Fair Recollections

The historical note recently published has brought to light some more information regarding early Horticulture and Agriculture Socety of 1895. Mrs. Wesley Murray had found the old poster among some papers her husband had kept It was well preserved and a good sample of what was known in those days as a Chromatic poster. It had many colors. Mrs. Murray has kindly given this item to the Free Press after the fair

Later in the week, we received the following item from Mrs. Jas Easterbrook (formerly Miss Bella Stephensen), now residing in Toronto, in which she tells of the fair of 1883.
