Makes Windbreak Mulching Trees

Comparative results of three years' investigations at the Forest Nursery Station, Indian Head, Sask., indicated that proper mulching of trees may be a satisfactory method of establishing windbreaks...

During the relatively dry periods of each growing season a greater amount of available moisture, and a lower temperature, were found in the surface soil of the root areas of trees under mulch...

Results of these investigations have also indicated that the effects of mulching appeared to be more pronounced following more prolonged and lighter application of artificial mulch...

It is of considerable importance to note that no evidence was found to indicate that the various mulch treatments delayed the ripening of the twigs during the growing season.

Proper control of rodents is essential, however, if mulching is to be used successfully.

Chronicles of Ginger Farm

My column this week, will, I hope, be of special interest to W.I. members everywhere. You see I am all enthused about the big event that is coming up this summer when rural Canada entertains the A.C.W.W. And the more enthused I get the more amazed I am when some one comes up with the question—'And who, or what, is the A.C.W.W.?' So now, just in case there are a few women reading this column who still don't know, and would like an answer to that same question, I will give it to you right here and now.

The A.C.W.W. given its full title is 'The Associated Country Women of the World.' Its purpose is to promote peace, good fellowship and a better understanding between rural women of all nations, and includes all rural organizations of the world. The Association was organized in 1933 at Stockholm, Sweden. Its first president was Mrs. Alfred Watt, a name familiar to all W.I. members. Its present president is Mrs. Raymond Sayre, a friendly little woman as easy to talk to as your next door neighbour.

So that members of the Association may become better acquainted with peoples from other countries and their way of living conferences are held in a different country each time. In 1936 the A.C.W.W. met in Washington, and while visiting points of interest in that city, members crossed the Peace Bridge into Canada and were given an official welcome by the Hon T. B. McQuesten.

In 1939 the Triennial Conference was in London, England. Delegates from 32 rural organizations were present, many of them in native costume. During the war world conferences were naturally impossible although the organization was still active. In 1947 the A.C.W.W. met again, this time in Holland. There were 21 delegates from Canada, including Mrs. Hugh Summers and Miss Anna P. Lewis. All told, there were representatives from 22 nations.

Now it is Canada's turn to do the entertaining. From August 12-23 the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada (F.W.I.C.) and their sister organization, Les Cercles de Femmes, of Quebec, will be the official hostess groups at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto. Delegates from at least 25 countries are expected, even from Pakistan, Egypt and Lebanon, and possibly from Japan and Jamaica.

So you see big things are shaking up for the W.I. in Canada. Naturally preparations are already underway, and have been for some time. One of the big events will be the Canada Day program to be held at the Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto. It is hoped the Prime Minister of Canada, the Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, will officially open the ceremonies.

This will be on Friday, August 21. There will be a musical extravaganza of the story of Canada—'Dominion of Destiny'—presented by the F.W.I.C. This extravaganza will have continuous action, full orchestra, chorus of mixed voices, soloists, a large cast of actors, units of the armed forces, members of 'the Mounties' together with various animals, vegetables and other special features. Production managers, O. W. Fonger and Larry McCance, music directed by Samuel Hershenhorn. Singing star will be Ernest Adams. On Saturday, August 22, the performance will be repeated and will be open to the public.

So there you have it, ladies, something to look forward to that is truly Canadian, from which you may learn many things about the early history of Canada. If you saw the marvellous pageant that was put on in Guelph in June, 1947—'Let there be Light' then you will not want to miss this pageant either—'Dominion of Destiny'. Now about plans for you to attend. To every W.I. branch in Canada tickets for Canada Day celebra-

Poet's Corner GOOD FRIDAY 1953

If we should harbor malice in our hearts, How could we kneel, commune with God in prayer, Asking forgiveness for shortcomings of our own, His tender mercy share?

If we should hold forgiveness from a friend, Who came to us, with sorrow in his eyes, How can we'er hope to gain The peace of paradise?

Lord, teach these wayward hearts of ours, That earthly gain so often means loss, The only way to reach our goal, Is by Thy rugged cross. —Bertram E. Nightingale itions will be sent. The number of tickets will depend upon the size of the branch. To whom the tickets will be given each branch will decide for itself. Think this over carefully, W.I. friends—keep August 21 free if you can, and then, if you are one of the lucky ones chosen to represent our branch, be ready to accept the invitation. The opportunity may not come your way again. Don't think of attending the A.C.W.W. Conference as one more duty—it is more than that—it is a privilege. Last week I was at a press conference with the F.W.I.C. Planning Board, and a more capable and friendly group of women it would be hard to find. They are hard at work, trying to make this A.C.W.W. Conference second to none. It is our job, as W.I. members, to get behind them and help make this big event a success—for the W.I. in particular and for the honor of Canada as a whole. How about it, folks?

GUNNY SACK COMEBACK

The lowly gunny sack is on the comeback trail, reports the Financial Post. But Canada's Kraft manufacturers, nurturing an ambitious $10-$12 million a year competitive bag industry are far from happy about the trend.

When India's burlap went on its wild price rampage in 1950 and 1951, paper bag makers had things pretty much their own way. They cut into market after market traditionally supplied by the jute bag maker. Cattle feeds, flour, potatoes, sugar were just a few of the big volume products that fell into the paper bag makers' lap. The problem was only one of keeping pace with demand. In the process sales zoomed up 500-700%.

But now things are different. The burlap price picture has cracked wide open with a more than 50% price cut in the last year and the jute bag is back on the bargain counter again.

Alberta has fewer than 1,000,000 people subsisting on 44,000,000 acres of land.

So you see big things are shaking up for the W.I. in Canada. Naturally preparations are already underway, and have been for some time.
