

IODE Convention Reported To Ladies

The May meeting of the Duke of Devonshire Chapter, IODE, was held at Mrs. W. Beatty's on May 8 with the regent, Mrs. A. Long, in the chair.

A letter of thanks was sent to G. W. McKenzie and to the girls of grade seven and eight of the Public School for their tagging on Saturday, May 3 for the Bill.

Mrs. M. Mainprize read an article on Empire and World Affairs, urging all members to study current events. Mrs. Mowat gave a report of the afternoon session of the Provincial Chapter Convention in Hamilton on April 24 and Mrs. Long reported on the evening session, quoting from the address of Mrs. E. Bates, Dean of Women at McMaster University.

Plans were made for the Chapter banquet.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Kirkness.

Several Visitors On Mother's Day

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fryer and family, Guelph, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McCutcheon spent a couple of days at Thornbury, also visited with Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod and family.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McAllister in the sudden passing of their niece, Miss Kathleen Milloy, Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCutcheon, Kitchener, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jeslin and family. On Sunday, they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jeslin and family and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spence, Toronto.

Fire Victim Moves Into New Home

Mr. Thos. McAlpine, who lost his home by fire on January 3 moved into his new home provided by many kind friends last week-end, having made his home with the A. W. Bentons since the fire.

Mother's Day was appropriately observed at the Presbyterian Church when Rev. Alex. Calder baptized the following small children: Deborah Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rogers; Verna Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall; Marsha Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones; Cheryl Diane and Stephen Barry, children of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Laur and Gordon Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McEnery.

Mrs. A. W. Norton sang "The hymns my mother used to sing" during the offering.

Mr. T. W. Price, Sunday School superintendent, presented awards for memory work learned during the year.

Congratulations to Annamarie Spitzer, who won the senior girls' championship at Acton High School sports events last week.

Mesdames Ellerby, Jack Noble and E. Sanford attended the recent W. I. officers' rally at the O.A.C.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Turner on the arrival of a new daughter last week.

Mrs. David Joe and little son of Milton are visiting the Linham's, with Mr. Joe as well over the week-end.

Bert Benton represented S. S. No. 9 as guest of the county council at Milton on Tuesday.

Miss Inez Scott and Mr. Jack Crichton, who were married on Friday evening, were guests of honor at a miscellaneous shower in the hall on Wednesday evening. In the earlier part of the evening, euchre was played with first prizes going to Mrs. Cedric Cross and Mr. Ron Latimer, consolations falling to Mrs. Doug Scott and Mr. Wilfred Harding.

Mrs. E. Karn called the couple to chairs beneath a decorated arch where they were presented with numerous useful and lovely gifts. Both appropriately replied. Karn's orchestra provided music for dancing following lunch.

Recent visitors:

Mr. Alex Wright home from Toronto.

Mrs. Geary and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Toronto with the Fred Geary's.

Miss Doris Mitchell home from Toronto for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greig, Lois Ann and Mr. Wm. Greig of Brantford with Miss Ivens and Mrs. Newton.

Mrs. Roughley Sr. of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Anderson of Mount Dennis with the Jack Roughley's.

Mr. and Mrs. Deamude, and son of Dunnville with the Earl Scott's. Mr. and Mrs. W. Askin and Mr. Kenneth Askin with the Eldin Askin's.

A white faille taffeta gown with full net overskirt was worn by the bride, with a Chantilly lace jacket made with high collar and long, pointed sleeves. Her long, white silk veil was caught into a heart-shaped headress trimmed with orange blossoms and pearls. She carried red roses, and lilies-of-the-valley. Her attendants made a picture of spring pastel tones. They wore costumes, respectively, of heavenly blue, orchid, soft green, shell pink and buttercup yellow, all of faille taffeta, with full skirts and bolero jackets and their net, pleated bonnets matching. They carried nosegays of carnations and forget-me-nots.

Pink and rose tulips and other spring flowers brightened the church. Mrs. Harold Magee was organist and Mrs. Donald Bacon sang.

The reception in the garden of the bride's parents' home was attended by about 60 guests. Receiving the bride's maid, was a princess blue marquisette-over-taffeta gown with silver grey accessories and pink carnations corsage. The groom's mother wore lustrous orchid taffeta with matching accessories and baby orchids in her corsage.

After a wedding trip to Boston, Mass., the couple will live in the Marlinique Apts., Bold St., Hamilton. For travelling, the bride wore a mauve corded wool suit with violet hat and accessories.

Mother's Day was well observed on Sunday and services well maintained at St. John's Church Sunday morning. Large attendance was present when Holy Communion was observed. Rev. Ralph E. Price officiated.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day of Hamilton on the birth of a daughter.
