monday morning as many housewives who planned to wash can report. The cut-off was only for a short time and service was soon restored.

—The softer the road, the harder it is to travel.

—The sudden, very businesslike fall of snow on Wednesday was unexpected for spring. But then, as it's been said, winter often lingers in the lap of spring long enough to cause talk.

—Saturday night cars slipped helplessly on the roads and pedestrians almost had to navigate on hands and knees. Sunday morning was treacherous with spears of ice falling from everywhere to splinter on the ice below. But the beauty of all the ice glistening and sparkling against the sky, alternately dazzling blue and ominous grey, in the early Sunday morning sunlight was a consolation for the dreadful conditions below.

Mrs. Fred Johnston Feted By Family

A very pleasant evening was spent on Saturday, March 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnston, "Sunnyside Farm," when the family gathered to honor Mrs. Johnston on her birthday. Games of crokinole, lost heir and pit were played by the young folk, with progressive euchre in play for adults. Winners were: Ladies, Mrs. Lloyd Burt; men, Fred Johnston and Cecil Nella.

During the evening, the grandchildren entertained with singing, accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Johnston on her guitar. At the stroke of 12 they sang "Happy birthday, dear Florence." As the new day dawned, all were given the opportunity to express best wishes to Mrs. Johnston's daughter, Mrs. Chester Allan, not forgetting that on the previous Thursday, another daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Burt, celebrated hers quietly.

Among the small remembrances was one novelty that caused great concern—a cow filling a pail with rich milk. No one would need to put expense in milk supplies if they would invest in a few cows such as this one.

The weather became very icy, so lunch was served to let all get ready for home. A fruit cake bringing best wishes to Mrs. Johnston was cut and passed. A box was filled with goodies for Laverne Allan, who was unable to attend. He is just recovering from pneumonia. Everybody had a slippery time getting home but arrived safely.

W. Henderson Dies At Home Of Niece

The funeral of the late William R. Henderson, who died in Guelph General Hospital after a lingering illness, was held Tuesday afternoon with service at the home of his niece, Mrs. Harvey Laverly. He was in his 78th year. Rev. J. W. Oliver conducted the service. During the service, the well-known hymn, "Abide with Me" was sung.

A number of floral wreaths bore silent testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Palbearers were W. McKersie, N. Marshall, Eden Mills; G. Mark, H. Mark, Guelph; C. Hamilton and A. Ware. Interment was in Rockwood Cemetery, Rev. J. W. Oliver conducting the committal. Among those present were a few from Simcoe, including a brother, Robert.

The sympathy of the community is extended to two brothers and other relatives in their bereavement.

Shipping in and out of Lake Superior through the locks of the St. Mary's River, is greater than the total combined annual traffic of the Panama, Suez, Manchester and Kell canals.
