Monday was the longest day of the year and the first day of summer.

High school students were in school for the summer last Friday, when the last examinations were written.

During this last week of school, several of the classes held parties with their teachers before separating for the summer.

A staff of 175 St. John's High was brought in to the Free Press office this week, and is on display across two of the front windows. It was pulled from a field at St. K. Newman's.

Last Saturday morning, Charles David, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips of R. R. 1, Acton, was challenged on his home by Rev. Ralph Fisher, Rector, St. Michael's of St. John's in the parish's parish.

Several car loads of John's from Acton drove Saturday afternoon to Georgetown in the afternoon tea and luncheon at the school. The money raised was to be used in July 4th activities at the school.

Rev. Dennis A. Burns of English River, superintendent of English River, was speaking at the evening service at the English church on Sunday evening.

Fashion Hint

For the casual way of life, when skirts and blouses or sweaters are worn most of the day, a special type of perfume to complement the outfit is best. With casual clothes, a woody, spicy or fruity fragrance is most suitable.

For afternoon or informal evening occasions a sweetly floral scent is best. With a very smart evening or cocktail gown—choose one of the crisp and woody scents that are so provocative in name as well as fragrance.
