WINE, WHITE GLADIOLI PROVIDES SETTING FOR DILLS-ELLIOTT WEDDING

Attractively decorated with baskets of wine and white gladioli, Acton United Church was the scene, on Saturday, August 16, of the marriage of Shirley Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Elliott, to James Arlof Dills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlof Dills, Rev. Hugh Moorhouse of Petrolia officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ankle length gown of white tulle lace and net. The dress featured an over-jacket of the lace with brief, set-in sleeves and tiny self-covered buttons to the pointed collar.

The skirt was fashioned with a deep band of the lace from the waist about the hipline, to which full net skirts were gathered. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was caught to a cap of matching lace and she carried a white Bible with pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Jane Elliott, sister of the bride and Mary Siers of Toronto. The two attendants wore length gowns of belle rose taffeta with a strapless basque and over-jacket and matching hennies. Mary Beth Elliott, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl, wearing a floor length gown of belle rose taffeta.

All carried baskets of yellow chrysanthemums, white asters and white gladioli.

David Dills, brother of the groom, was best man and usher were Jim Spielvogel, Kitchener; Warren Brown, Toronto; Douglas Buchanan, Comber and John Black, Seaford.

Wedding music was played by George Elliott, brother of the bride; Mrs. James Wrightman of Lancaster sang "O Perfect Love" preceding the ceremony and "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register.

For the reception at the bride's home, Mrs. Elliott wore an ankle length gown of dusty rose and net crepe and lace with an over-jacket of lace and navy accessories. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Dills, mother of the groom, in an ankle length gown of delphinium blue crepe and lace with matching hat and grey accessories.

Mrs. Elliott wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis and Mrs. Dills' corsage was of pink Briarcliffe roses and stephanotis.

For travelling to Ottawa, the bride wore a powder blue suit of corded bengaline with navy accessories and corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

About 125 guests attended from Comber, Toronto, Waverly N.Y., Ulster Pa., Detroit, Seaford, Kitchener, Battle Creek, Mich.; Birmingham, Mich.; Ruscombe, Tibury, Milton and Acton.

FLOWER GIRLS AMONG FOUR ATTENDANTS AT GREEN-WILDS MARRIAGE

Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton, was the scene of a lovely wedding when Betty Wilds, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wilds became the bride of Allan Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green, Eganville, Ont. Rev. R. H. Armstrong officiated. The organist was Ted Hanson and the soloist was Miss Bella Mae Roszell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with French lace, with a collar trimmed with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of French lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of red baby roses.

Her only sister, Mrs. Jim Thomson, as matron of honor, wore a yellow gown of French lace and net and carried a nosegay of yellow roses and corn flowers.

The bridesmaid was the groom's sister, Mrs. Stan Racho, in a pale green gown of taffeta and French lace with matching picture hat and carrying a nosegay of pink roses and corn flowers.

The bride's niece, Miss Judith Thomson and cousin, Miss Mary Wilds, were flower girls and wore floor length gowns of frosty orange and pale blue and mauve. They carried nosegays of pink roses and corn flowers with ribbon streamers.

Jim Thomson was groomsmen and the ushers were Freddie Wilds and Stan Racho.

The mother of the bride received wearing a dress of light blue with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose white with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.
