

LOCAL NEWS

Terms for this column may be phoned to 114 or sent to The Free Press Office in Acton.

Fewer accidents result when alcohol is put into the radiator instead of the driver.

Lights to illuminate the front of the Victor B. Rumley Funeral Home were installed this week.

Sportmen have already been enjoying duck hunting with audible evidences of their fall hobby heard right in town.

The Wellington county plowing match was held last Thursday, October 7 on John Graham's farm south-west of Hillsburgh.

Mrs. Wilcox of Georgetown was the lucky winner of the $200 Porky at the St. Joseph's Altar Society bingo on Tuesday.

Street repairs on a number of Acton streets have been making a big improvement in local travel and in preparation for winter.

Standardized fire equipment installed in Acton this week was tested Wednesday morning after the fire brigade was summoned by the alarm.

Fishing and duck hunting were on the agenda when Baxter Laboratory foremen spent last weekend at Bill Benson's cottage at Honey Harbor.

ROCKWOOD W. O. Ross Dies In Fort William

Much regret was manifested in the village Wednesday when word was received from Fort William of the sudden death of Mr. Wm. O. Ross. The funeral took place Saturday from his late home in the village, with Rev. John W. Oliver officiating. Numerous floral wreaths bore silent tribute to the esteem in which he was held. These were carried by members of the Masonic body of which deceased was a member. Pall bearers were S. E. Peart, Wm. Peart, Frank Day, Herb Simmons, Dave Gerrie and W. B. Royce. Interment was in Rockwood cemetery. Sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Ross and members of the family.

Supper by Flashlight
The anniversary supper of the Presbyterian Church was held Wednesday evening and well attended but interrupted by the storm which interfered with the hydro power, putting out the lights. However, by the use of flashlights, lamps and gasoline lanterns, the ladies of the church managed to carry on in waiting on the guests.

Creative Art Topic
Thursday evening, a free lecture was given in the town hall on Creative Art by Thor Hansen, who spoke at some length, followed by slides which proved interesting to those present. Through booklets on Canadian crafts in industry given out to those who were present, some idea was gained through illustrations.

Mr. Thor Hansen is the designer of interior decorating scheme in the British American Oil Building, Toronto. Many of the motifs are indicative of animal and plant life in relief form on plaques, which are interesting.

The lecture was under the auspices of the Community Club.

Mrs. James Whiteside, who has been visiting in town and community, left last Thursday for Malton, where she left by plane for the Prairie provinces to visit her sons before proceeding on to her home in Vancouver, B.C.

Rev. James and Mrs. Neave are in Toronto for a few days visiting relatives.

Messrs. Neil and Norman Lambert were in Kitchener Sunday evening as guest artists at the Evangelical Youth Rally in Olivet church, where they contributed three duet numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. C. Winlow have returned from an extended brief holiday in Harrisburg.

A large number of farmers attended the plowing match on Mr. Graham's farm at Hillsburgh last Thursday.

Rally Day
Rally Day was observed at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Owing to anniversary services,

Acton Softballers On All-Star Team

When an all-star team played Streetsville at Streetsville on Sunday afternoon, Jean Harris, Ivy Ritchie and Grace Cross of Acton were on the all-star line-up. The team was composed of several from the Acton, Brampton, Port Credit and New Toronto ladies' softball teams.

Purpose of the exhibition game was to raise funds to cover the expenses of play-offs for the Streetsville team who won the Ontario championship from Sudbury.

Teams are in the Intermediate C Ontario Ladies' Amateur Softball Association.

CENTENNIAL QUIP
The photographer had just taken a picture of an old man on his 88th birthday. He thanked the old gentleman, saying, "I hope I'll be able to take your picture when you're 100."

The old man replied, "Why not? You look pretty healthy."

HIGHER INTEREST MAKES CANADA SAVINGS BONDS BEST INVESTMENT

For Outright Purchase—Or On Installment Plan—Only 5 Per Cent Down

For several reasons, the new Canada Savings Bonds are just about the best investment thing when you purchase them outright or buy them on the installment plan, declared Gordon Odeur, manager of the Bank of Montreal in Acton, this week in discussing the new government issue going on sale at his office next Tuesday.

"One of the greatest things about Canada Savings Bonds," said Mr. Odeur, "is that you can always get the full-face value of your investment. The price is guaranteed."

"Another thing about this new issue," he continued, "is that it has the highest interest rate on record for this kind of bond."

"Each bond bears 10 coupons at the rate of 3.75 per cent," he said. "The first coupon covers a 21-month period (equal to 2 1/4 per cent per annum), due August 1, 1954. From that date, one coupon at 3.75 per cent is payable annually on August 1, until 1963. This replaces last year's rate of 3.5 per cent and amounts to 3.44 per cent per annum over the life of the bond, compared with 3.21 per cent last year."

A lot of people are unable to purchase their bonds outright, Mr. Odeur pointed out, but on the installment plan—for only $2.50 down—anyone could make the initial payment on a $50 bond, $5 down, and the first instalment, on a $100 bond. The remainder can be paid in easy, regular instalments over the period of one year.

"Although the Government has removed controls on consumer credit," Mr. Odeur stated, "the need for fighting inflation still exists. Purchasing Canada Savings Bonds is a fine weapon in this fight, and it's a wonderful way to build a nest-egg for yourself."

MOTHERS JOIN CHILDREN AT SCHOOL LAST WEEK IN KINDERGARTEN

Over 70 mothers of kindergarten pupils gathered in the kindergarten room of the new public school addition Thursday of last week. Members of the Home and School Association were in charge of the afternoon event.

Work the youngsters had done so far was displayed and questions about kindergarten work and training were explained by Mrs. Shirley Dills.

Refreshments concluded the afternoon.
