Cement and steel culverts are being placed in the wartime housing this week.

Blow Press Limited this year has an exhibit at the International Trade Fair in Toronto.

A danger of frost late last week caused farmers and back-yard gardeners concern, but no damage was reported.

Joan Colling of R. R. 3, Campbellville, has been successful in passing second-year examinations of MacDonald Institute, Guelph.

David Gray and Albert Gray of Rockwood were among the Wellington county delegates attending the Ontario Liberal Association convention in Toronto recently.

George Elliott of Acton was awarded Grade B standing in the General course at Victoria College, University of Toronto. Graduation ceremonies will be held Friday.

Among the graduates of Guelph General Hospital was Bertha Ingles of Acton. Graduation ceremonies were held last Friday evening.

Nice warm weather? Everybody will agree. But for most of us neither nice nor warm enough yet for a swim. Several boys have already tried a dip in Fairy Lake, though.

Miss Mary Schneider of Hamilton has been engaged to replace Miss Isobel Gamble on the Acton high school staff next fall. A graduate from McMaster University, she specialized in French and Latin.

The period of official mourning for His Late Majesty King George VI is now ended. Marks of mourning here—the black armbands worn by the Boy Scouts and the ribbon worn with the various society pins, for instance—will no longer be worn.

Steel standards for the swings in the park, donated by the Y's Men's Club and the Phalanx Club, have been erected. Due to a misunderstanding, one standard must be replaced before the swings and teeter-totters will be ready for youngsters.

The school of graduate studies of the University of Toronto has announced that Jack Mainprize was a successful candidate for the M.A.Sc. degree. He will be unable to be present for the awarding of degrees on June 6 as he is employed with Canadian Gulf Oil Co. at Red Water, Alberta, 40 miles north east of Edmonton. After two months there he will move to the oil fields at Pincher Creek, Alberta.

ROCKWOOD

Delegates Attend Meeting in Acton

A few from the Presbyterian Church Sunday School were in Acton last Wednesday evening attending the Church School Workers Association at Knox Presbyterian Church. There was a good attendance for the occasion.

Friday evening, members of the Veterans' League met at the Guelph and district attended a supper in the basement of the Presbyterian Church provided by the ladies of the congregation. Following the supper, Martin Bauer Sr. presided for brief addresses by some of those present.

During the evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wright of Guelph were recipients of a travelling bag and bouquet of lovely red roses. Both replied suitably, thanking the gathering for the gifts. Felicitations were also indulged in for those who provided the fine supper and served the guests.

A ball game was held in Exhibition Park last week when the Haymakers of the O.A.C., Guelph, met the local ball team, with the result that the visiting team won the game 15-5. There was a good number present.

The many friends of Mr. Fred Edwards regret the serious mishap which befell him last week when his truck, loaded with road material, caught on a bridge and turned over, causing injuries which necessitated his removal to Ferguson hospital. At latest reports he is doing very well. All hope for him is speedy recovery.

Other recent holiday visitors: Mrs. Douglas Patterson of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirvan and baby of Guelph.

Miss Nancy Plummer of Simcoe was in town last week. Miss Nancy Waller of Toronto was home for the week-end.

Mr. Fred Day of Hamilton was up for the week-end. Rev. C. Gordon Harris and his father, Mr. Charles Harris, of Manitowaning, who were in Hamilton last week attending the United Church Conference at McMaster University, were in town Sunday afternoon before returning home.

Mrs. S. Hutchinson returned home Friday from a visit to North Carolina, where she spent some weeks. Miss Irene Hamilton of Chicago, Ill., is home for a visit with other members of the family at Fairview Farm.

Changes in hours of services at St. John's Church and Presbyterian Church for the summer months are, for the former, 9:45 and latter, 10 a.m.

A big improvement is noticed in the re-surfacing of the lower end of Main St. with fresh material.

Considerable bloom is noticeable in the community and along the Valley Road with lilac shrubs in profusion, along with honeysuckle, wild cherry which is beginning to pass out, as well as horsechestnut trees in the village.

Congratulations to one of our former Rockwood boys, Kenneth Andrew Hewat and bride (nee Elizabeth Bossem), who were united in marriage Saturday in Guelph at St. James' Anglican Church.
