

A dime any day is what drivers wish they could stop on. If you find your brakes won't stop you unless you hit a brick wall, we'll have a go at 'em. A little tightening up here and there, a little aligning and truing, and you'll be handling back nine cents change from that dime!

Trip to England Shown on Slides

The Duke of Devonshire Chapter I.D.E. held its regular monthly meeting on June 8 at the home of Mrs. E. M. Schroeder, Bower Ave. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. A. Long, regent. It was decided to hold the annual Fall Fair tag day for British and European Relief and that the next regular meeting will be held in October. Two grade VIII pupils, Helen Landsborough and Margaret Dennis, read their prize-winning essays for Empire Day on "Why I'm Proud to be a Canadian." Miss Dennis thanked the Chapter for their prizes. Miss C. Grindley showed colored slides on her trip to England during the Festival of Britain, with a very interesting commentary. She was thanked by Miss M. Z. Bennett and presented a gift by Mrs. L. Youngblut. The meeting closed with refreshments served by the group in charge.

Bible Study Theme Of Church Group

Adventuring in Bible study was the theme of the program studied at the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss M. Z. Bennett. Miss M. Mainprize presented this study and was assisted by Mrs. Mowat, Mrs. Cleave, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Binnie, Mrs. Currey and Mrs. Dille. The devotional service was given by Mrs. Force and Mrs. MacArthur. Reports of various committees were given and plans for the Mission Band picnic completed. At the close of the meeting a social time was enjoyed.

NASSAGAWEYA S.S. No. 7 Institute Members At District Annual

Several ladies from the Busy Bees Institute motored to Burlington last Friday, June 5 to attend the District Annual of Halton. All reported a good time. Hold Achievement Day The girls who were taking the home-making course, "The Millie Way," attended the Achievement Day in Milton on Saturday and received their spoons and diplomas.

W.I. Meet at Hall The W. I. met on Wednesday in the Hall with Mrs. Ernie McEnery as hostess. The president presided. The meeting opened with the Ode and the Mary Stewart collect.

After the business was finished, Mrs. Mack, as convener, called on Mrs. Dun Brown for current events. Mrs. F. Smith gave the motto, "Crumbs of happiness make loaves of contentment." Mrs. Snow gave a paper on "What a good home is like."

The club girls then gave their skit, "Play safe with milk." Mrs. Smith gave her report of the convener's conference held in Guelph. The meeting closed with the Queen. The social committee then served lunch.

OSPRINGE Mrs. Taylor Hostess Women's Institute

Mrs. Robert Taylor entertained the Women's Institute on Wednesday for the regular meeting. Mrs. D. G. Robertson presided and Mrs. Norman McKenzie read the minutes and business items and also presented the members with the Maple Leaf pins. A full report of the Conference at Guelph on Resolutions was given by Mrs. Ken Stubbington. The delegates, Mrs. W. Awrey and Mrs. G. Aitken gave splendid reports of the recent District Annual. Mrs. Taylor read an appropriate poem.

An educational quiz on the hand book was conducted by the president and won by Mrs. George Young. Several written suggestions for next year's programs were handed in as answers to the roll call.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. Tansley and Mrs. H. Smith, served dainty refreshments to close an enjoyable afternoon.

Returns from Hospital Friends are pleased to learn that Mrs. Dan Winter was able to leave the Guelph hospital on Thursday and is now at her home here. Her husband is still confined to the hospital following injuries received in a car accident.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Vernon Stewart in the sudden passing of her mother, Mrs. Andrew Johnson, last Tuesday. Several from here attended the funeral at St. Alban's church, Acton, on Thursday.

Attend Hall Opening Mr. and Mrs. George Grundy attended the opening of the new Orange Hall at Guelph on Saturday. Guests with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson on Tuesday to watch the Coronation on television included: Mr. and Mrs. Reg Carter, Laverne and Karen, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williamson, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDougall, Misses Florence and Laureen McDougall of Eramosa; Mr. and Mrs. George Young and Marilyn, town line.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris visited on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson and family at Belwood and watched the Coronation.

Mr. Gordon Robertson returned to his job on the Provincial Police Force at Guelph on Monday, following a three week vacation.

First Communion Miss Sharon Buck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Buck, was a member of the class of children making their first Communion at the Church of Our Lady, Guelph, recently.

Flower Girl at Wedding Little Miss Muriel McCutcheon acted as flower girl on Saturday at the wedding of Jean Blakely and Murray McMillan in Donlands United church, Toronto. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon, were also guests. The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, are spending a few days with the McCutcheons.
