CATTLE RING at Acton Fair was a busy place Saturday as classes were judged for the awards. Here a class of Guernseys is under the judges' inspection while managers arrange the cattle. Entries were generally good with cattlemen claiming they had never seen fuller classes. The boys' and girls' fat market cattle class drew particularly high praise from officials. Many of the entrants in that class will be showing at the Royal Winter Fair. —Staff Photo

Lose to Streetsville 12-11 B-Hives Out of Play-offs

Although they carried a 10-7 lead into the fourth quarter, the B-Hives couldn't match Streetsville's five goal output in the last period and as a result went down to a 12-11 defeat in the fourth game of the best in five lacrosse semi-finals at the arena Thursday night. The loss eliminated the B-Hives and sent the Thistles into the O.L.A. Intermediate B finals against Orangeville. It was Streetsville's second straight one goal decision.

Following the pattern of the previous game in Streetsville which the Thistles took on an overtime goal by Harvey Madgett, the Acton club blew wide open in that final quarter. Goalie Jim Robertson, filling in for the injured Norm Young, had little chance on the five shots which eluded him.

Playing minus three of their better players, the B-Hives nevertheless made a good impression on the 800 odd fans who witnessed the game. Feeling was that they could have won at full strength but for their first year in lacrosse the club went beyond expectations at the beginning of the season.

Who's Ingram?
Ingram, an unassuming defenseman who showed nothing in the way of ability all through the series, was the Streetsville hero. He pulled the string on the winning goal that sent the large contingent from Streetsville into a frenzy of excitement. It was the first time in the game the Thistles had the edge and the visiting fans made the most of it.
Thunderstruck at the sudden turn of events, the B-Hives suddenly seemed to realize the series was at stake. They put in a furious bid to tie it up in the last five minutes. Working feverishly they hit the goal posts, the goalie, shot from right angles and left angles, from right in front; got all tangled up in front of Rutledge in the Streetsville nets. The Thistles held them off for three anxious minutes. When the bell signalling game's end went off, a cheer that nearly rattle the arena roof was sent up by Streetsville fans.

Acton players congratulated the Thistles for winning a series that few gave them much chance at coping at the outset. The B-Hives outscored them on the series 64 to 48 but couldn't match the old college try the Thistles put into every game.

Townsend Four Goal Man
The Thistles threw everything but the rink benches at Robertson in the first quarter but in spite of this it was Acton who scored the first goal. Johnny Haines, did the honors on a free throw awarded in front of the Streetsville net. Doug Townsend made it 2-0 when he cashed Tom Howell's pass. But Ron Madgett and Widdess tied it up before Townsend sniped his second goal of the chapter to put Acton ahead 3-2 at the end of the first quarter.

Playing an improved game the B-Hives enjoyed a 6-2 margin at the half. Junior Beaumont, Howell and Townsend struck to put Acton well ahead. Those three scorers were the best in the B-Hive on the night, especially Townsend.

Boom Boom Wilson blazed a shot into the cords to bring the Thistles closer early in the third quarter. But Freddie Kentner nullified that by working his way in alone, deking Cruickshank his pestiferous check, and driving the ball home. With Joe Gerrie in penance, T. Howell made it 8-3 for Acton before Burton whipped in two quickies to make it 8-5. Doug Townsend took Howell's pass and converted it for his fourth goal of the night but Wilson squared it moments later. Then Quinn shot from the angle for another for Acton. Widdess made it seven for Streetsville before the period ended.

Beaten by a Shade
Junior Beaumont hit the upper right corner early in the fourth quarter to give Acton an 11-7 lead with about 11 minutes to play. And then Streetsville struck! First Ingram, then Fred, Junior Beaumont and Evans went off for fighting and while McNair served a penalty Harvey Madgett parlayed a 11-9 deficit into a one goal lead with a sparkling goal that caught the B-Hives flatfooted in the Thistle end. Evans tied it up and it wasn't long until Ingram went in unmolested to sink what proved to be the winner.

Twelve penalties were handed out by the referees in a comparatively rough game.

ACTON PEOPLE AND ACTON PLACES THROUGH MANY YEARS

Miller Hemstreet, who operated "The Danville Grocery", whom we talked of last week left Acton and finally settled in Cleveland. There was also erected on the site of the Plastones and howling alley building a log building in which the late John O'Connor had a shoe shop and residence. For several years Acton's skating rink was located on this lot, and known as the King Edward rink. It was flooded by using the fire engine to pump the water down from the town hall. This was before the days of waterworks in Acton and one of the wells was located at the town hall.

Robert Agnew erected the Dominion Hotel. The first hotel on that lot was the Anderson House, a log building. It was the birthplace of Oliver Anderson who spent his boyhood days here and attended the old school.

Robert Agnew built the Dominion Hotel and under his supervision and that of his wife made it one of the most popular hostleries in the province. From the day the doors opened it was largely patronized by travellers, all of whom had a good word for the treatment received.
