ROCKWOOD Three Films Shown During Meetings

Last Tuesday evening in the United church, films were shown of the recent Royal Tour across the Dominion in connection with the Globe and Mail showings at the Canadian National Exhibition last September. They were very interesting and showed the deep interest of the public wherever the royal couple stopped at different places along the route.

Previous to the films shown a film dealing with the Dairy industry relating to early days when milk was delivered by horse and cart and handed out by the quart measure to customers. It also showed the method of making home-made butter in an old dash churn, worked out on the old ladle stand and packed into butter print molds for customer. From the old fashioned method of milk delivery to customers as well as the farm dairy is a big jump to the up-to-date way of clean delivery by horse and milk wagon and modern creamery methods including manufacture of ice cream, cheese, evaporated milk and milk powder.

Dedication Service
Sunday morning at the United church a dedication service was held in connection with the new addition to the church building. Rev. J. Rees of Elora United church and Rev. John Ward of Guelph, a former pastor, were present for the important part of the service, the former giving the address to the congregation. An anthem by the choir, "God Be in My Head" was contributed during the service. Mention also was made of the new pulp chairs by Mrs. D. McMillan, Mr. Frank Moore and Russell Peart family.

During the evening service following devotions, a film was shown, "More for Peace" dealing with the importance of enabling people to face today's troubles in home and every day living with new faith and courage at the "Peace Table." There was a good attendance as well as in morning. Rev. Mr. Holley of Freelon was present for the evening service.

Condition Improved
The many friends of Mr. George Pearen will be pleased to know he is able to be up and around following his recent mishap. He was able to be present at the morning service for dedication. He is one of the oldest elders in both Rockwood church and Presbytery. He is fond of gardening, a good friend and neighbor.

A large number of people from town attended the Ball at Paradise Gardens, Guelph, in connection with aid of Easter Seals in the Crippled Children's fund.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. John Allan, Acton, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Verna, to John Thomas Ware, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ware, Acton.

CAMPBELLVILLE Folk School Work Described to W.I.

The March meeting of the Campbellville Women's Institute was held in the Junior Room of S.S. No. 10 School with 30 present. Mrs. George Inglis presided and opened with a poem entitled "Keep Going." The Institute Ode was sung in unison and the Mary Stewart Collect repeated. The roll call was answered by "My Favorite Musical Radio Program."

Mrs. Lloyd Bayley gave the secretary's report and read letters of business. Mrs. A. T. Moore gave the treasurer's report, stating another quilt had been sent to the Korean War Refugees. Mrs. Garnet Whaley gave the report and suggested a card shower be sent to Mrs. Campbell Agnew at 92 Delaware Ave., Burlington.

At the next meeting a shower of miscellaneous articles will be accepted for a bazaar in the fall. A collection was taken for the mentally ill children and added to the collection from the S.S. No. 10 School.

It was decided to honor a Grade VII pupil, who won honours from S.S. No. 10 in the Oral Composition contest at Brookville Hall last week.

Mrs. Lloyd Crawford then took the chair, and called on Mrs. Henry Kelly, who gave current events. Mrs. Roger Mahon gave a talk on Ireland and St. Patrick. Mrs. J. K. Mahon gave an account of her trip to the Hobby Show in Toronto.

Mrs. Crawford then introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Roy Coulter, who enlightened the meeting on the good work the Folk School in Halton County does for adult education. It was held at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Sim on the Queen Elizabeth Highway.

Mrs. Crawford led in community singing and Irish songs. Mrs. A. T. Moore thanked Mrs. Coulter for her inspiring address and all those who had taken part in the meeting.

The meeting closed with the Queen and all enjoyed a social half hour.

Church in Africa Study Book Topic

The regular monthly meeting of the United church Missionary Society was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Mason, with the president, Miss M. Z. Bennett, in charge.

The devotional service was under the leadership of Mrs. J. H. Thomson, assisted by Miss Dorothy Simmons, Mrs. J. Moore and Mrs. John Lambert. Miss Bennett gave the study book on the church in Africa.

A solo was sung by Miss Simmons and Mrs. Moore read a letter from the supply secretary. Arrangements were made to obtain the necessary articles.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Thomson's group.

BALLINAFAD Euchre, Dance Nets $39 for Flood Relief

The W. I. held a euchre and dance in the hall last Tuesday night but owing to a very bad night, only a fair crowd gathered and they were able to send $39.00 to the flood relief. Ladies' high prize was won by Mrs. Norman Sinclair, gent's high, George Gibson.

Lucky draw winners were Evelyn McDonald and Arnold McEnery. Mr. Ken Cotton and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEnery supplied the music for the dance.

Social at Peacock
A social evening and euchre was held in Peacock school on Friday night when all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

Institute Meets
The W. I. met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. T. Gibson. The meeting opened with the usual exercises. The minutes were read and all business was dealt with. The proceeds of the euchre and dance amounted to $39.00 which has been sent to Georgetown.

A committee was appointed to meet the hall board as to the possibility of doing something about the hall in the way of improvement.

The leaders appointed for the project "The Milky Way" are Mrs. Fred Mack and Mrs. Robert McEnery, who have already started their club work. The roll call was answered by an Irish joke.

Mrs. Jesse McEnery gave the current events which were very interesting. Mrs. Norman Sinclair read a paper prepared by Mrs. Mack on St. Patrick. Mrs. Robert McEnery gave a humorous reading, "Millie at the Skating Rink" and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall had a contest.

The meeting closed with the Queen and lunch was served by the committee.

Choose Norman Russ
Mr. Norman Russ of Hespeler, who is going into the ministry, preached here a week ago with a view to coming as the pastoral committee was impressed with him. They decided to ask him to come to this circuit. It remains for the settlement board to decide if he will come here.

We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Gibb and family from here but as Mr. Gibb will be ordained this year he must go to a mission field. The Mission Band met on Sunday at Mrs. Ernie McEnery's.
