—Just two more week-days of holidays before school opens again.

—Sunday evening's brief storm wasn't much help in alleviating the heat wave.

—Mr. Thornton of Limehouse left the Free Press a beautiful bouquet of gladioli from his garden this week.

—The Acton fair prize lists are now printed and are obtainable in town at the hardware stores or the Free Press office.

—Many from Acton have been adding to the crowd at the Exhibition in Toronto. Special buses for the Ex are passing through town.

—The main topic of conversation these days is the heat. Complaints about the weather seem to rattle well above the Ex as conversation topics.

—Forty hours devotions were held at St. Joseph's church Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of this week, with several visiting priests taking part in the services.

—A very enjoyable evening was given by Miss Annie Akins as a surprise party, with a lovely cake, for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rawson on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

—A P.O.W. who returned to Canada from Korea on Tuesday, Gunnar Orval Jenkins of Hamilton, is a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davidson. He was a prisoner for two years in Korea.

—A. Mason, who has been supervising the new junior pool in the park, was spelled this week by Mrs. D. Schull, the wife of the new Y secretary, Mrs. Schull was a champion diver in her native Holland.

MISS ETHEL BROWN HONORED AT SHOWERS

On Wednesday, August 19, Mrs. Allan Harrop opened her lovely home for a miscellaneous shower for Ethel Brown, a bride of this month. Over 50 friends and neighbors of the bride gathered to shower the bride and enjoy a mock wedding presented by the neighbors. Many lovely and useful gifts were received. Ethel was assisted in opening her gifts by Miss Isabel Currie and Mrs. Donald Ismond. A lovely lunch was enjoyed by all present.

Miss Marion Hunter entertained members of the Presbyterian church choir and a few girl friends at her home on Friday evening, August 21. The choir presented Ethel with a silver bread tray and a cup and saucer. The girls held a miscellaneous shower, and Marion and Eileen assisted by Mrs. Hunter, served a dainty lunch.

On Monday evening, August 24, ladies of the church held a shower in the church parlour which was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers and white wedding bells. A program of solos and readings were enjoyed, followed by a contest. Afterwards the bride-to-be was showered with many gifts. She was assisted in opening the gifts by Miss Bernice Wilson, Miss Marion Hunter and Miss Barbara Watson. Ethel thanked the ladies for their lovely gifts and lunch and a social time was enjoyed by all.

WIDELY ENTERTAINED PRIOR TO MARRIAGE

Miss Margaret Amy Sargent was widely entertained prior to her recent marriage to Andrew Robert Molozin, and the bride and groom were guests of honor at a community gathering.

On Wednesday August 19, Mrs. Emery Thompson entertained a number of girls at a chicken dinner in Rockwood. Miss Sargent was the guest of honor and after the dinner was presented with a motor rug.

Mr. Ted Arnold was hostess when the girls of the Smith and Stone office staff in Georgetown held a shower.

The teachers and staff of St. George's Sunday school, Georgetown, were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. Fendly on August 26 and Archdeacon Thompson presented Miss Sargent with a blanket on behalf of the Sunday School.

Miss Sargent was the guest of honor at a linen shower at the home of Mrs. S. Sargent on August 28.

A blanket was presented to the bride-to-be by the Smith and Stone office staff.

On Friday, August 28, Mrs. Mary Patterson, Mrs. Marg Haines, Mrs. Lena Thompson, Mrs. Shirley Fendley, Mrs. Marion McCandless, Miss Toots Murphy and Miss Joan Harrison journeyed to Toronto, had dinner at the Town and Country and attended a show. Miss Sargent was the guest of honor.

Thomas Warren presented Miss Sargent with a pop-up toaster on behalf of the members of St. George's choir on Sunday August 30.

On Monday, August 31 friends and neighbors of the groom gathered in Woodside school and presented the bride and groom with a chest of 1847 Rogers Brothers silverware.

The couple were married on Wednesday evening.

IN MEMORIAM

RYDER—In lasting memory of Rod Ryder, who died September 7, 1949.

Always in our thoughts. Remembered by Mom and Dad Wynne.

RYDER—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Rod Ryder, who passed away September 7, 1949.

A token of love and remembrance. Of one we shall never forget. His memory to us is a treasure. His loss a lifetime regret. Ever remembered by wife Betty and children.

RYDER—In loving and unforgettable memory of our dear son and brother, Roderick Millar, who left us so suddenly September 7, 1949.

Thought out of sight, he's ever near. Still we miss him and still our hearts ache with a memory that will never fade. Until the end of time. We like to think when life is done. Wherever heaven is. That he'll be standing at the door. To clasp our hand in his.

Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, sisters and brothers.

WARE—In loving memory of our Mother, Barbara Ware, who died suddenly September 2, 1951. May paths of heaven be very sweet and fair.

And all the birds you loved flock to sing there.

Always remembered by Barb, Anne, George and Jimmie.

WARE—In loving memory of our dear Mother, Barbara Ware, who died suddenly September 2, 1951. As the stars that shine in the evening sky. To the end of the earth and the morning.

Always remembered by Alice, Les, Louise and Lesley Ann.

WARE—In loving memory of a dear daughter and sister, Barbara Mae Ware, who died on accident, September 2, 1951. On some sweet morning when the gardens awaken.

We keep your still, familiar ways and dear, loving memory.

Finding new pear-bloom from the branches shaken.

Will know you have been here. Mother and Esther.
