ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE of the Y's Men in the district was held at Acton on Saturday and Sunday of this week with seven different clubs being represented. Shown at the conference on Saturday are Acton president J. Greer, District Governor Em. Knill and Mayor F. G. Oakes who extended the official welcome to the visitors at the Saturday evening banquet.

HEAD OF HAMILTON CONFERENCE INSTALLS HALTON W.A. OFFICERS

The fifth annual meeting of the Halton Presbytery Woman's Association, United Church of Canada, was held in Oakville, Mrs. Belford Savage, Sheridan, presided at the full day session on Wednesday, April 15 at St. John's Church.

Nearly 100 delegates from 19 church groups were welcomed by Mrs. Ryland New, president of the Oakville W.A. The worship service in the morning was in charge of the Hornby W.A. Representatives from Milton W.A. took the afternoon service.

After the officers' reports were presented, Mrs. T. Lorne Livingston told of the organization of a Woman's Federation at Port Nelson which combined the interests of the W.A. and the W.M.S. This program took care of the needs of the women as well as the interests of the church.

Mrs. William Gasking of St. Catharines suggested that the women of the church should look through their well polished windows into the community and their services were needed. She was enthusiastic about their proposed home for senior citizens.

A successful luncheon was served by group seven Oakville W.A. At this time, the Rev. Harry Dawson of St. John's gave as his message the hope that the practical and so-called temporal part of church life should flow from religious thinking and inspiration.

Mrs. W. L. Agnew Oakville sang in the afternoon session and Miss E. St. George was organist.

The officers for 1963 installed by Mrs. A. E. Livingston, president of Hamilton conference W.A. were: honorary president, Mrs. T. J. Hedley, president, Mrs. Belford

Savage, past president, Mrs. Hunter Reid, first vice-president, Mrs. V. E. Norris; second vice-president, Mrs. Dingwall; recording secretary, Mrs. Jack Lee; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lawrence Stone; treasurer, Mrs. Campbell Wilson; patronage, Mrs. Harold Cleave; visiting, Mrs. Robert McNairn; citizenship, Mrs. James Moore; youth, Mrs. Frank Smith; press, Mrs. G. R. Connor.

The delegates were the guests of Mrs. Ryland-New at her lakeshore home at the close of the day's session.
