Judge Addresses Joint Men's Clubs

Last Wednesday evening, the Men's Club of the United Church here went to Chalmers' United Church, Guelph, to meet with the Men's Club there and hear Roy Austen, Judge of the Wellington County Family and Juvenile Court, who gave a comprehensive address in connection with his work. Mr. Austen's address was thought-provoking from his six years of dealing with individuals.

Friday evening at the United Church, a repetition of the film, "The King's Man", dealing with mission work in Angola, West Africa, was shown, following a brief devotional service. Before the film, Rev. Smith of Kitchener gave a partially illustrated address, dealing with United Church work from coast to coast, which was interesting to those present. Rev. Slinn of Ebenezer church was present and led in prayer.

Sunday evening, the Y.P.U. of the United Church was held, with Bruce Hosking as convener, and the executive of Hamilton Conference Y.P.U. as guests.

Slides on mission work in Africa were shown during the meeting. Following the meeting, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all present.

Following a lengthy illness, Mr. Elmer Kinnee passed away Sunday at his home. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Kinnee and son, Bruce of St. Catharines. Interment took place in St. Catharines. Sympathy is extended to the family of Mr. Wm. West of Acton, whose sudden death occurred Monday morning.

Monday's rain was very welcome, which will materially help to replenish wells and cisterns in a low state for some time.

Quite a number of children and parents were in Toronto during the week-end to see the Santa Claus parade.

Mr. Alvin B. Root and Mr. Clarence Downes have returned home after a hunting trip up north.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Graham Sr. have moved into Miss M. Milroy's house since Mrs. V. T. Smith has gone to Florida. Her mother, Mrs. Cook, has gone to Ballinacree to spend some time with her son, Mr. Ralph Cook.

Mr. Frank Moore was in Toronto, making arrangements for his return trip to England.

Week-end visitors, Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. Groves Collingridge, Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shultis, Guelph township, 24 highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gordon and family, Orangeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Allan and son, Toronto.

Miss Ada Kylvum, Toronto, with Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Neave, "Brae Crest."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blake, Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert and sons, Norman, spent the week-end in Acton.

Miss E. Copas, Hespeler, spent a few days with Mrs. J. Ayles on her return from England by plane, landing at Malton.

Mrs. Reg. Micks of Kitchener was in town Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bolton.

Mrs. Effie Nickell, who has been in the west the past year with members of her family, returned home the previous Sunday in company with her daughter, Miss Mianie Nickell, who went west in the early autumn to accompany her mother home.

Acton High School News

By Chris Lamb

On Friday morning, we had an assembly in the bright, new auditorium of the Public School for the first time. We expect to hold weekly assemblies there. At our first one, the Glee Club presented two songs which it will sing at Commencement.

Arlene Gordon and Peggy Onkes played a piano duet. Nancy Lambert sang a very popular piece.

Fred Gordon read a letter from the secretary of the Milton High School inviting us to their—Sadie Hawkins dance Friday night.

One short scene of the Commencement play was performed and the audience found it quite amusing.

The Glee Club then sang its last two selections with a professional tone.

On Monday afternoon, the school went to the auditorium to see a safety film, a short talk by the representative who brought the movies to the school.

Another assembly was in the auditorium Tuesday morning to allow a rehearsal for some parts of the Commencement program. The grade 9 P.T. display, the play and the Glee Club rehearsed.

Plans for the rugby banquet have been completed and tickets sold. There will be a dance after dinner at the Y on Saturday night.

Wednesday morning will be devoted entirely to Commencement practice and a dress rehearsal will be held on Thursday.

George A. Watson Dies November 14

Many floral tributes showed the esteem in which the late George Alfred Watson was held when his funeral services were held in the Victorian Rummey Funeral Home in Acton. Rev. John Smith of Georgetown was in charge of the service and interment followed in Ebenezer cemetery.
