MISS SYBIL BENNETT TAKES SEAT AT OTTAWA

Miss Sybil Bennett, Halton's representative in the House of Commons at Ottawa, took her seat this week. The leaders of Canada's four main political parties congratulated the four women elected to the Commons last summer.

Prime Minister St. Laurent said, "It has given us great satisfaction to find that the people of Canada have chosen to send to this parliament four representatives of the fair sex." He said they would undoubtedly help the government to perform its main role in domestic affairs, the promotion and maintenance of a healthy atmosphere for the development of happy families.

The other three women members are Mrs. Ann Shipley (L. Timiskaming), Mrs. Ellen Fairclough (P.C. Hamilton West), and Miss Margaret Aitken (P.C. York Humber).

Miss Bennett and Miss Aitken will share an office.

OBITUARY

Was Nassagaweya Resident All Life

A life-long resident of Nassagaweya township, Mary Jane Black, widow of the late John Archibald Black, passed away in Toronto General Hospital on Monday, November 16, after an illness of two weeks. She was born in Nassagaweya in 1878 and had lived on the home farm at R.R. 1, Acton, since her marriage in 1906. She was the daughter of the late Jack Blacklock and Ann Jane McCurdy.

Her husband predeceased her six years ago this Wednesday, November 18.

Mrs. Black attended Knox Presbyterian church and was a member of the Dublin Women's Institute and Knox church Ladies Aid. Rev. R. H. Armstrong conducted the funeral service in the vestry of Knox church on Friday, November 13. During the service, Rudolph Spivey and George Musick sang a duet. Pallbearers were nephews Earl Blacklock, Lloyd Blacklock, Ernest Blacklock, Bill Blacklock, Dr. Jack Blacklock and Mac Tass.

Carrying the beautiful floral tributes were attached to the casket were Earl, Spivey, Willard Brant, W. McIntyre, Dune Widmaier, Ross Snow, Lorne Mullin and Jim Saxey.

Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

Surviving Mrs. Black are a daughter, Annie (Mrs. Vern Wheeler) and a son, John, brothers James, Blacklock, Guelph, Harvey Blacklock, Campbellville, Norman Blacklock, London, and a sister, Mrs. Annie Twiss of Kilbride.

Floral tributes were received from Dalton Barber and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sayers, Knox Church Ladies Aid, Dublin Institute, the Grants, Mrs. Ballentine, Kay and Fred, Neighbors, the Wheeler family and Rudolph, the Blacklock families; Mrs. R. Landsborough and Bob, Bill and Andy Stalker, Jean Graham and Minnie Finlay, Alice McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Mullin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barber, Bill Bracken and family.

HALTON COUNTY'S Member of Parliament, Miss Sybil Bennett, took her seat in the House of Commons this week. There are three other women members attending the present session. Miss Bennett, Progressive Conservative candidate, was elected last August.

LIMEHOUSE

Honor Newlyweds In Limehouse Hall

A very pleasant evening was spent in Limehouse Memorial Hall a week ago when newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown were honored guests. Mr. Frank Brown was chairman for a short program including humorous readings by Mrs. Smethurst, piano solos by Ruth McBride and Neil Benton; a song with Mrs. Roughley; a piano and recitations by W. Mitchell.

Mr. Brown called the young couple to the platform and Mrs. Jack Lawson read an address whereupon they were presented with a modern living room chair, a night lamp and a large mirror. Bob made a very fitting reply, thanking everyone for their thoughtfulness and generosity and inviting them to visit him and his bride.

Lunch was served and Mr. and Mrs. E. Karn played for a few dances to finish the happy occasion.

Clean Hall

A few local folk have been given the Hall a cleaning and waxing.

W.M.S. Meets

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Mitchell on Thursday evening when scripture was read by Mrs. H. Norton and president Mrs. Smethurst led in prayer. Those taking part in the program included Mrs. Roughley with a piano solo, "Purple, a Color for Kings," read by Mrs. Smethurst; "In Flanders Fields" by Mrs. H. Norton and "Valley of Siddim" by Mrs. A. Benton. "Eat" was text word answered by a verse of scripture. After the meeting, the hostess served lunch.

William Briggs is wearing a wrist in a cast, the result of a fall while at school.

Miss Ivens spent a couple of days in Brantford last week where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Grieg.

P.C. Calvin and Mrs. Van Zant of Port Credit visited the Karn's on Sunday.

Mrs. S. Laur was hostess for a Ronald party when Mr. Wiggins demonstrated Tupper wear on Monday evening. About 25 ladies attended.

The Rankins of Weston visited the Briggs on Sunday.

ROCKWOOD

Reformatory Padre Is Club Speaker

The monthly meeting of the United Church Men's Club was held last Wednesday evening and was open night for ladies, with a good attendance.

Thomas Gellatly, president, opened the meeting with two verses of the hymn "Unto the Hills" and Rev. John Diltz led in prayer. As it was Remembrance Day, another hymn, "Abide with Me" with two verses and two minutes' silence was observed.

Lloyd Marsden spoke briefly in connection with the meeting and also announced the guest speaker, Rev. Frank Lockwood of Cooksville, who is also padre of the Mercer Reformatory, Toronto.

Mr. Lockwood spoke briefly before showing a film dealing with life behind the walls and doors of reformatories and penitentiaries, followed by a lengthy address dealing with inmates of such institutions. During the meeting, Eric Hills was present and gave his public speaking subject, "The Hope of the World Lies in the Home."

At the conclusion of the meeting, coffee and doughnuts were served and a social time enjoyed.

Inspector Is Speaker

Tuesday evening, the Rockwood Home and School forum was held and guest speaker for the meeting was Mr. McVittie, Public School Inspector, who gave an inspiring address on Education with regard to parents, teachers and pupils. Eric Hills was present and gave his public school speaking subject, "The Hope of the World Lies in the Home." Following the meeting, lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Films In Hall

Also Wednesday evening, an out-of-town group put on a moving picture in the town hall, which was well attended. Films shown were "A Boy, A Girl and A Dog," "Puss in Boots," "Crisis in Korea," a Coronation film and "Santa Claus Comes to Town."

Friends of Mrs. Joe Murphy

Friends of Mrs. Joe Murphy will be pleased to learn that she is on the road to recovery at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

Successful Bazaar

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church held a successful bazaar in the basement of the church Saturday afternoon, which was well attended. Fine weather was in their favor for the occasion. During the afternoon, Mrs. Arch McNabb and Mrs. George Swanson poured tea and young members of the congregation waited on guests. Mrs. Wm. Swanson and Mrs. Albert Gray greeted the visitors during the afternoon.

Week-end and Sunday visitors

Mr. Jack Wright of Brampton; Miss Donna Nicholson of Orangeville; Mr. and Mrs. Grattan Barry and Michael of Guelph; Miss Enid McNabb of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gray of Toronto.

In the absence of Rev. R. E. Price who is sick, Mr. C. O. Ranney of Acton conducted the service at St. John's church Sunday afternoon.

Saturday afternoon, Master Eric Hills held a birthday party for 15 of his chums at dinner.

The Y.P.U. of the United church met Monday evening with a good attendance.

The many local friends of Mr. Norman Lambert of the Royal Bank staff at Lion's Head will be pleased to know he has been transferred to Georgetown, Messrs. Neil and Norman Lambert spent Sunday in Ridgeway.

Mrs. E. Hassard W.M.S. President

The Senior Auxiliary W.M.S. of Knox Presbyterian church held its November meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Jany when the president opened the meeting by reading the inscription found in the Peace Tower in Ottawa. A two minute silence followed.

The devotions were taken by Mrs. H. Allison and Mrs. Jany after which Mrs. McKnight gave a piano solo. After a brief review of preceding chapters, Mrs. Blow finished the study of Africa. A challenge to carry on the work begun by the many brave souls who gave their lives for that country was given to the members.
