

Combines Lose 9-3 Decision To Oaks

Calamity overtook Acton-Georgetown Combines in the top half of the third inning last night and they went down to a 9-3 defeat at the hands of Oakville's sapling Oaks in a Halton County League game.

With one out in the top half of the third and one on first Brown of the Oaks hit a ground ball in the general direction of second. It was a potential double play ball. However strange things happened and the ball hit the umpire and caromed out of the infield. That started off a string of errors that enabled the Oaks to score seven runs.

The Combines notched only three hits off the Oaks Kenny Pollock, bunting two and a free pass for three runs in the fifth. Ab Robinson accounted for two of them.

Mel Jordan hurried the first five innings for the Combines allowing eight hits, three at least of which never went out of the infield. Glen Gibbs finished the game by facing only seven batters.

Saturday the Combines lost another to Milton by a 14-10 score in a rousing slugfest.

POUNDRING THE SPORTS BEAT with A. Vengeance

Judging by the enthusiastic response lacrosse received here last Saturday night, the game will have a wide appeal to fans in Acton and points as far as Norval and Georgetown. Saturday's spectacle was enough to satisfy even the most rabid fan although the game was by no means in doubt after the second quarter.

The B-Hives were never in trouble even when short-handed. They had too much foot for the Mohawks, clever ball handlers though they were. The surge might not have been as decisive, however, if the Mohawks had had more men in uniform. They were compelled to play it slow since they had only two substitutes on the bench.

First impressions are apt to be hasty but our opinion is that the referees could have leaned down on the rough stuff. The B-Hives seemed to be the worst offenders in this respect. Fans won't pay to see blood spilled even when the visitors are the victims. Coach Mill Burrows seemed to think it was the officials' fault because they let the game out of hand in the first quarter and we're inclined to agree.

The B-Hives play in Simcoe tonight against the same Mohawks. On their own hunting grounds the Indians will probably be much more potent and they won't have to contend with the intense heat of Saturday night.

The Acton entry in the Eramosa softball circuit is beginning to hit its stride. Tuesday they climbed into a two-way tie for first place with O.A.C. Haymakers by downing the league leaders 7-4.

The Haymakers have a strong club especially in the hitting department "Swat" Mason, well-known player and hockey promoter is a foursome spectacle at the plate for the Haymakers. He's having a pool night unless he's banging out hits at a four in five clip. However, it took old "Dude" Lindsay, former Guelph himself, to put the "Swat" in his place on Tuesday. "Dude" flung the ball past him so many times Mason went listless.

Freddy Cooper, the other half of Eisen's mound staff since Ken Allen tied the knot, pitched a real game for Acton Thursday last. He had a shut-out going until the ninth inning when he served up a gopher ball to one of the Eden Mills batters who promptly smashed one out of sight. It was the first Acton win from Eden Mills in two seasons.

The Acton Minor Sports Club's minor baseball program is running smoothly if the success of the two clubs entered in the Halton County League has anything to do with it. Both the midgets and bantams won decisive victories over Waterdown on Saturday.

The Waterdown kids had it all over the local gang in stature but when it came to playing ball, the Acton kids never let them have a look-in. The Midgets have lost only one game to date and that by a one run decision in Georgetown a week ago Saturday when they had a poor start.

TWO SOFTBALL WINS ENABLE EISEN CLUB TO CLIMB INTO FIRST PLACE TIE

Downing the league leading O.A.C. Haymakers 7-4 Tuesday night in Guelph, Acton Eisen climbed into a two-way tie for first place in the five team Eramosa District Softball League. It was the sixth win against two losses for the Acton club.

LEAGUE STANDING Table with columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Acton 8 0 2 .750 Haymakers 8 0 2 .750 Eden Mills 0 5 4 .555 Rockwood 7 3 4 .420 Everton 7 1 0 .413

Eisen scored three in the second, singles in the fourth and fifth and two in the sixth to take the decision. "Dude" Lindsay went the route on the hill allowing the Haymakers to plate only four runs, in the second frame.

O.A.C. Aggies have withdrawn from the league.

Behind a gift-edged pitching performance from Fred Cooper, Eisen chalked up a 9-3 win over the strong Eden Mills club last Thursday in a regular Eramosa District softball game at Guelph. Ed Miller, Cooper restricted Eden Mills to two hits until the ninth inning and he had a shut-out going as well when the home club poured three runs over the platter in that final frame.

The Acton club hunched their runs, scoring five in the third, three in the fourth and a singleton in the fifth. Two men were down in both the third and fifth before Eisen's bats began to boom. Vic Masler, Jack Stewart and Sam Snyder with two runs apiece and Cooper, Haynes and Quigley scored singles to give them the winning margin, their first victory over Eden Mills in two years.

40 Halton Farmers Enjoy Bus Tour

Herburt, former Premier of Ontario, who is operating well over a thousand acres and is very happy in his farm life. At Eramosa farm, the farm he was born on, we saw some big operations. Mr. Herburt was digging huge pits and filling them with green silage and covering with a layer of earth.

There is a big gravel pit on the farm and machinery was being used to make the gravel. Modern equipment was being used to cut and store the winter feed.

Here Herford's are being raised with many very fine sires and it's a big operation. It was a particular delight for us again to meet Mr. Herburt. He has the same genuine enthusiasm, the same warm welcome and friendly familiarity that characterized him in public life.

More farms at Eramosa and helpfulness on methods as Charlie Holstein. He produces milk at a ballerina length gown of mauve organza over taffeta, fashioned in straggles style with soft organza stoles over their shoulders.

Picture hats of pale lemon straw were beautifully trimmed with deep purple velvet bands and streamers with lilac falling from the back of the crown. They wore purple gloves and shoes. They carried pale yellow gathering bags with mauve sweet peas and stephanotis.

The two little flower girls were Miss Elsie Lou Blake of Staveley, Alta, niece of the groom, and Miss Jill Hurst, Acton, cousin of the bride. They were both gowned alike in green organza over taffeta, floor length with shirred green taffeta headress trimmed with lilac, and carried gathering baskets with mauve sweet peas and stephanotis.

Stanford Perrot of Calgary and Staveley acted as best man for his brother, Robert Fitzgerald and Robert McLellan of London acted as ushers.

During the reception held in the church parlours, the bride's mother received in lead blue tuxedo taffeta with red blue straw hat and face veil. Assisting the bride's mother was the groom's mother, becomingly gowned in dusty rose crepe. Both wore navy accessories with blending corsages of carnations and roses.

AUTO - biographies ACTON PEOPLE AND ACTON PLACES THROUGH MANY YEARS

The lot upon which the Baptist Church stands was first occupied by a blacksmith shop, built and operated by James Lightheart, a brother of John and Samuel, the coopers. He built this shop about 1855 or '60 and operated it until he decided to move from Acton and sold out to his brother-in-law, James Ryder, who had been an apprentice in the shop.

About 1880 the shop was destroyed by fire but Mr. Ryder soon erected a blacksmith shop, a carriage factory and a large show room in front.
