—Ten black caps were noticed on a raspberry bush at the home of Arthur Griffin, R.R. 2, on Sunday.

—Mrs. Mulron of Guelph is now teaching grade two at the public school, replacing Miss Barrett.

—Don't forget to mail or phone the Free Press the names of your visitors! Every item for the personal column is welcome.

—Assessment notices have now all been mailed. The total assessment is higher this year, with more assessable property, residential, industrial and commercial. Tax rate is 51 mills.

—Newest pastime among young Actonians is making bracelets and other articles of plastic things. Micro Plastics has been so rushed with sales the police have been needed to line-up the junior hobbyists.

Fete Foreman, Wife At Dinner Saturday

Bob MacArthur, who has been associated with G. A. Dills in the printing and publishing business in Acton for 26 years and in Milton for 10 years, leaves this week to become foreman of the Manitoulin Expositor, published in Little Current on Manitoulin Island. Mrs. MacArthur and Johnny will join him later in Little Current.

Bob MacArthur has been foreman in the printing plant for 12 years and has done much reporting of council and other public meetings in both Milton and Acton. He will be greatly missed on the staff with which he has been associated for so many years.

On Saturday evening, Bob and Mrs. MacArthur were honored at a staff dinner held at Hawthorne Lodge, Milton, and Bob was presented with a gold watch, suitably engraved. Mrs. MacArthur, who was for several years a member of the staff, was also presented with a gift.

Mrs. MacArthur has since her marriage continued to write the "Twenty Years Ago" column and has assisted at the office on many occasions. Johnny was also presented with a pen and pencil set from the staff. In an address read by Publisher G. A. Dills, the valued services of Bob and Mrs. MacArthur were reviewed and best wishes of all extended for continued success in the new field.

Bob MacArthur has not only been a good printer and newspaperman in Acton but has been a good citizen of the community. He has served for 11 years on the Acton Public Utilities Commission and has been chairman of the commission for six of those years. He is also a Past Master of Walker Lodge A.F. and A.M.

He and Mrs. MacArthur took a keen and active interest in the community as a whole and they will be missed in many circles and by many friends they have made here. They have spent all their years in Acton and district. Best wishes of many friends go with them for continued success in their new home.

Mrs. R. R. Parker Institute Speaker

Mrs. George Fryer was hostess to the Acton Women's Institute on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. R. L. Davidson, the president, was in charge of the meeting when the theme was "Health".

The roll call was answered by telling "Something I keep in my medicine chest".

The motto presented by Mrs. H. L. Bennett on "Eating to Live or Living to Eat" was given from a personal knowledge and experience with good advice.

The guest speaker, Mrs. R. R. Parker, gave an informal talk on her own personal experience in social service work in the United States giving both a humorous and sympathetic picture of the many cases involved. She concluded with a humorous poem on the experiences of a young man with a small boy.

The various convenses brought items of interest. Mrs. W. Hamilton on citizenship. Mrs. E. Smith on the use and abuse of good English. Mrs. Lantz on the saying "Blue Monday", current events and household hints by Mrs. George Fryer and Mrs. M. McAlway. Congratulations were also expressed to Dublin WI for winning the prize on their rug. Mrs. George Lantz conducted a quiz on conundrums. The meeting closed by singing "Pack up Your Troubles and Smile, Smile, Smile". The committee served lunch, adding to the social part of the afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Hamilton tendered thanks to Mrs. Parker, all who contributed to the program and to the hostess.

Pulp and paper accounts for one third of all the electric power consumption in Canadian industry.

—Quite a few from town attended Georgetown fair on Saturday.

—In the week ending September 26, six cases of poliomyelitis were reported to the Halton County Health Unit from Burlington, Nelson, Oakville, Milton and Esquewaug. On October 3, a case was reported from Oakville, making seven in two weeks.

—Every wedding of local interest is of interest to the Free Press. Wedding forms, to assist in writing up the event, are available at the office. Accounts of showers and presentations are also interesting to read in the weekly paper. Please tell us about them.

—Mr. McLean, regional director, formally presented Miss Fern Brown with her long-service pin when he visited Acton post office this week. Miss Brown was unable to attend the postmasters' convention in Peterborough to receive the pin there.

—Prize winners at the Scout Mothers' euchre last Friday evening in the scout hall were: ladies' first, Mrs. Mary Matthews; second, Mrs. B. Anderson; third, Mrs. Betty Footitt; men's first, Mrs. May Wilds; second, Mr. Rose; third, Mrs. Walter Footitt; ladies' travelling, Mrs. Ethel Lingard; gentlemen's travelling, Lloyd Masales.
