LOCAL NEWS

—Street lights were out on the Crescent Friday evening until repairs were made.

—Firemen were summoned Monday evening to a minor blaze at the home of H. Gordon, Main St.

—Home construction has indicated that spring is expected very soon if it has not already arrived.

—New shelves are being built in the storeroom in the basement of the Public Utilities office this week.

—Acton Y's Men have attended meetings in Oakville, prior to the organization of a Y's Men's service club there.

—Miss June Watkins of the Acton public school staff next September.

—About 20 men attended the Corporate Communion and breakfast afterward at St. Alban's Anglican church Sunday morning.

—Power in Warren Grove was interrupted for about three-quarters of an hour late Friday evening when a disconnect burned out in front of Micro Plastics plant. Superintendent Doug Mason repaired the damage.

—Members of Acton Y's Men's club, wives and friends toured the Ford Motor company plant in Trafalgar township Thursday evening of last week. They reported plenty of walking in viewing the assembly lines in action and seeing Acton men on shift work.

—Acton boys who have been taking swimming lessons in Guelph, under the sponsorship of the Acton Y's Men, took tests Tuesday evening.

—Jimmy Crockett, baritone soloist with the Queensmen who drew an enthusiastic audience in Knox church Tuesday evening, has sung before in Acton. He came as guest soloist to Acton United church with the choir of Runnymede United church in Toronto on several occasions.

—Studying for examinations has narrowed the usual activities of high school students. Preparing to write compositions that will be less widely read but more severely criticized are two Free Press columnists, Neil Banton and Wayne Currie. Both High School News and Scout News columns are missing this week.

—Dr. Joseph H. Johnson, a well known Toronto dentist who has practiced in Acton formerly, has been awarded the Thomas P. Hindman medalion for outstanding services in the field of dentistry. The medalion was presented to him in Atlanta, Georgia, where he was one of the clinicians at the Thomas P. Hindman midwinter dental clinic.
