Two Cars Damaged In Sunday Crash

Two cars were damaged to the extent of $100 each Sunday morning at 11 a.m. when they collided and one came to rest in a marshy ditch on No. 7 highway just west of Acton.

A 25 Ford driven by Yvonne Kober of Waterloo was passing a '41 Chev. driven by Clinton W. Taylor of Acton when the collision occurred. The Taylor car crashed into the ditch.

Smocking Method Shown W.I. Ladies

The advantages and disadvantages of country life proved a good topic for roll call discussion when Mrs. Malcolm Moffatt entertained the Nassagaweya Women's Institute. Committee convenors were appointed for the coming year, Mrs. Murray Mahon, program convenor for the meeting, led in a round of singing and Mrs. Neil McPhail of Milton gave a most worthwhile demonstration on the art of smocking.

Refreshments were tastefully served by the hostess, Mrs. Moffatt and her assistants, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Page.

Gifts Arrive For Use at the Manor

Superintendent E. Clark of the Halton Centennial Manor announced the arrival recently of two combination radio and phonographs, gifts of the Halton's Women's Institute for the Men's and Ladies' day rooms. A mantle radio has also been received for the day room for special care residents.

Drumkin Women's Institute will also present a piano to the Manor for the use of residents.

Opening date for the Manor was originally scheduled for Jan. 13 but has since been postponed and a new date has not been announced.

Second Meeting Willing Gardeners

The June meeting of Ospringe Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Smith with 13 members and three visitors present. Mrs. D. G. Robertson presided and Mrs. Norman McKenzie called the roll, which was answered by "What I like most about this month." Plans were made to submit recipes to the Daily Mercury cook book, all recipes to be handed in to Miss Doris Fines.

A discussion followed on the Institute holiday at O.A.C. Mrs. Dan Winter, Mrs. appointed as delegate along with Mrs. Gordon Aiken and Mrs. D. G. Robertson to the District Annual at Mimosa.

Mrs. A. McKinney gave a splendid paper on the motto, "Kindness is the oil that keeps the hinges of friendship from rusting." Mrs. Robertson gave a summary of the hand book, parts of which will be dealt with more thoroughly at future meetings. Community singing with Mrs. McKinney at the piano concluded the program, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Rice, served dainty refreshments.

Eight members of the Ospringe Willing Gardeners met at the home of Mrs. Norman McKenzie for their second meeting. The roll call, "How my garden grows, gave evidence they are growing and some of the vegetables are already in use. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mary Agoston. Discussions on "Food values of vegetables" and "Insects" concluded the program.

Services at the local Presbyterian Church are being held at 9:45 a.m. with Sunday School at 11 o'clock during the summer months.
