—June is the month of strawberries, green peas and of course, June brides and roses.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson marked their 55th wedding anniversary quietly on Monday.

—The public school children have been gathering much material this week for their Coronation scrap books.

—The Acton fire brigade was summoned to the third line home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hassard last Friday at noon, when an oil burner overheated. No damage was done.

—Miss Jean Robertson received her degree of Bachelor of Arts from the University of Western Ontario at London this spring, having successfully passed the examinations in her final year.

—Motor vehicle accidents in Ontario in April killed 58 people, according to preliminary accident reports. With better weather, more children are playing outside, and increased care on the part of drivers in town is urged.

—Some oats in the district have been reported flooded out as a result of the heavy rain. The rain and hail appears to have done only slight damage to gardens and flowers and bushes will be attractive for the week-end celebrations.

—Cement walls of the junior swimming pool in Prospect Park have now been completed and the forms removed.

—Acton public school teachers attended a tea and reception at the home of Helen inspector L. Skuce and Mrs. Skuce in Milton on Saturday of last week.

—The Salvation Army is making its annual canvass for funds in Acton this week. The local branch of the Salvation Army reports that the organization has had a considerable number of calls in this area during the past year. The Salvation Army has proven its worth over many years.

—Many stores along the main streets are already decorated in preparation for the Coronation celebration here on Sunday. The colorful displays include flags, streamers, gilt crowns and emblems, portraits of the Queen and small models relating to the coming ceremony in London.

—Andy Molozzi, who will receive his degree in engineering physics from the University of Toronto early in June, has been awarded an Athlete fellowship. He intends to take post-graduate work in England, and will begin a two-year course at Imperial College, London, in September. For the summer he is working with the National Research Council in Ottawa.

TO LIVE IN MILTON AFTER TRIP TO U.S.A.

In Rosedale United church, Toronto, in the early afternoon of Saturday, May 23, Audrey Ethelwyn Anderson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frederick Anderson of Toronto, was united in marriage to Edward Hamilton Lyle of Milton, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton Lyle. Rev. C. MacGregor Grant performed the ceremony in a setting of white lilies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a strapless gown of net, featuring a full, gathered and embroidered skirt. Over the gown she wore a redingote of imported lace. Her cascade bouquet was of white gardenias.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Gerold B. Dunkley of Toronto, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Page of Toronto and Miss Mary Dayman, Dunville, cousin of the groom, wore identical full length gowns of romance blue, maize and coral marquisette over net and taffeta. All three carried cascades of shasta chrysanthemums.

John Montgomery of Milton was groomsmen and ushers were Gerold B. Dunkley, Toronto and Max Dayman, Dunville.

"O Perfect Love" and "Because" were sung by Mrs. Russell Reynolds, cousin of the bride. Following the ceremony, guests were received at the Old Mill, Toronto. Mrs. Anderson wore a gown of blue crepe and lace, with a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's aunt, Mrs. Arthur Dayman, Dunville chose a gown of pink crepe with tinted carnations in her corsage.

For travelling to the United States, the bride wore a navy blue taffeta. Her going-away corsage was of red roses.

The bride was a public health nurse in Acton for three years and was formerly employed with the Children's Aid in Milton. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle will live in Milton.

Special Interest At Roadside Parks

Ranging in area from one-half to 350 acres, the Ontario Department of Highways owns and operates 62 Roadside Parks suitable for camping, and more than half of them are located on the 1,432 miles of road which are being developed to form Ontario's section of the Trans-Canada Highway. That inter-provincial thoroughfare will extend for a distance of more than 5,000 miles from the east coast of Newfoundland to the British Columbia shore of the Pacific Ocean.

Concentration of free tourist parks suitable for tents or trailers on Ontario's portion of the Trans-Canada Highway is designed to attract many additional thousands of tourists from the United States each year, while offering economical north-country holiday centres for Ontario people and visitors from other provinces.

Most of the Ontario Department of Highways' free Roadside Parks are provided with outdoor fire-places for camp cooking; picnic tables; deep wells and other amenities. Many have good bathing beaches and some of them have bath houses with showers. All are located at points of special scenic interest. In fact, even the 823 roadside picnic sites along most of Ontario's system of four lane main highways are located with full attention given scenic values. Such picnic sites have one or more bench-attracted picnic tables and covered containers for refuse.

Northern Ontario has 20,000,000 acres of fertile, unoccupied farm lands and Alberta has 30,000,000 acres.
