Attendance, Other Awards at Concert

Santa Claus, busy with many engagements at this time of year, included St. Alban's church scholars the program. in his visits and arrived to climax the Sunday school concert held Thursday in the parish hall. About 100 parents and children attended

The children had prepared numbers for the program under the direction of their Sunday school Barbara Were, Faye and Robina

CECIL A. CARR

OPTOMETRIST

GUELPH

Tel. 1091

8 Douglas St.

and Gretel."

A Christmas tree decorated the Families Attend parish hall for the concert. Rev. R. Price acted as master of cere-

Santa brought oranges and candy were presented by Rev. Price. Those who missed not more than one or two Sundays — senior class, Frances Oakes, Peggy Oakes; junior classes: Mrs. Newton's class. teachers. They also sang carols and Sagaskie; Carolyn Oakes' class. Danny Holmes, Leslie Jones, Cliff Sutton's class, Laurie Duby, Don attendance awards. Special prizes for the best all round pupil in each class were won by Peggy Oakes, Danny Holmes. D.anne Newton, Laurie Duby, Ted Moyse, Gail Patrick, Carolyn Cook and Susan Wilson.

> Donald. Primary, J. H. Price's class, David Hargrave, Peter Taylor; George Hargrave's class, George Ware. John Leatherland, Jim McDonald; Shirley Fryer's class, Leslie Duby, Carolyn Cook, Catharine Higgins. In the beginners' group, 36 won

HAPPY

NEW YEAR CHRISTMAS

MERRY

BLUE DOLL BEAUTY SALON

化性性的现在形式的现在分词形式的现在分词形式的现在分词形式的

Our Sincere Good Wishes for the Happiest of Christmasses and for a New Year of Health and Prosperity.

The Rachlens

Contract of the second of the

Christmas Greetings

The Acton Ministerial Association

A! THIS SAURED LIPEST WAS TIME AN OF THE ALEXE Mill ster all Association was to send our greatings to all those of this commonity and district

HAL NO N REMEMBRANCE and and phone of ma past your windows thanks. That was taken begon apply by serve the im it whose Birman we now relebrate with ick and happy tess (s) it congregations it getting happy taken forms, the apportunities presented by Christian to many a creation with the contract of the store to lower productions of the Programmy Michigan respect , they are the son control of

But it is to the first that we say the province that will the tell of cool is of as working together w. Adaman a mean section of a more larged to ance may we ever be much, by serve to minimize and in ...

MAY YON HAVE A YOME .. AND BLESSED CHRISTMAS MAY THE BABE OF BETHLEHEN BRING YOU HIS PEACE AND JOY

"For unto you is born this day in the city of Davith a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord " St. Luke 2: 11.

R H ARMSTRONG Minister Knox Presbyterian Church E A CURREY

Mmister.

Acten United Church

R H COSTERUS £35.50 Acton Baptist Church

R E PRICE Res to St Alban's Church

enjoyed a moving picture, "Hansel BALLINAFAD

Institute Social

The Women's Institute held a to the pupils at the conclusion of social evening in the Hall on Tu- in the hall on Saturday evening esday evening when the Institute when those who could brave the members and their families at- elements gathered to present gifts Awards and prizes for attendance bag of candies and oranges was Georgetown. given to each child. Each member darvale school at Georgetown. Hold Yule Services candlelight service in the even-Cook, Wayne Ridley, Stewart Mcing, Mrs. Colton as chairlady. Mrs. Baker, Miss Hilts and Elizabeth Gibson brought the messages of Christmas, Mr. Russ played an organ solo and Janice Baker a solo. Brock Robinson brought a message | holidays with his uncle, Wm. Mitfrom the mission band.

Jimmy Kirkwood showed pictures of Christ's birth and all joined in singing the Christmas carols. Mr. Russ closed the meeting with Extend Sympathy The sympathy of the community goes to Miss Maud Young and Mrs. Norman, in their bereavement in the passing of their sister. Miss

Your correspondent wishes Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to the editor and staff of the Acton Free Press.

Onlario boasts the most telephones per population of any Canadian | solos. province. The figure is something

LIMEHOUSE

Gifts Presented To August Spitzers

A pleasant social time was spent and good wishes to the August Spit-At the close of the evening, a zer's, who have recently moved to it is hoped will become an annual

Jack Roughley was chairman and brought a gift for the girls at Ce- Mesdames Frank Brown and James Sunday morning in the church and euchre and cribbage were played at intermission. and the Karn's provided music for

> Mr. Ronald W. Mitchell of New Zealand, at present a student at the School of Chiropractic, Davenport, Eden Mills, of a chicken. Iowa, is spending his Christmas chell. Miss Doris Mitchell was also home from Toronto during the

Mr. and Mrs W. T Mills have arrived safely in Daytona Beach, Florida, for the remainder of the winter. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mills and family have taken up residence in their parents' home in the mean time, having sold their house in Streetsville.

Mr. A. C. Bourne is home from Trinity College for the Christmas Christmas services were observed at Limehouse Presbyterian church on Sunday. Mrs James Kirkpatrick and Miss Muriel Appleyard sang

THE MANAGEMENT AND STAFF OF

THOMPSON MOTORS

wish all theft friends and customers a

Merry Christmas

AND A

HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

NEW YEAR'S TERM

ROBINSON Business College

MILTON

COMMENCES MONDAY, JANUARY 4th

Secretarial Courses our Specialty

Day and Evening Classes

Office Open Christmas Week for Registrations

TELEPHONE 559

W. A. ROBINSON, Prin.

includes this an priend our sin-grattide tring you gger parcels of

First Christmus Party Held in Roxy WITH CAROLS, CANDLE LIGHTING

About 150 children of employees of the Wool Combing Corporation and 50 adults gathered Saturday morning in the Roxy theatre for event. The party was sponsored by both the company and the union.

Jack Smith, union president, act-Noble made the presentation of a ed as master of ceremonies. The living room lamp, shelf table, and youngsters enjoyed children's films A Christmas service was held on bronze book ends. A few games of with chocolate bars and ice cream

Mr. Knox spoke briefly and conducted a draw. Bill Churchill of lebrated tonight and two Masses Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Acton was announced as winner of a turkey and Mr. Sargent of Santa Claus arrived and handed union secretary Mrs. Janet Wilds and the youngsters were given the older children sweat shirts

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Dance, Mil-Anglican Church, Milton.

for especially impressive services in "Silent Night" to conclude the Imall of Acton's churches In the Pro- pressive and solemn ceremony. testant churches, last Sunday was | Carols and anthems by the sentheir first Christmas party, which devoted to the story of the birth for and junior choirs, a solo by of Christ, timely messages, more Garnet Rose and duet by Peggy extensive participation of choirs in and Frances Oakes were given, inthe worship services and the sing- terspersed with scripture lessons

ing of favorite Christmas hymns of the Christmas story. and carols. Some of these churches are also holding Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services. In St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, midnight Mass is being ceon Christmas morning.

A Christmas candlelighting ser vice was held at St. Alban's Angli can church last Sunday evening out about 150 bountiful stockings On the altar were 13 candles, one and gifts. Names were called by large candle in the centre and six smaller ones at each side. The large one alone, the "Christ candle," was stockings of candy and toys; the lighted at the beginning of the ce younger ones received pyjamas and remony. During the ages a burn ing candle has represented to many people the person, power and light of Jesus Christ. He is the light in world of darkness The light which radiated from Men Still Worship Him passed into His disciples represented by the additional 12 Mrs R Robbins a solo and Miss candles. Rev. Price, Vic Bristow and Les Duby carried the light to jet. The hymns and scripture also ton, announce the engagement of The Apostles made the connect. Two decorated Christmas trees their daughter. Merina Elizabeth, ing link to Christian disciples of had been placed in the church for to Earl Done McCoy, son of Mrs. all times and now the responsibility the Christmas services. McCoy and the late Mr. William of lightening the way of Christian We wish the editor and staff of McCoy of Acton. The marriage to faith has fallen to us. Representing the topic chosen by pastor Ray better than 30 telephones per 100 the Acton Free Press a very merry take place on Saturday, January this, the light from the 12 candles Costerus for his sermon in Acton 23rd, 1954 at 3.00 o'clock in Grace was carried out into the church or Baptist church Christmas Sunday

WISH YOU

A Very Merry Christmas

PHONE 52

THE MANAGER AND STAFF

The Bank of Nova Scotia in Acton

PROCLAMATION

By order of Council

I hereby proclaim

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26th

AS BOXING DAY

and request that all citizens observe that day as such

WELCOME FRIEND

carrier than an aboutage

Mar the roughest, as qual-

* ** *** * ** *** *** *** *** *** ***

COOPER'S

and the name of the

STORE

F G OAKES, Mayor

wish all residents of Acton and vicinity

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

and a

PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

CHURCHES MARK CHRISTMAS SUNDAY

The congregation joined in the opening, offertory and recessional

The Christmas story and Christmas hymns were also included in the morning service at St. Alban's. services are also being held in the church.

The Christmas story in sacred art was shown on slides by Rev. E. Currey at the United church last Sunday evening. The service was held in the decorated Sunday

Two duets were sung by Miss

Christmas was the theme of the morning service as well, when Rev. Currey addressed the large congregation in the church on "Wise

The choir sang two anthems, Summons and Mrs. Veldhuis a du-highlighted Christmas.

"The Christ of Christmas" was morning. In the evening, he spoke on "The Word Became Flesh." Choir selections, solo by Mary Reid and trios of Faye Garner, Helen Landsborough and Mary Reid were accompanied by Charles Landsborough

A carol service preceded the egular evening service. Members of the Baptist congregation hope to sing carols through the town tonight (Christmas Eve)

if weather permits. Christmas carols, played by Ted Hansen on the organ, were amplified from Knox Presbyterian church on Christmas Sunday before both the morning and evening services These carols rang out ov-

Special Christmas music had been prepared by Knox church choir and Mr. Hansen for the special services. In the morning, there were Christmas anthems; in the evening a completely mu ical service with the congregation joining in carols and hymns In his sermon in the morning. Rev Armstrong explained what Christmas meant to different people To the shepherds Christ's birth meant wonder, he said, to the wise men, it meant gratitude and t. Simeon and Anna hope

Both services were well attend-

Combined Concert Of Church, School

A combined concert of SS No. 2 Erm and St. John's Sunday school was held in the church on Friday evening A good attendance was well entertained with choruses plays solos dell's etc. The presenting of diplomas for good attendance and a visit from Saite with a treat for all the children brought a very pleasant evening to a close Offering for Korea

Services in St John's church, Ortan were conducted on Sunday by Rey Erla Currey when a choir lof boys and girls sang several carols Then David and Marybeth Hooper pulled a wagon with a multi-decorated Christmas tree to the front of the church All the children placed their offering eavelopes for Korean to left on the

M & Holes and Master Ray Francisco of Forga spent the activities to the Mr. and Mrs. Ken. Mr. of I Mr., W for T is pent i i i i Mr . Mrs. With a silver of

Trucks in Collision $100 Damage Each

Tan trocks were in collision on a curre that west of Sperside last Friday December 16 at 1045 am A believe think driven by John Bridge of RR 1 Action was travelng west and approaching the bend when it was in collision with a pickup track driven by Ernest Zuest of R R & Million who bywas rounding the curve ravelling past Daniage to each vehicle was estimated at $100