OBITUARY

Funeral on May 5 For Mrs. Alex Bell

One of Acton's oldest citizens, Mrs. Alex Bell passed away in Guelph on May 3. She had reached her 95th year and was fairly active until the last two weeks. Born in Pilkington township, Mrs. Susan Bell was the daughter of William and Elizabeth Blinco. She had resided all her life in this dis-

Following her marriage to Alexander Bell, the couple resided in Nassagaweya township and came to Acton 50 years ago when Mr. Bell purchased the Brown Lumber Mills. They built the home on Knox Ave now occupied by Mr and Mrs. Claude Cook and resided here until Mr. Bell's death.

She was a member of Knox Church, Acton and a life member of the Missionary Society In earller years she was active in the Ladies' Aid of her church and all phases of church work. She had many friends in this community where she had spent most of her life, who revere her memory and sympathize with her daughter Mrs Agnes Leslie of Calgary, Alberta. in her bereavement.
