SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATI[illegible] CONFERRED ON 32 BY BISHOP[illegible]N

His Excellency Joseph F. Ryan, [illegible] of Hamilton, made his Episcopal visitation to St. Joseph's Church on Tuesday evening and conferred the Sacrament of Confirmation on 32 candidates. He was accompanied by his secretary, Father Paul Reding. Visiting clergy for the occasion included Father A. S. Callaghan of Rockwood, Father John Walsh of Guelph, Father Francis Morgan of Kitchener and Father Philip Lardie of Milton.

Holy Name men of St. Joseph's parish, Acton, and Holy Cross, Georgetown, formed a guard of honor for the Bishop from the rectory to the church. The procession was led by the altar boys, carrying the processional crucifix and the acolytes.

Father Morgan met the Bishop at the church entrance and conducted him to the sanctuary, while the choir sang, "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus." Following singing of the versicles and responses by the clergy, Bishop Ryan sang the oration of the patron saint of the church, St. Joseph, and gave his blessing to the assembled gathering.

Father Morgan welcomed His Excellency on behalf of himself and both parishes. In responding, Bishop Ryan congratulated the pastor and parishioners on the beauty of the newly decorated church. He gave an inspirational address on vocations to the priesthood and sisterhood and stressed the great need for more vocations because of the tremendous growth of the Church in Canada. He also spoke briefly on Catholic A[illegible] congratulated the child[illegible] confirmed on their soun[illegible] of the Catechism.

SPRING FLOWER SETTING FOR CHURCH WEDDING

Baskets of lovely spring flowers decorated Knox Presbyterian church for the wedding on Saturday, June 6, of Ruth Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Smith and William T. Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Watkins, Acton. Rev. R. H. Armstrong officiated. Miss Ethel Franklin played the wedding music and Miss Margaret Campbell, Long Branch, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace and net over satin. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was caught to a crown of seed pearls and satin and she carried a bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Frances Jones, Long Branch, was maid of honor wearing a glazed cotton floor length gown of green. Miss Peggy Oakes, bridesmaid, wore a floor length gown of yellow glazed cotton.

Ann Watkins, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid and wore pink. All had matching accessories and carried bouquets of roses.

Gloria Heron, niece of the bride, wore pink and carried a basket of roses.

Best man was Grant Withers and ushers were Robert Holmes and Dennis Smith.

The reception was held in the church hall and later the couple left on a motor trip to U.S.A. For going away the bride changed to a pink suit with pink accessories and corsage of orchids.

Friends were present from Cleveland, Brockville, Kitchener, Long Branch and Toronto.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS WITH MUSIC, DANCING

About 25 guests from Acton, Guelph and Campbellville were present Saturday evening, June 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McIsaac, R. R. 4, Acton, to participate in birthday celebrations for Miss Gladys and Master Allan McIsaac. Music and dancing were the main features of an enjoyable evening.

Miss Gladys McIsaac welcomed her many friends on behalf of herself and her brother. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess and her helpers and dancing concluded the event.
