

CHANGES EKE MIND

A woman was called for jury duty, but refused to serve because she didn't believe in capital punishment. Trying to persuade her, the judge explained: "This is only a case where a wife is suing her husband because she gave him $1,000 to pay down on a fur coat and he lost the money in a poker game."

Special Services In Local Churches

Harvest Festival services were held at St. John's Church Thursday evening when Rev. W. J. B. Melchior of St. Paul's Church, Guelph, was special speaker for the occasion. The interior of the edifice was well decorated for the service with products of garden and farm well arranged by members of the congregation.

Sunday afternoon services were continued and Rev. Ralph E. Price conducted the service and also gave the Harvest Festival address. For the most part, the harvest we have reason to be thankful for mercies from an all wise Providence.

Anniversary services at the Presbyterian church on Sunday were largely attended morning and evening. For the most part, the harvest we have reason to be thankful for mercies from an all wise Providence.

Following the evening service, the United church was entertained in the basement of the church to refreshments by members of the congregation and a social time enjoyed. Ideal weather conditions were enjoyed and added much to the large congregation.

BALLINARAD

Attend Program, Tea at Ospringe

Two carloads of ladies from this community motored to Ospringe Wednesday afternoon and enjoyed an afternoon tea and program in aid of the furnace fund of the church there.

A sacred program and lantern slides was held in the church on Sunday evening. Mr. Gibb led in the devotionals and extended a welcome to all. Guests taking part in the program were soloist Mrs. Auburn Wright of Erin and Alfred Toat of Georgetown. Duets by Miss Dorothy Simmons and Mrs. Veldhult of Acton, Jean and Margaret Bird of Ashgrove and Marilyn and Dorothy Churcher of Hillsburgh, were enjoyed. Two numbers by the home town quartette and a cornet solo by Bennett of Hillsburgh completed the musical part of the program.

Lantern slides on the story of Suma, an African boy, his home life and his experiences at a mission were shown. A set of temperance slides were also shown, entitled "A Tower of Strength."

Miss Hills expressed the thanks and appreciation of the W.M.S. to all who had given so generously of their time and talents to provide a most enjoyable evening.

AUTO - biographies ACTON PEOPLE AND ACTON PLACES THROUGH MANY YEARS In the early days hotel banquets were frequent. The lodges, the councils, even the school boards celebrated the conclusion of the year's business with an oyster supper or a more formidable spread at one or other of the four hotels in town. There was naturally a good deal of rivalry among the hosts and hostesses as to which could and would furnish the most comprehensive and appetizing menus. It was conceded that the Dominion generally "took the cake."

Plan to Correspond With English W.I. A very enjoyable afternoon on September 17 was spent by members and friends of the Greenock Women's Institute at the home of Mrs. Elliott Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bacon are among those securing television outfits at their residences. Mrs. Wilbert J. Guild and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holman already have TV.

The annual fall plowing match at Mr. Fred Oakes' farm on 24 highway Saturday afternoon was largely attended and favored with fine weather.

The president, Miss Elva Pearson, opened the meeting with the Opening Ode and Mary Stewart Collected. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted and the treasurer's report given. The roll call was answered by "A place of interest I have visited."

The members agreed to correspond with a fellow institute member in Derbyshire, England, to bring about a clearer knowledge and understanding of the Institute in that country. Several members plan to attend the Area Convention to be held in Kitchener. The scriptural was given by Mrs. J. L. Allan.

Mrs. H. Hensley, convener for citizenship and education, presided over the program. The motto was read by Mrs. Elwood Johnston. "Nothing will do or is good enough, unless it is the best of which we are capable." The topic for education, "Mother and School Age Children" was given by Mrs. John Neave.

These present were divided into two sides, odd and even for a spelling contest (spelling backwards), conducted by Mrs. Neave. This produced much laughter with the odd side the winner. Mrs. Hensley read a paper on citizenship, "Women and a better tomorrow. No matter how great the need of our participation in national affairs our first obligation is to the home and family where our children must find security, direction and understanding."

A farewell gift was presented to Mrs. H. G. Turner by Mrs. Wm. Hill on behalf of the members. Mrs. Turner ably thanked the members for her gift prior to moving to North Bay.

The meeting closed and a delicious lunch was served by the hosts and her committee.
