Red Devils Take Sixth Win in Row

By Dennis Papillon

Friday, November 6, marked the last game in the series of rugby that Acton Red Devils will play. Acton trimmed Milton 15-14 in a very tough encounter, playing in good cold rugby weather.

During the first quarter, Milton scored two touchdowns and one of their converts was complete, leaving Acton behind 11-10. It was plain to see that Milton was out to beat the Acton team, although Acton had won the championship. It has always seemed that whenever Acton won a game of rugby the opposing team always had a head start in touchdowns. Also in this game, the Red Devils didn't click until about the end of the second Wayne Arbie received a T.D. pass from Don Dawkins to score Acton's first touchdown. Score board now read Milton 11, Acton 5.

Half time now was called. Both teams had their cheer leaders and they were going to town. I must comment on Acton's cheer leaders. They never stopped cheering all through the game. It was their good spirit that helped to bring the Acton team to victory.

Now back to the game. It is now the third quarter and Milton men are more determined than ever to beat the champs. Milton kicked to Acton and Acton recovered for first downs. Just then, Acton turned up a beautiful play. A pass off the end to Dave McVey, who threw a touchdown pass to Hook Dawkins, who carried the ball for another touchdown for Acton. The conversion was incomplete to leave the score, Milton still leading, 11-10.

That last play was the most spectacular play of the game. Milton seemed completely fooled and were tricked all through the game by the crafty Acton team. Milton kicked a long kick off which went way into the end goal which this time so Milton still led 12-10. Milton intercepted a pass intended for Don Dawkins and carried the ball to Acton's 20 yard line. On Milton's first down at Acton's 20, they fumbled the ball and Acton's Gary Dawkins recovered. Acton, being so close to their goal line, had to kick off to gain "fighting" yards. Milton again fumbled and Arbie of Acton recovered to gain even more yards. McVey, one of Acton's right end men, received a pass and carried the ball to gain new downs for the champs. Ross Morton, Acton's second quarterback, threw a well placed touchdown pass to Wayne Arbie, who carried the ball for another touchdown for Acton. Convert was incomplete, which left the score Acton 15, Milton 12.

There was a fumble on the ball behind our goal line and Arbie recovered for Acton but was tackled by a running mob of Milton play-

DAVIDSON - GABRIEL WEDDING IN GUELPH

Guests from Guelph, Hamilton, Niagara Falls, Acton, Wlarton and Port Credit attended the wedding in Knox Presbyterian church chapel, Guelph, of June Gabriel of Guelph and Douglas Davidson of Acton. Rev. D. Crawford Smith performed the 7 o'clock ceremony Friday, October 30.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Lorne Henderson of Hamilton, the bride wore a street length dress of beige wool trimmed with mink, a coral colored hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of Johanna Hill roses and mums.

Her attendant, Miss Nancy Loree, wore a suit of chocolate brown French wool, with a corsage of yellow roses and mums.

Donald Davidson, Acton, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Jack Davidson, Acton, brother of the groom, and Edward Halyk, Hamilton, brother-in-law of the bride. Soloist was Crawford Douglas of Spry-side, who sang the Lord's Prayer before the ceremony and because during the signing of the register.

At a reception held in the church, Mrs. Lorne Henderson, Hamilton, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Herb Price, Acton, sister of the groom, were hostesses. Mrs. Henderson wore a grey wool suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink mums. Mrs. Price chose a dress of black and white with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white mums.

The bride's table, attractive with lace cloth, candles and roses, was contrasted with the decorated wedding cake.

Buffalo, Hamilton and Niagara Falls were included in the wedding trip itinerary. The couple now live in Guelph. Mr. Davidson, well known in Acton, teaches school near Rockwood. Both are active in Young People's activities of the Presbyterian church.

First Games Won By Palermo, Norval

Palermo recorded almost four goals to each of Acton's and Norval two to Milton's one in the first two games of the junior farmers' hockey schedule Monday evening in Milton arena. Final scores were Palermo 11, Acton 3; Norval 6, Milton 3.

Five of Palermo's goals were scored by Don Vivian, with assists by Pat Flippance and John Pegg on two. Other scorers were Bill Orr (2), Thornton Tasker, Murray Tasker, John Pegg and Glen Richardson. John Pegg and Thornton Tasker were also credited with assists.

On the low end of the score was Acton, held in the game with two goals by Garnet Saul and one by Herb Spitzer.

J. Cunningham was top scorer for Norval with three goals. J. Reid, E. Wilson and R. Cunningham twanged the nets for the other three. Assists were by J. Reid, E. Wilson and D. Robinson.

Graham Gillies scored two to the Milton junior's credit, with Jim Gillies shooting home another.

Games are played each Monday evening in Milton arena.

HONOR JUNE GABRIEL PRIOR TO MARRIAGE

Miss June Gabriel of Guelph, who was married on October 30 to Douglas Davidson of Acton, was honored in both Acton and Guelph prior to the wedding. A miscellaneous shower was held here by Mrs. Herb Price and the Young People's Society in Acton presented the couple with a gift.

A woollen blanket and hamper of groceries were presented to Miss Gabriel by Knox church, Guelph, Young People's Society, and the Sunday school teachers and C.G.I.T. of the church also honored her with presentations.

At a shower held by the staff of the Children's Aid Society, where the bride is employed, an ironing board was given the bride-to-be.

Miss Nancy Loree was hostess at a miscellaneous shower in Guelph.

HEAVEN OR HELL? A NEW MOTION PICTURE SHOWS YOU THE WAY WITH A TEAR, A LAUGH AND A PRAYER

By James Mansfield

Have courage for the great sorrows of life and patience for the small ones . . . and when you have laboriously accomplished your daily task, go to sleep in peace . . . God is awake.

A picture that starts with a prayer? . . . why not? . . . Here is a picture that is a prayer—a humble, heartwarming movie that says, "May God be with you" every step of the way.

If you had just one more motion picture to see I wish that it could be "Reaching From Heaven", so that you might see at last the fulfillment of all that could be desired in a motion picture, and get a glimpse of what God intended in the brief span of years allotted us on earth.

I have seen films—thousands of them—but never one with the emotional impact of "Reaching From Heaven". It is one of the great pictures of this or any other year—a picture dedicated to Christian principals in every day living. Love of God and love for men, women and little children is its theme song. Whatever your age, faith or condition, if you have ever lived in a family, you'll be stirred by its portrayal. It is God's blessing on each and every one of us and it marches with a hymn of faith and courage.

"Reaching From Heaven" is the greatest motion picture you will ever see because it knocks human selfishness into a cocked hat . . . because it places faith in the goodness of God in its proper perspective . . . because it lifts prayer to that level to which it rightfully belongs and because it teaches that Christianity is a seven day business, not just Sunday. It is also great because it holds out hope for the poor and hungry . . . the sick and the oppressed. Show me a heart that is lonely, sore or afraid and I will show you a picture that will bless it with serenity and strength.

If you seek Heaven and fear Hell let "Reaching From Heaven" show you the right way . . . the good way with its heart-lifting drama, laughter and tears . . . a story with all the greatness and humor of "Stargate in My Crown" and all the down-to-earth beauty and angel-shine of "I'd Climb the Highest Mountain" . . . all so touchingly set forth by a great Hollywood cast headed by John Qualen, Cheryl Walker, and Regis Toomey.

As someone who is beginning to feel old, weary and weatherbeaten (I am 46) I feel grateful to the producers of "Reaching From Heaven". In the midst of all the problems and fears these days they have shown fine, sure instinct in giving us the timeless symbol of faith and peace in so wondrous a way.

I thank them for all mothers—and fathers, too—whose hearts they will make young through this picture. I thank them for laughter through tears and for the memory of an unforgettable motion picture experience . . . for something, to go smiling through with the rest of my days. Of all the lovely things I have known their production of "Reaching From Heaven" is perhaps the loveliest.

So here's to the happier, less lonely days this picture will bring . . . to the Church of your faith and to the goodness of God . . . may He walk beside you every step of the way.
