Fresh Cucumbers, Celery, Cauliflower, Mushrooms, Green Beans, Beets, Salads—SPECIAL WEEK-END PRICES

Hello Homemakers! The ham for Easter dinner was as much a part of this festive occasion as hot cross buns and candied eggs. Gone are the days when the meat had to be brined and pickled since the cured hams have a deliciously sweet, spicy flavor.

When you buy smoked ham with bone-in, you have a choice of two types: cooked ready-to-eat or regular uncooked. Both are similar in appearance and are sure to be tender. Neither requires soaking or boiling; but the cooked ham requires heating for 15 minutes at 325 degrees to be at its best while the regular ham requires 12 to 15 minutes per pound.

To enjoy more freedom from the kitchen you may order a canned ham which will cost about the same as the cooked sliced ham. However, it was with considerable pride that we baked and decorated a large ham for Easter. Cured meat keeps longer than fresh meat so the leftovers need not be served for consecutive meals and it gives you a good emergency food for refrigerator raids or lunch box sandwiches.

TAKE A TIP

1. From hot baked ham you should get 8 slices from 1 1/2 lbs.
2. From the cold ham you can slice 8 slices from 1 lb.
3. You can buy shank and butt end cuts for a lower price per pound than the full half.
4. Like all pork, canned hams should always be kept in the refrigerator.
5. Always look for the imprint on the wrapped, tag or the ham itself.
6. You can cook the bone to flavor either pea or bean soup.
7. Since dates and raisins are quite inexpensive items these days decorate the baked ham with either of them; toward the end of baking time, remove the ham from the oven, take off the skin, score the fat and stud it with whole cloves. Arrange sliced dates or plumped raisins in scored slits of fat. Combine 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup vinegar and 1 teaspoon dry mustard. Use half the sauce to spoon over the top of ham then return to the oven at a temperature of 350. Ten minutes before the end of the baking period add the remaining sauce.

An interesting ham dinner menu may be Jellied Cress Consomme; Baked Glazed Ham with Orange sauce, Mashed Potatoes, Asparagus with Egg Sauce; Rolls; Maple Custard Parfait; Coffee, Tea or Milk.

Typical leftover ham casserole dishes may be Creamed Ham and olives over browned rice, Cubed Ham and Pineapple in Gingerale sauce with egg noodles, Ham and Cream Potato soup, Casserole of Kidney Beans with molasses sauce and Ham, Cream Celery soup with shrimp and cubed Ham, Tossed Salad Green and Ham shreds with orange sections. Also sandwiches, omelettes, meat loaf and split pea soup.

10. Always skim the fat from the jellied juice in which ham was cooked. If this is not done the fat may become rancid.

Baked Ham

Place ham (wiped with a damp cloth) on a rack in an open roasting pan. Bake in preheated oven (without salt, water or a cover on the pan) at 325 degs. allowing 14 mins. per lb. About 30 minutes before the end of baking time remove from oven, skin and add the glaze. Take the rack out of the pan, raise oven temperature to 350 and return meat to the oven. Bake 2 or 3 times.

Note—Ham may be cooked to the glazing stage on the day previous, providing ham is removed from the dripping and kept in refrigerator.

Ham with Pineapple

- 2 cups cubed ham
- 2 cups sliced cooked potatoes
- 4 slices cooked pineapple
- 1/2 cups pineapple juice
- 2 tbsps. brown sugar
- 1/4 tsp. cinnamon
- Dash of nutmeg

Arrange ham and potatoes alternately in layers in casserole. Cut slices of pineapple into halves and place on top. Pour juice over all; sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg. Stick cloves into a few pieces of ham. Bake in oven at 350 degs. for 25 minutes.

Maple Custard Parfait

- 1 cup hot maple syrup
- 4 eggs, separated
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 pint heavy cream, whipped

Pour maple syrup slowly over beaten egg yolks, add salt, cook until thick and then chill. Whip cream until thick enough to hold a peak. Fold into chilled mix. Then fold in beaten egg whites and freeze firm in refrigerator. Makes about 1 1/2 quarts.
