Timely Decorations At Coronation Tea

The Coronation Tea held in the local Presbyterian church on Monday evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The tables looked lovely, decorated with the souvenir cups and saucers and plates, gold crowns and bouquets of tulips and narcissus. After the tea, all repaired to the church proper and enjoyed the films of the royal tour and wedding.

The form and order of divine service used throughout the churches on Sunday was fittingly observed in the local church.

The junior choir sang "Hallelujah" and the minister, Rev. A. Vair, gave a very inspiring message on the "Three Crowns," the crown of thorns, Queen Elizabeth's crown and the crown of life. He stressed the spiritual significance of the service and what each symbol meant and on June 2, each to realize the sacredness of the service.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. James Struthers in the recent passing of her brother, Mr. Walker, at Petrolia. Mr. and Mrs. Struthers, in company with their eldest son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Struthers of Acton, attended the funeral on Wednesday at Petrolia.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hawkins of Guelph were recent visitors with their cousins, Mrs. G. Sumter and Miss E. Baldie.

Mrs. R. C. Thompson of Guelph visited on Saturday with Mrs. Wm. Smith at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baple.

Miss Jean Howard, who is a student at Ryerson Institute, Toronto, is spending a short holiday with her parents, prior to leaving for Lake Simcoe, where she has employment for the summer months.

Congratulations to Miss Ruth Smith, who graduated from Ryerson, Toronto, and has accepted a position as assistant dietician at Oakville-Trafalgar hospital.

The girls of the Hostess Club and their leaders, Mrs. A. McKinney and Mrs. E. Fisher, attended Achievement Day at Fergus on Saturday and report an interesting day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robertson, Jim and Sharon, are holidaying at Baysview and points north.

OPENING DAY on Saturday for the Rams sought to elicit a real response from fans if last year's enthusiasm is any indication. Fresh from a victory over the highly touted Dundas Hornets, the Rams will be favourites to take Oshweke into camp. The Indians were dumped 13-10 by Georgetown in their first test of the season last Friday night.

Acton fans will be interested in seeing how well the Rams do against Oshweke in order to gauge the relative strength of the Georgetown team. Incidentally, Georgetown's team has been baptized the "N. and G's" out of deference to most of the players who hail from either Norval or Glen Eddy.

The locals aren't out of the woods yet so far as players go. The wrath of Chuck Blair, the Streetsville sage, has not yet descended on the O.L.A. Mr. Blair happened to be in Dundas last week when the Rams played there. He didn't say anything but it was obvious he was interested in seeing how many players he could snatch from the Acton club. His expression remained fixed even when Burton and Foster, two of last year's Thistles emerged from the dressing room in Acton lividly.

Possibly he's saving his wrath for the O.L.A. when player certificates come up for signing. When the hammer does come down you can be sure you'll hear the cries from here to Sarina, for Mr. Blair is an explosive chap when he's provoked. And that's putting it mildly.

A GENTLEMAN wants to know if the lacrosse they play in the States resembles what they play here. From all accounts we've read and pictures we've seen, we would say the Canadian and U.S. games are identical, with this difference: the Americans wear headgear and the leagues are confined to colleges. No semi-professional or amateur circuits arise in evidence. However, the brand of lacrosse they play in the ivy circuits is considered pretty good by Canadian standards.

Wallaceburg and Sarnia, the two new entrants in the southern section of the O.L.A. played considerable games in the old Canadian-American league, which contained four teams from the States. The Canadians experienced real difficulty in latching on to a title although it's possible the American squads had their full complement of Canadian players.

Lacrosse is played in England and in different countries of Europe, we know, but it is probably the old game of field lacrosse that is popular. Playing in a boxed arena or an open air box for that matter is a Canadian innovation. Real difficulty was experienced in getting the public to accept this new brand of the game but the trend in recent years seems to indicate a revival and renewed interest.

Haltom County, which two years ago hadn't a lacrosse team outside of what was playing in the little hamlet of Norval, has now three teams—all in major centres. Acton, the first town to introduce lacrosse has been joined by Georgetown in the intermediate loop, and now Oakville has a junior entry operating out of Toronto.

SOFTBALL is going full tilt in the park these nights with two teams from Acton making use of facilities. The girl mushballers play their home games on Monday nights and have a few exhibitions thrown in for good measure during the week. Reports are the girls are an improvement over last year.

With Sid Eisen again sponsoring the team an entry has also been made in the Eramosa district softball league. Eisen's kept up pretty close to the top last season and this year with a couple of games under their belts, the local nine promises to be even better.

Out of necessity we've been neglecting the softball this year, but reports of games are welcomed for these columns.

ROCKWOOD

Rockwood Sweeps Softball Victory

Owing to inclement weather last week, the first ball game of the season had to be postponed. Rockwood and Eden Mills were slated for the game. Thursday evening, Rockwood and Everton played on the diamond here with the result 20-0 in favor of Rockwood.

At St. John's church Sunday morning, the Order of Divine Service issued by command of Queen Elizabeth II was carried out, with the rector, Rev. R. E. Price, in charge.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Ranney of Acton in the sudden death of their son Saturday morning as result of an accident at a railway crossing adjacent to Toronto. Mr. C. O. Ranney has on occasions served as lay reader at services in St. John's church.

Some of the business places in town are decorated in regard to the Coronation of our sovereign, Queen Elizabeth II.

Rev. and Mrs. James Neave, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rayner are spending a few days in London, Ont.

Little Nancy Meadows and Master Donnie Nighthale are quarantined with the measles.

Week-end and Sunday visitors: Miss Helen Bayne, Preston; Miss Elizabeth McPhedran, Orangeville; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crayton, Brampton; Miss Isabel Thomson, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rennie, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Miller and son, Jim of Kitchener, with the Lambert's; Mr. and Mrs. Clare McLelland of Brampton visiting in town.

In connection with Coronation number issue of Royal Bank, dealing with bank employees and others, mention is made of Mr. Norman Lambert of Lion's Head, Ont., with Mr. C. E. Tupper, manager, in a snapshot of the two in a duet on a high note. According to information received, Mr. Tupper was formerly of Windsor, Ont., and used to be in a Barber Shop Quartette there.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wellhauser (nee Shirley Ann Stump) on the occasion of their wedding in Guelph during the week-end.

SNAPDRAGON SETTING FOR LAVER WEDDING

Pink and white snapdragons and ferns formed the setting in St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, for the marriage of June Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson H. Laver of R.R. 2, Hornby, to Mr. Victor Elliott, son of Mr. Dave Elliott and the late Mrs. Elliott of Acton, on May 16th at four o'clock. Rev. Maxwell officiated and the organist was Mrs. Ernest Price.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown with lace top and skirt of net over taffeta. A crown trimmed with forget-me-nots held her three-quarter length veil, and she carried a cascade of red roses. For something old, the bride wore a gold bracelet given her as a little girl by her grandmother.

Flower girl for her sister, Miss Linda Ann Laver wore a gown of blue taffeta with a spray of flowers in her hair, and carried pink and white sweetpeas. Another sister, Miss Mae Edna Laver, was bridesmaid in a gown of pink net over taffeta with matching gloves and hat trimmed with lily-of-the-valley. Mr. Thomas Elliott, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Lorne Miller and Mr. Edwin Laver.

A reception for 55 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, Embelle Farms. Mrs. Laver, mother of the bride, received in a grey suit with white accessories, and Miss Florence Elliott, sister of the groom, wore a yellow nylon dress with matching hat and gloves and a pink carnation corsage. Guests attended from Bolton, Toronto, Erin and Stratford. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Edgar May, Mrs. Ralph Kingdon, Miss Evelyn Hoperoff, Miss Shirley Bryn and Miss Beryl Laver. After the reception, the bride and groom left for Vancouver, the bride wearing a mulberry suit with white accessories. The couple will live in Acton.
