Bright scarves and artificial flowers formed a background for some of the articles of leatherwork. Matched sets of purse, wallet and key case in both tooled and carved and embossed leather were popular.

A beautiful lamp base in the shop display had been paired with a lamp shade made in the metalcraft class to attract many comments.

Towering above the welding display was a mail box whose base was shaped to resemble a chain. Other articles made were welding tables, ensilage fork, calf pen gates and name holders for in lawns.

Hold Competition For Cloth Motif

The March 4th meeting of St. Stephen's Guild was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Ellis with an attendance of thirteen. Mrs. John Bussell opened the meeting with prayer followed by the minutes of the previous meeting read by Mrs. Ted Robinson.

Lorne Bussell and Irene Saunders are to accompany two members of the W.A. to purchase curtain material for the basement windows and it was voted that the Guild buy a number of card tables for the parish hall. A competition for the best motif to be appliqued or embroidered on the hall's luncheon cloths is underway and the winner will be chosen in a month's time.

Marion Robertson was chosen convener for a bake sale to be held in Milton in the near future. She chose as her committee Wilma Ellis, Joan Freer and Audrey Kingdon.
