and George Clements District Junior Farmer Camp, at by colored campers, drew a gen-Camp Ahshunyoong, from August erous applause from an enthusiastic to 30. Camp Ahahunyoong is crowd.

Sutton. Indian tribal system, with the ponsibility, tolerance, but brought design that cause some houses to group being divided into five tribes out hidden talents which many receive wide popular sectaim while including the "Big Feet", the Camp were surprised to discover. staff. This tribal system induced Those attending Camp this year living accommodations seem to leave a competitive spirit among the were: Marion N. Porte, 'Acton, the public cold. They learned de-planned program that kept the days Willmott, Milton, R.R. No. L. Evel- the kitchen wing's long sweeping as these types cost more per square both bungalow. alive and interesting. They in- yn McCann, Milton, R.R. No. 4; cluded social, recreation, sports, Carol Pope; Palermo; and Edwin drama and music which were under Tyrrell, Burlington, R.R. No. 2. the direction of an able and inspiring staff. A special period was FAIR DAYES ANNOUNCED also set aside each day for tribal meetings. During these meetings original challenges were prepared for the camp fires that evening.

Each tribe had responsibilities and tasks of its own in which every member of the tribe participated. Serving of meals, dishwashing and vespers were duties in which each tribe rotated. Vespers were a form beach as the sun was setting. The suggest you clip it for ready refertribe in charge planned the program and led the service.

Flag raising and lowering an preparing of camp fires were handled by the Chiefs and sage mores, who were the leaders of each tribe. An interesting period of the day was "clean-up time" Each cabin competed for the prize given for general neatness and originality in interior decorating. The winning cabin won a hatchet while the losing cabin won a broom, plus certain undesirable duties.

On two outstanding evenings banquet and dance, and a minstrel show were staged. The banquet was an interesting occasion, with everyone dressed formally in jeans

CECIL A. CARR

OPTOMETRIST

8 Douglas St.

GUELPH

Tel. 1091

By Evelyn McCann, John Willmott, and a high standard of eliquette was practiced. On the following Nine Halton Juniors attended the evening the minstrel show, enacted town, R.R. No. 3; Billie Price, of pression of hugging the ground.

FOR ONTARIO EVENTS-TO WE HELD THIS YEAR

Dates of Fairs have been announced by the Agricultural Socicties Branch of the Department of Agriculture for this year and the following events will prove of intcrest to many of our readers.

	ence.
,-	ACTON Sept. 19, 20
	ACTON Sept. 19, 20 Arthur Sept. 23, 24
a	Bolton Oct. 3, 4
	I Caladan Sam 31
	Caledonia Sept. 25-37
31	Cooksville Sept 12, 13
-	Cooksville Sept 12, 13 Erin Oct 11, 13 Galt Sept 18-20 Grand Valley Oct 3, 4 Markham Oct 2-4 MILTON Sept 26, 27 Teeswater Sept 30, Oct 1 Toronto (Royal Winter
•	Galt Sept. 18-20
æ	Grand Valley Oct. 3, 4
	Markham Oct. 2-4
c	MILTON Sept. 26, 27
C	Teeswater Sept. 30, Oct. 1
LS	Toronto (Royal Winter
a	Fair)
3	Simcoe Sept. 30-Oct. 4

PEN FOR HENS

A farmer instructed his hired man to write on each egg the date to the West in competition, they're laid and the breed of the hen. Quite suddenly, the hired man res- And nothing could have shown is igned his job.

"Why do you want to leave?" petition where the West blew notes asked the farmer. "I've done all sorts of jobs," the sports vernacular, I think we wuz hired man told him, 'but I draw robbed! And I claim the right to the line on being secretary to a this opinion in spite of that which bunch of hens!"

Charlie Warren, tour manager First white man of English stock witnessed the competition. to visit Huronia was Alexander Henry, who, in 1764, passed through the smartest-looking band on the on his way from Sault Ste. Marie grounds. This opinion was shared to Niagara as a prisoner of the by dozens of Ontario people who Sault Indians.

Thurston's SERVICE PIANO SALES OF HAMILTON

NEW AND USED PIANOS

Pianos Tuned, Repaired and Rebuilt

For Service, and Estimates PHONE 128 ACTON

Looking tor an Ideal Bungalow?

Built for a former business executive, who desirous of a change, has listed this desirable brick five-room bungalow with us exclusively. Built in recent years before scarcity of good materials and labour, custom-built like a piano by a builder well-known for expert craftmanship. Has two bedrooms, sitting room and dining room, and heated sun room. Hot water heated throughout by oil furnace. Full sized cellar with wash tubs, hot and cold water. Well equipped for easy housekeeping. Bathroom, fully insulated throughout. View is ideal. Located in an exclusive locality, rightly called the garden of Acton. Has two private entrances with drive all around, with good garage. Owner's artistry has made the beautiful landscaped gardens much to be desired. As this is a confidential listing enquiries will only be entertained from personal enquirers interested sufficiently to be allowed to inspect the property.' We have the key. Anonymous enquiries, phone or otherwise, not entertained.

INSURANCE

Now is the time to review your insurance to meet with present day trends and values. Insured's protection is our first consideration; we deal directly with the best companies available, noted for their prompt and just consideration of claims. Our satisfied clients and claimants are our best advertisement. Years of experience right here in Acton, with knowledge of buildings and values, make us qualified to serve you.

Wright Real Estate and Insurance

F. L. Wright, Office, 30 Wilbur St., Acton-Phone 55 N. H. Wright, Office, 49 Macdennell St., Guelph—Phone 4915W YES, WE HAVE OTHERS, AS WELL AS SMALL HOLDINGS AND BUILDING LOTS

"We Wuz Robbed!" Technique Vital

Current band at the C.N.E. was the way you do it."

- Western Writer In Ousting Spots

Acton from one of the Gowan are based on the principle of mov-family, featured with the band ing the treating solution through paper and was written by Dave spot under running water until no prised a column called "Vox-Pop- can attack the remaining ink.

of fun, but educational as well. It well known architects made a study four foot of the ground. The Camp was operated on the not only brought co-operation, res- to determine the little details of others with substantially the same Such challenges is ball R.R. No. 2; Thelma Brown, Milton, finitely that many people like low

A clipping concerning the Swift enclosed recently in a letter to when it played a concert here sev-

ping" in the Swift Current news-

The letter in which the item was enclosed again thanked Acton Citizens' Band for the reception the

It was felt this clipping would be

Swift Current band had in Acton.

of general interest to those who heard the concert given here several weeks ago. It read as fol-mitted myself to the opinion that folks, but I can't say the same for position where the East is opposed

Easterners all the way through.

up any clearer than the band comwith two Eastern entries. In the might be held by, say, bandmaster

Irving Hansen, or anyone else who

'To start with Swift Current had

I heard pass their opinion on the matter. Their uniforms were outstanding, far more colorful and much neater kept than those worn the brilliant morning sunlight.

"The band was the epitome of military precision as, with drums rolling, it marched smartly onto the bandstand and took up its playing position. The boys gave you the feeling that they were proud to wear the Swift Current uniform and that you should be proud to claim such a prideful place as home. Consensus was that Swift!

No wonder the audience was unned when the marks were released. And I mean that literally! I think you could have heard a pin drop on the grass for two full seconds after the judges' spokesman,

S'L Martin Boundy of London, know members of the band and their home-town supporters felt

not only disillusioned, but downright disgusted with the marks, It was preposterous that there should have been 221 points between Burlington who won with 248 points.

and Swift Current, marked at 22515. The London entry was given 238 points, 124 higher than Swift Current, I said it at the time, and I say it again here: for my money, the London band was out of its

to me one of those deep Eastern

"It may be unsportsmanlike to cry over spilled milk, but I think we had a "ringer" slipped over us at the CNE. Had the judges justifled their criticism (as they did in other competitions throughout the 'day) the apparent discrepancy in the marks might have been understandable; but they failed to do this, leaving us with nothing but our ears. And to our ears, Swift

"It was a long way to travel to buck a closed corporation, and to find it out that it takes more than

GENEROUS SCOT

It was a rough crossing on the ferry and spray flew over the decks. The skipper called down the fo'c'sle: "Is there a mackintosh down there big enough to keep two

Came a voice: "No But there's

EX-COMRADE

At a Communist meeting, one of the attending comrades suddenly stood up during a debate, and asked

Speaker, what happens to my unemployment compensation cheques

when we overthrow the govern-

the presiding comrade:

a Macpherson willing to try."

young ladies warm?"

Current sounded like champions

talent to win from the East" secrets.

class. How it ever got 124 points more than our boys will remain

Ont., announced the decision.

Current was the band to beat,

them in an "official" capacity.

believe unreservedly that in

"East is East. I've already com-

Belbeck.

Streetsville Oct. 3. 4 Eastern people are pretty swell stuated on the south shores of A Junior Farmer would not only THE WILLIS is the pictured roof line down beyond the dorner Lake Simcoe, eight miles north of find this Camp to be a great deal home this week. Not long ago that lights the dinotte to within > house the cellar stops and is lighted by its own window underneath the

Another preference indicated by the Willis is a mellow house. If names, skits, songs and jokes, kept R.R. No. 5; Gordon Bird, George- squatty houses that give the im- the study was a leaning toward the should prove an ideal house for the spread-out Cane Cod or Hanch family that can afford to spend a Ed. Pearson, Tamp manager and Campbellville, R.R. No. 1; George 'In the Willis, this popular feature House styles featuring sheltered few dollars more than the cost directors, had established a well- Clements, Milton, R.R. No. 2; John has been accentuated by extending court garden or patio. Inaumuch of the minimum four rooms and

In removing the ink sputs from

Most of the following treatments

For permanent ink: Rinse the

the spot and drop lemon juice or citric acid (5 per cent, solution) on the spot, moving the pad from time

Next step involves a "percolating" technique. Place the material over a bowl and slowly pour warm soap-

If there is still some discoloration, place the material over a bowl and percolate warm glycerine or ethylene glycol through the spot, rubbring with a glass rod or stainless steel spoon. Rinse thoroughly with

For spots made by washable ink,

follow the above directions but om-

As a last resort for persistent stains in white material only, you may soak in a dilute solution of hydrogen peroxide and household ammonia. Rinse again with clear

Since some fabrics hold ink with a remarkable tenacity, you may find that there is still some discolor-

In that case, you leave it to a professional spot remover or dry cleaner, explaining what treatments you

"Every time we sit down to

DEAD STOCK

Dead and Crippled Farm

Animals Removed Promptly

for Sanitary Disposal

TELEPHONE COLLECT

Georgetown 11

Guelph 3334

GORDON YOUNG LTD.

"Soft ride, low price—what more could you want?"

Here's a low priced

low-pressure

GOOD YEAR

TIRE

Call in today to see the seneational new Goodyear Marathon Super-Cushion - a low-pressure tire that's really low

PHONE 69

MARATHON

Syca Fourtier

OF QUALITY

priced!

h's the buy for thrifty motor-

the Ottawa Women's Club.

ation after the above treatments.

it the lemon juice treatment.

water.

by any other band; and their in- breakfast there are 70000 more struments looked like they had just mouths to be fed than there were been unpacked from the factory, on the previous morning."-From polished to a tee and shining in an address by Nik Covell before detergent instead of soap.

to time. Rinse with clear water.

fabrics "it nin't what you do-it's practical compromise. . It gives the appearance of rambling without departing too far from the sconomical accure. It permits a front terrace shellered on two sides and a purch sheltered on three.

Humpleble, friendly and livesble, land and created a shallow pond. A the fabric so the dissolved ink is in ice before they could rise. Ireral weeks ago. This article com- carried away and the fresh solution ritated by this strange experience the ducks flew off with the pond.

TALL TALKS

> Quebec, largest of Canada's provmore ink is coming out. Then place inces, covers an area of some a pad of absorbent material under 600,000 square miles.

A Texas rancher, in order to store a little water for his cattle, had built a low dike around an acre of flock of migrating ducks spled the water and dropped down to feed. About that time a blue norther hit and the temperature, dropped so fast that the ducks' feet were frozen

Acton Taxi AND SNACK BAR

TO MILL ST. W.

PHONE 260R

24 HOUR YAXI SERVICE

Out of Yours Yrips a Specialty

OUR CARS ARE RADIO DISPATCHED

PHOME 2605 for prompt, courteous service

LORNE GARNER MOTORS ACTON, ONT. PHONE 452

TOTH'S SERVICE STATION ACTON, ONT. PHONE 326R

1952

Acton Fair

ACTON PARK

Friday and Saturday

September 19 & 20

ARENA SHOW - FRIDAY

2nd Armoured Divisional Signals Regiment Band

ACTON BAND WILL ALSO BE IN ATTENDANCE

THE KEPPO FAMILY Excellent Acrobatic Act

JOHNNY DASH

Outstanding Juggling Unicycle Act

BILLY RUSSELL World's Greatest Trick Harmonica Wizard

FLYING DEUCES Male and Female Roller Skating Team

RUTH COLE

Clever and Talented Acrobatic Dancer

Saturday Features

Fine Livestock Exhibit - Midway - Rides - Contests Gentleman's Road Race

SAFE TRACTOR DRIVING COMPETITION

Baby Show -- Stock Parade -- Band Program

DANCE SECOND NIGHT OF FAIR NACTON TOWN HALL

J. A. Carroll, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, will open the Fair

Write to Secretary for Prize Lists and Other Information

GEO. WALLACE, President

C. B. SWACKHAMER, Secretary