

PLEDGE NUPITAL VOWS AT MINISTER'S HOME

In a ceremony at the home of Rev. J. Diltz and Mrs. Diltz, Rockwood, Miss Frances Audrey Pattison exchanged wedding vows with Charles Lloyd Benham. The bride is a daughter of Mr. L. E. Pattison of Rockwood and the late Mrs. Pattison, and the groom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benham. The bride chose a waltz-length dress of nylon marquisette in orchid shade. The moulded bodice featured a pleated, bias-cut, satin yoke with frosted lace design studded with rhinestones. She wore a matching bolero and her headdress was a coronet in mauve shade with rhinestone and pearl trim. Her corsage was of yellow roses and stephanotis. Her only ornament was a necklace worn by brides in the family for the last number of years. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jane Pattison of Windsor, who chose a gown styled identically to that worn by the bride, in a blue mist shade. Her headdress was a blue coronet with trim of rhinestones and pearls and her corsage was of pink roses. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Bar-Lo's Inn, Rockwood. Baskets of pink and white gladioli and also streamers of pink and white decorated the rooms for the reception. The bride's table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by white candles and bouquets of pink sweet peas. The bride's aunt, Mrs. William Kavanaugh of Windsor, received the guests, wearing a navy blue sheer crepe dress with red and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. She was assisted by the groom's sister, Miss Helen Benham of Toronto. She chose a two-piece black fallie dress, complemented by a corsage of pink carnations. A honeymoon trip to Owen Sound and points north followed. The couple will reside at R.R. 3 Rockwood. For travelling the bride wore a two-piece grey ensemble with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Guests were present from Toronto, Windsor, Everton and Rockwood.
