Knox Holds Annual . The annual meeting of Ospringe Knox Presbyterian Church held on Friday evening in church with the pastor, Rev. A. H Vair presiding.

Mr. Vair opened the meeting with scripture reading and prayer after which he thanked the congregation for their loyalty and faithfulness and hoped the coming year may be one of progress, both physically and spiritually.

Annual reports were given by the secretaries in charge, which proved the past year to be one achievement and success in all respects. The treasurer's report showed the allocation had been met, with a balance on hand.
