OSPRINGE
Wind-Caught Door Dislocates Shoulder

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Cooke will be sorry to learn she met with an accident at her home recently. She had been outside to pick up the evening paper and while going in the house, the strong wind caught the door, striking Mrs. Cooke on the shoulder, dislocating it and breaking some small bones. She is now a patient at the Guelph hospital, but reports are, she is progressing favorably and still maintains her usual bright, cheery disposition. All wish for her a speedy recovery.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith on the arrival of a son.

Assist with Program

Mrs. Ward Bruce, Mrs. Gordon Aitken, Joan, John and Sherlock, assisted with the program at the Choir Concert of Ballinacree church on Friday night.

Friends of Welina Klooster are pleased to learn she was able to leave the Orangeville hospital and is now convalescing at her home following a recent operation.

Attend Centennial

Mrs. Bert Greive of Guelph township is visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman McKenzie.

Hostess Duty

The fourth meeting of the Ospringe Hostess club was opened by singing O Canada at the home of Mrs. A. McKinney on Saturday afternoon.

The roll call, "one duty of a hostess toward her guest," was answered by 11 members.

The leaders, Mrs. A. McKinney and Mrs. E. Fisher, gave several pointers on "Meals and how to serve them."

Lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants after which Joyce Robertson, Mary Agoston and Joan Aitken did the dishes.

Mrs. G. Somerville
Auxiliary Hostess

The April monthly meeting of the Alert Evening Auxiliary of the Knox church was held at the home of Mrs. George Somerville on No. 7 highway. Mrs. A. K. Mann presided and led in the devotional period, assisted by Mrs. Robert Turner and Miss Florence Elliott.

The study chapter, relating the habits and customs of the people of Africa, was presented by Mrs. R. H. Armstrong and Mrs. Mel McCullough.

The meeting closed with a hymn and a prayer. Miss Florence Elliott conducted an observation test and the prize was awarded to Mrs. Rogers. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge and a social half hour was enjoyed.
