News for this column may be phoned to 174 or sent to The Free Press Office in Acton.

The first Elizabeth II coins go into circulation this week.

Inspector Leckie visited the high schools in the district this week.

The snow blower was in use this week for the first time this winter.

Town workmen have been keeping ice in the arena despite milder weather.

A new wire fence is being erected around the hydro sub-station and transformer on Willow St.

Over a dozen Acton boy scouts hiked to Blue Springs scout reserve Saturday. Most of them hiked on skis.

The days are already appreciably longer. Officially, however, there hasn't yet been a full month of winter.

The Baptist Young Peoples had a bowling party Saturday night. Afterwards they enjoyed television and refreshments.

The Acton Branch of the Canadian Legion held its banquet in the Y last Saturday evening by candlelight, as the power was off.

The door to the library was broken Saturday night when the electricity was off, by someone hunting his way in the dark Y.M.C.A.

The band hall in the arena has been repainted and now has new "linoleum" and new curtains. Other improvements are underway as well.

Oil painting classes began at the Y on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Dorothy Stone, who lives near Stewarttown, is instructing the group.

"The Quiet Man" Delights as Robust Romantic Comedy

Starring John Wayne, the nation's No. 1 box office star and directed by John Ford, three-time Academy Award winner, Republic's much heralded Technicolor production of the Maurice Walsh story, "The Quiet Man," reaches the screen of the Roxy Theatre for a 6-day engagement soon, as the first feature length motion picture to be filmed in Ireland by an American picture company.

In addition to Wayne, who shares starring honors with Maureen O'Hara and Barry Fitzgerald, a brilliant cast has been assembled. Ward Bond, Victor McLaglen, Mildred Natwick, Francis Ford, Arthur Shields and a group of prominent players from the famous Abbey Theatre in Dublin are among those featured.

A pictorial masterpiece that sparkles with wit, gay Irish humor or tenderness, and with as riotous a finish as has ever been filmed, the not so quiet "Quiet Man" concerns the turbulent home coming of an Irish-born American pugilist who, having killed a man in the States, comes to his small home town seeking peace and quiet. Here he falls in love with Maureen O'Hara, only to find that he must fight his way to happiness.

Prominent in this robust love story are the whimsical activities of Barry Fitzgerald who, as the marriage broker, has one of the outstanding roles in his noteworthy career.

John Wayne delivers the finest of his many memorable performances as the romantic, rugged O'Hara is superb as the wild Irish lass.

John Ford directed from the brilliantly written screen play by Frank S. Nugent and his movie-making magic is apparent at all times.

The musical score by Victor Young adds to the charm of the picture while superlative Technicolor photography by Winton Hoch and Archie Stout has brought Ireland's soft green landscapes to the screen in all their natural beauty.

If your fountain pen is suddenly sticking or clogging, try this simple home remedy before you send it off to the repair shop: flush it out several times with plain water and then fill it with good quality writing fluid.
