Former, Present Ministers in News

Two well known clergymen were in the news recently. Rev. Charles Cochran, former minister, officiated at the wedding of Mr. Donald Gordon and Miss Hobbs in Melville Presbyterian Church, Montreal on Saturday and the present minister, Rev. Alex Calder, was quoted in Chatelaine regarding his opinion concerning Jack Power's article, "I won't raise my children in a small town." His letter was picked from hundreds received across Canada.

Peter Glynn's cousins, Jimmy and Sandy Agnew of Woodbridge, were visitors with him during the Easter holidays. Terry Lane spent Easter holidays with his aunt, Mrs. H. Norton. Mr. Alex Wright was home from Toronto over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Briggs and children visited relatives in Toronto on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hyland of Toronto and Mrs. Johnstone of Niagara Falls were recently visiting the C. A. Foster's.

Fractures Leg
We are sorry that little Teddy Clarke suffered a fractured leg when a gate fell on him last week. W.M.S. Meets
The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Benton on Thursday evening. Text word used was "Woman." Scripture was read by Mrs. Roughley and the prayer by Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Sanford read an interesting chapter from the study book. Billie Sanford played a piano solo and sang "When Mothers of Salem." Mrs. A. Norton read a short article. The president, Mrs. Smeithurst, pronounced the benediction. The hostess served lunch afterwards.

One way to save face is to keep the lower part of it shut.

Men's Club Hears O.A.C. Professor

Last Wednesday evening, the Men's Club of the United Church held their last meeting for the winter season. As it was planned previously, it was an open night with special privileges for ladies to attend.

Mr. Thos. Gellatly, president, opened the meeting with a hymn, followed by Rev. J. W. Oliver leading in prayer. Mr. Gellatly spoke briefly in regard to club matters and also introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Professor J. Weall of the O.A.C. of the Horticulture Department. Mr. Weall illustrated his address with blackboard drawings of two identical houses, one with only a few shrubs in front of a dwelling house and another with trees, shrubs and lawn, which added much to his address. In all, Mr. Weall showed great insight with his blackboard illustrations, which were very practical, to those present.

Mr. George Day also spoke briefly and expressed the thanks of those present to Mr. Weall. Rev. J. W. Oliver also led in a brief sing song. Mr. Gellatly also had some special attractions for the ladies and according to numbers on their papers, some were given handsome presents. At the conclusion of the presentations, Rev. J. W. and Mrs. Oliver were called forward and in a few remarks, Mr. Gellatly presented them with a silver tray. Mr. Oliver responded and expressed thanks for the gift. Lunch was served in the Sunday school room and a social time enjoyed by all.

Open Meeting
Thursday evening, the Rockwood Fish and Game Protection held an open meeting in the town hall. Mr. Frank Schneider called the gathering to attention and introduced the guest of the evening, Mr. Martin Bauer, who spoke at some length on matters relating to game activities. He then showed a number of films. One dealt with soil conditions and illustrated the effects of erosion in some cases due to flood conditions. Other films shown were in relation to wild life, including the bird family, their ways of protection and living. At the conclusion of the films, Mr. Frank Schneider and Clifford Meadows came forward with prizes for lucky number tickets. Master Ronnie Basted had the privilege of picking numbers. One of the prizes won was an electric lantern by Mary Blacklock. Others secured fishing outfits. In addition, a travelling outfit was stationed outside the hall fitted with all lines in connection with the fishing sport. In all, it was a profitable evening for those present.
