

PLAN TO LIVE IN ROCKWOOD, COUPLE MARRIED IN FERGUS CHURCH

Rev. O. G. Taylor officiated at the ceremony uniting in marriage Doris Evelyn Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott, R. R. 4, Fergus and William Keith Hamilton, son of Mrs. F. S. Hamilton, Rockwood and the late Mr. Hamilton. Melville United church, Fergus, was decorated with white, yellow and mauve gladioli and other summer flowers for the ceremony on September 8.

Lloyd Scott, brother of the bride, carried the wedding ring on a satin heart-shaped pillow. He wore white trousers and a navy blue jacket.

Best man was Murray Thatcher of Rockwood. Ushers were Jack Alton, Rockwood and Ronald Freure, R. R. 3, Rockwood, cousin of the bride.

During the services James Flannery of Fergus sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the organ by Mr. Pratt, also of Fergus.

A reception followed in the church parlors when Mrs. Scott received her guests wearing a dress of green lace over satin with black accessories and a corsage of cream roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose a blue crepe dress styled with lace inserts with matching accessories and a pink rose corsage.

On their return the couple will reside in Rockwood.

NIKKINH ATTITUDE

Wife (intense with excitement): "Well, what happened when you asked the boss for a raise?" Hubby: "Why, he was like a lamb."

SCORE: LOVE—NOTHING Jack had courted Maggie three years without proposing. Then, one day:

Jack: "Maggie, I have been weighing up your good points, and I have already put down ten in my week book. When I have marked down a dozen I am going to ask that ye be my bonny bride."

Maggie: "Weel, I wish ye luck, Jack. I have also a wee book, and I have been putting down your bad points. Already I have marked down nineteen, and when I reach the twenty I am going to accept Sandy MacTavish."

EDEN MILLS Plan Mission Band At W.I. Meeting

The September meeting of the W.M.S. was held on Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Anna Coulson with the president in charge. Devotions were taken by Mrs. C. Lasby and Mrs. W. Lowrie. After minutes and reports were read and approved, several items of business were dealt with. As this was the meeting for further arrangements regarding the forming of a Mission Band, the guest speaker, Miss Lily McArthur of the council executive, gave a very helpful message on this work. We are fortunate in securing Miss Darleen Hamilton as our Mission Band leader, who with Miss McArthur will meet in the church on September 27 to form a society.

Miss Sinclair of Guelph Presbyterian was also present and brought greetings and presented the Life Membership and pin to Mrs. J. L. MacDonald. Mrs. J. D. Lowrie gave a reading and the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. H. Gilbertson. A social half hour was spent with Mrs. J. Milne and Mrs. J. Gilbertson assisting the hostess.
