Plan Cut In Cost For Local Shoppers

Everyone agrees the cost of living has gone up considerably in the last few years and because of this people do without things.

Ledger's I.G.A. food store is now beginning a premium offer that goes with every $5 purchase. It isn't a give away cheap item, it's a good article that you can buy at wholesale price. To begin the premium incentive purchase plan, Ledger's is offering an open stock set of silverware for two weeks that can be bought for $3.99 with any $5 order. The set ordinarily sells for $8.87, so there is a saving of $4.88. Actually then, you pay 12¢ for $3.99 worth of merchandise.

The offer is good for two weeks when another premium of equal appeal will go on the list.

There will be some exceptionally fine premiums offered during the weeks that follow.

Acton High School News

Intended for Last Week

The election speeches were made on September 19 at assembly in room one. They were very well prepared and each candidate had a group of loyal supporters campaigning for him. The results are: President, Fred Gordon; vice-president, Marjorie Warner; secretary, Arlene Gordon; treasurer, Kathleen Stanley.

The various classes elected their form representatives on a Monday and Tuesday. They are: grade 9, Gary Dawkins, Margaret Early; grade 10, Joy Peal; grade 11, Loraine Tyler, Delmar Watson; grade 12, Betty May Lambert; grade 13, Barbara Joan Baxter; grade 14, Denise Coles.

Each form is entitled to one representative for every 33 students. Grades 9 and 10 have two representatives.

The schools of Milton, Georgetown, Erin and Acton compete in a Track and Field Day each year. This competition will be held in October at Georgetown. The rugby season will be delayed till later in October.

OBITUARY Born in Ireland, Dies in 75th Year

Friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Hugh O'Rourke, who passed away suddenly on September 27 in Toronto General Hospital. Mrs. O'Rourke, the former Annie McGenerty, was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, 74 years ago.

In 1904 she married Hugh O'Rourke and nine children were born of their marriage. Three children, Bessie, Kathleen and Patrick predeceased their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Rourke emigrated to Canada with their family in 1925 and homesteaded in the Clarendon area in Alberta, before coming east in 1940. Mr. O'Rourke passed away in 1944 and Mrs. O'Rourke went west to live with her daughter, Mrs. J. Sykes, of Stavelly, Alta. From there she returned at intervals to visit relatives in the Acton district.

For the past two months, Mrs. O'Rourke was living with her oldest son, Mr. Thomas O'Rourke and his family. After a short illness, she passed away in Toronto General Hospital.

She is survived by her four sons, Thomas, Desmond and James of Acton; Hugh of Clarendon, Alta.; and three daughters, Mrs. J. Sykes (Novena) of Stavelly, Alta.; Mrs. Geo. Howard (Winifred) of Ganges, B.C. and Mrs. G. Maxwell (Ella), of Colonna, B.C.

Requiem High Mass was sung in St. Joseph's Church, Acton, on Wednesday, October 1, where the funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Father V. J. Morgan, followed by interment in Dublin cemetery.

Three sons, Thomas, Desmond and James and three grandsons, Hugh, Emmett and Desmond O'Rourke were pallbearers.

Floral tributes were received from the following: pillow from the family; Maureen and Sheila; Sam Whinnery and Manely Family; Roy and Rheta Goodwin; 5th and 6th line Neighbors; the Morrisons; Mrs. Herb Cook and family, and the boys of Heckett International, Hamilton.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.
