

LOCAL NEWS

Items for this column may be shown to 174 or sent to The Free Press Office in Acton.

The new washroom at the Baptist church has been completed.

Monday evening about 30 attended the Acton boys scouts winter roast.

Many had visitors last weekend as many returned to visit the annual fair.

Holes in the roads around town won't improve winter driving any, unless some repair work is done.

There has been a danger of frost several evenings "in the low lying areas," as the weatherman puts it.

Cements sills are being poured at the site of the new A. P. Green plant with cement block walls up and steel sash installed.

Cement footings have been poured at the site of the new addition to Micro Plastics plant. Cement block work is progressing rapidly.

ORTON Family Together After 18 Years

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Turner was the scene of a very happy event on Sunday, September 21 when the entire Turner family gathered to celebrate the 80th birthday of their mother, Mrs. Jas. Turner of Ferguson.

It was the first time in 18 years that Mrs. Turner had her family of four daughters and eight sons all with her and came as a complete surprise to her.

The birthday table was centered with a beautiful birthday cake marking the 80 years in pale green, yellow and lavender, the color scheme being carried throughout the beautifully decorated home.

A lovely buffet dinner was served to 44 guests. They included Dr. and Mrs. George Turner of San Diego, Calif.; Mr. Walter Turner and daughter of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Turner of Port Credit; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Turner and family; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Turner and family and Miss Ethel Turner, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rutherford and family, Miss Maude Turner, Mr. Cecil Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Turner, all of Ferguson; Mr. and Mrs. Holman of Ayr; Mr. and Mrs. Art Turner, all being children of Mrs. James Turner. Also Mr. and Mrs. Keith Holman and two children, the latter being great grandchildren and Mr. and Mrs. George Cox of Cooksville, the former a brother and only other living relative of Mrs. Turner.

The main event of the afternoon was when Mrs. Turner had her photo taken surrounded by her 12 children. The many beautiful gifts bestowed upon the guest of honor leaves many beautiful memories of a very happy event.

Personal Items
Mr. and Mrs. John Dolson, Toronto, spent the week-end with Mrs. John Watson and called on other friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hooper and family spent Sunday with friends at Collingwood.

Mr. Ken Nevills, who has been employed as trim foreman with Tomlinson Bros. Construction Co. working on Highway 24, has been transferred to Barrie.

Week-end visitors with Mrs. T. Hayward and Mrs. Wilfred Till were Mr. Wilfred Till and Mr. and Mrs. John Glover, all of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meiklejohn of Ferguson visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nevills and family.

—To-day is the fifth day of autumn.

—The Oakville town band played a concert in Rockwood on Sunday. These concerts are part of a plan of exchanged band concerts in Acton, Milton and Streetville.

—Among the winners at Pualinch township fair last week were McCutcheon Bros., Rockwood for Percheyon and Belgian horses and T. C. Amos, Moffat, for Shorthorn cattle.

—Bill Coon came across two pepper squash that resembled Siamese twins. The two are joined together and have one stem out from the vine. They are in the Free Press window.

—Orville Duffield, Young St., had the index finger of his right hand amputated on Friday morning of last week following an injury sustained in a punch press while employed at Ajax Engineering plant.

MEY IRAQ KING IN WASHINGTON, ARRIVES IN 117 DEGREE HEAT FOR POST

From Iraq comes word this week that R. L. Buck, supervisor of United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization there, has just arrived in the country where he will work for from two to five years. Mr. Buck is the brother of Mrs. Alex Mann of Acton and has many friends here.

He is stationed at Baghdad, where he reports the temperature is 117 degrees.

After the war, Mr. Buck worked for United Nations Relief in Europe.

Last week the news reel in the local theatre showed the King of Iraq arriving in the United States for a visit. Mr. Buck was summoned to Washington to meet the young king at that time.
