OSPRINGE Formal, Informal Teas Taught Club

The third meeting of the Ospringe Hostess Club was opened by singing O Canada at the home of Ida and Joan Archibald on Saturday afternoon. The roll call, "Bring your record book and reference file with all notes up to date," was answered by seven members. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Ida Archibald and Shirley Awrey read her club story.

Mrs. E. Fisher, the assistant teacher, taught the proper procedure for afternoon tea, formal and informal and also the art of sandwich making. The girls made sandwiches, which were later served for an informal tea with Joan Archibald serving tea and Joyce Robertson passing sandwiches. After lunch Audrey Grundy, Shirley Awrey and Lorna Bessey demonstrated the proper method of dish washing.

Friends Give Watch To Harding Price

A very pleasant evening was spent on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Harding when friends and neighbors gathered to honor Mr. Harding Price as he has sold his farm and although not going out of the community it was felt that a remembrance of his loyalty as a good neighbor should be shown.

After an evening of supper, Elwood Snow, acting as chairman called Mr. Price to come forward and when a very fitting address was read by Morgan Madill, Ernie McEwen presented him with a lovely wrist watch.

Mr. Price very fittingly replied and all joined in singing "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Mr. Price was then served Mrs. Matthews had high score in eucra for the ladies, Henry Hills for the gents.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Burt on the safe arrival of baby daughters.

EDEN MILLS Dedicate Table at Sunday Service

An impressive dedication service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon when Rev. D. Crawford Smith of Knox Church, Guelph, dedicated the new communion table which was presented to the congregation by the Young People's Society. Mr. Smith also delivered the sermon which was much enjoyed.

Holiday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. James Daniel and daughters Mary and Grace of Toronto spent Easter week-end in the home of Mrs. Daniel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lowrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Synott and family of Guelph were visitors in the same home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wright and Jack of Chesley and Kenneth of Guelph spent Easter with Mrs. Wright's mother and sister, Mrs. J. McAlpine and Florence.

Mr. Joseph Lasby of Toronto spent Easter Sunday with his father Mr. W. A. Lasby.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemmer and family of Erindale spent Easter in the home of Mrs. Lemmer's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lowrie.

Home for Easter

Mrs. J. L. MacDonald who is nursing her sister in Orillia was home for several days at Easter.

Mrs. Wm. McLean visited with relatives in Toronto on Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. G. A. McPhail will be pleased to learn she has been able to leave the hospital and is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George McIntosh in Guelph.

Seeding is well under way in this district.

Fowl Supper. Films

The Ladies' Aid of the local Presbyterian church held a fowl supper during Easter week with a good attendance. Films were shown after supper with vocal solos by Mr. George Willeys and instrumental duets by Mrs. Gordon Aitken and Mrs. Norman McKenzie.

Mrs. A. Bulloch was hostess for the April tea of the Ladies' Aid on Wednesday afternoon when a goodly number of ladies were present. Mrs. Gordon Aitken presided and Mrs. G. Suter read the minutes. Following the opening exercises and a short business session, the ladies enjoyed a brush demonstration by Mrs. Morris Teeter of Erin. Sandwiches, hot rolls and maple syrup were served to climax an enjoyable afternoon.

TRoubles

"I want to tell you, sir, that I'm engaged to your daughter."

"Well, don't tell me your troubles. What else did you expect after hanging around the house every night for months?"
