

TROPHY WINNERS in Acton's minor hockey league were presented with their awards in April. The late Dr. George A. Sirrs was also feted at the event when officials expressed their appreciation for his leadership while in Acton.

PICTURES COVER HIGHLIGHTS OF '53

PEANUT DAY, complete with the large float and peanut queen was sponsored by the Rotary Club in Acton. Here President John Goy and Secretary Ted Hansen are shown with the Queen.

ELWOOD SNOW landed the big speckled trout weighing one pound in the annual first week-end contest. Garry Snow is shown holding the 13 1/4-inch length of piscatorial splendour.

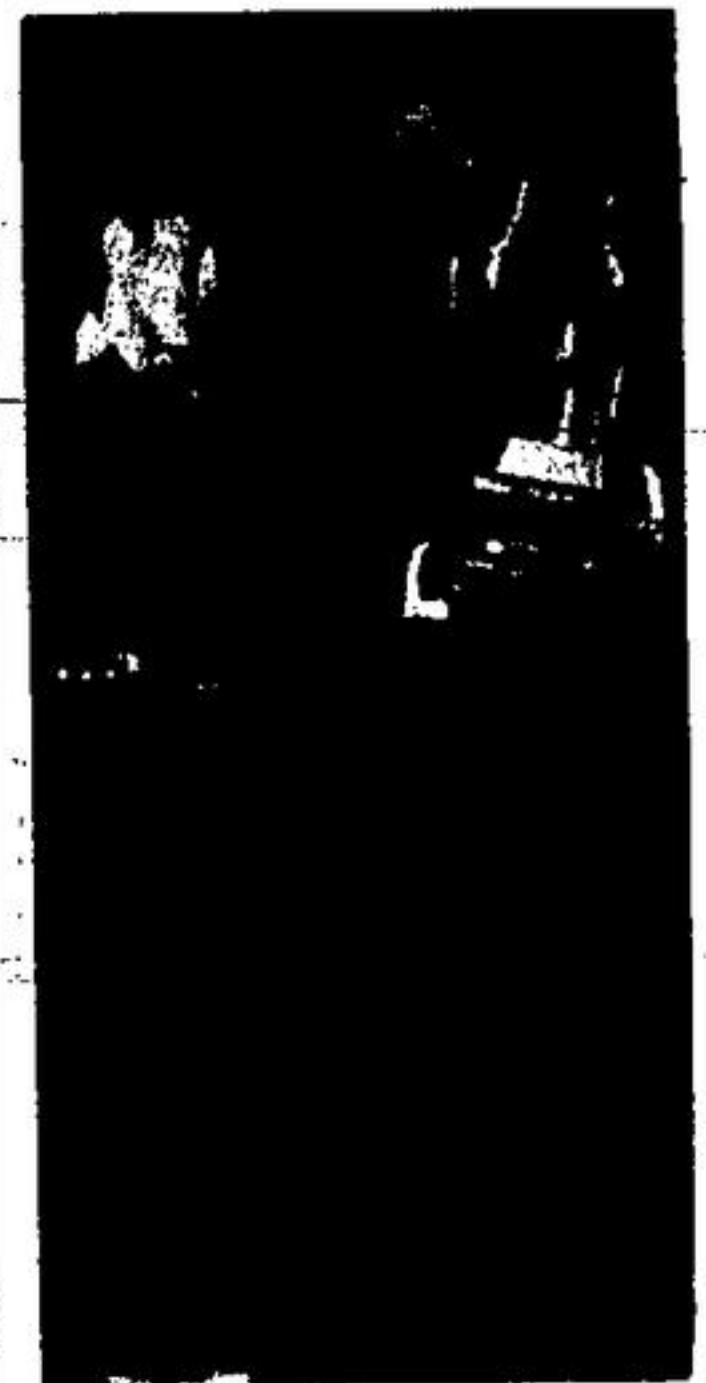

LIMEHOUSE COMMUNITY received a library in February of 1953 when the long-time dream of the Women's Institute was realized. Mrs. A. Smethurst receives the first book from librarian Mrs. W. H. Mitchell.

FINALISTS IN THE ONTARIO Lacrosse Association's Intermediate C series, Acton Rams came within a whisker of adding another lacrosse title this year but were shaded by Bradford in the finals.

YOUNGEST EXHIBITOR at Acton Fair in September was Lois Murray. The annual event attracted the usual large crowd but did not break records as rain and poor weather dogged the attraction.

PUBLIC SPEAKING trophy winner was Raymond Braida in February when the trophy donor B. D. Rachlin presented the award for the title winner in Acton school. A smaller trophy became Raymond's to keep.

IN JULY, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilds marked their Golden Wedding anniversary with many friends in the parish hall.

ENJOYING THE SWIMMING in the junior swimming pool completed in July, children are seen here. Inset shows Chairman A. Mason and secretary J. McGeachie with Johnny and Heather McGeachie, the two who were officially first in. Volunteer supervision was provided throughout the season