A few tables of euchre were played which ended an enjoyable meeting.

The forum met in the home of Jack Wilson on March 1. Since it was a very bad night, not many were out.

Local News

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Calgary called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank one day last week.

Master Jimmie Frank is spending a few days visiting friends in Georgetown.

Mr. Holler of Toronto spent a few days with the Hetzel's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Cox spent a day in Guelph with her mother, Mrs. Greenstone, who has been quite ill. All hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. P. McLean, who has been laid up for some time with a very bad cold, is slowly improving.

Friends of Mrs. M. Robinson will be sorry to hear she has had a stroke and has now passed away.

OSPRINGE

Institute Selects Best Tea Biscuits

Mrs. T. H. Fines was hostess for the March meeting of the Women's Institute when 14 members and a visitor were present to answer the interesting roll call. "An event that influenced my life" Mrs. A. McKinney invited the ladies to her home for the project. "Cooking short cuts" $10 was voted to the Red Cross for their work of mercy. Mrs. H. R. Howard is in charge of compiling recipes for a cook book.

For the girls' garden club this year, Miss Doris Fines was chosen leader, with Joan Aitken as assistant. A display for Erin fall fair will be taken care of by a committee of Mrs. George Young, Miss Doris Fines and Mrs. Arthur McKinney. A contest on raising pie will be held at the next meeting.

The motto, "Lift, don't learn" was ably given by Mrs. W. Awrey. An instrumental of Irish music was played by Miss Doris Fines.

The topic for the afternoon, community activities and public relations, was discussed by the convener, Mrs. A. McKinney. In the tea biscuit contest, Mrs. T. H. Fines was awarded first place. Tea biscuits, maple syrup and cookies were served by the hostess and assistants.

Items of Interest

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Matthews spent several days with relatives at Windsor. They were there during the heavy snow storm and report roads blocked and communities isolated for several days.

Miss Shirley Grundy returned home on Saturday following a three week stay with Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Brown near King.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Joslin and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford and family, all of Everton, visited with Mrs. Mariha Jackson during the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Ford of Guelph spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ford, first line.

The condition of Mr. Walter Waller, who suffered a stroke a couple of weeks ago, still remains about the same. Mr. Waller is a patient in the Orangeville hospital.

Mr. Styn Klouster of Orkney and Mr. George Klouster of Drayton spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Klouster.

Friends of Mr. Wes Letch are pleased to learn he was able to leave the Guelph hospital last week following surgery and is now convalescing at his home on the third line.

Master Barry Clark, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Clark, was taken to the Guelph hospital last Tuesday for observation. He was released the next day when nothing serious was detected.

Personals

Scout News

The weekly gathering of the First Acton Troop was held at the Scout Hall, Monday. After the meeting got underway, the patrols engaged in knot races, the Cougars taking top honors. Following this individual contests were held.

The patrols doubled up to work on a money-making project, which concluded the activities.

The meeting was brought to a close with a discussion on Scout camp. There are quite a few interested and the date will be July 24 to August 1. The camp site has not yet been decided but is expected to be along Georgian Bay.

George Mason contributed his collection of souvenirs from the Canadian and World Jamborees. The items included the jamboree papers, large portraits, badges and many other items. The most fascinating of all was a human skull which Mr. Mason found and preserved. The troop is very grateful to Mr. Mason and would like to extend to him its sincere thanks.

The photography classes have ended but wood working is still going strong every Wednesday night. The floor in the kitchen of the scout hall is to be tiled Saturday and all help available is required.

Regents Eliminate Acton in Play-offs

Milton Regents eliminated Acton from the O.R.H.A. play-offs Monday night in the Acton arena. Acton started off strong, getting the first two goals in the first period and held Milton Regents scoreless till the 19 minute mark when Sales scored on a pass from Dowling.

In the second period, the Regents scored three goals to put the score at 4-2 in their favor for the middle stanza.

Both teams counted once in the third period to end the game 5-3. Malby of Acton and Ervin of the Regents both deserve a lot of credit for their outstanding goal tending.
