Wed In Knox Manse Reside In Brampton

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Knox Church Manse recently when Rev. R. H. Armstrong united in marriage Evelyn Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McDonald, R.R. 2, Acton, and Edward Earl Storey of Brampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Storey, R.R. 4 Acton.

The bride was smart in a grey suit with white hat and red accessories. She wore a corsage of red and white carnations.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Harry Cannons of Brampton, wore a blue suit with white hat and grey accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Harry Cannons of Brampton was best man.

After a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the happy young couple left for a trip to Rochester and Buffalo.

They are residing at 103 Rosdale St., Brampton.

THE PEOPLE WHO SAID A BOOBY TRAP COULDN'T BE CONVERTED TO PEACE. TIME USE HAVEN'T TRIED TO USE A CHEAP BALL POINT PEN!

Cy told us that a car has more sense than a human any day. According to Cy, a car NEVER has imaginary troubles like us mortals. If a car complains by knocking or squeaking that's the real thing, brother! At this stage of the game the best tonic in the world is a trip to our car clinic for a little doctoring.

Four New Teachers For Public School

Three district teachers have been engaged to teach in Acton commencing in September. Miss June Watkins, whose home is in Acton area, will leave Campbellville school to teach here.

Douglas Davidson, formerly of Acton, has been teaching near Rockwood and will return to teach in his home town.

Mrs. Joanne Turner, who teaches in one of the rural schools of the district, also joins the Acton school next year. She is the former Joanne Julian, of the Woodbridge district, and was recently married to Norman Turner.

Fourth new teacher on next term's staff will be Mrs. Mary J. Ringle, who is living in Scotland at the present time. Mrs. Ringle's husband will teach in the high school. Both were teachers in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, for some years.

Speakers Compete In Legion Rooms

The public speaking contest in connection with the Canadian Legion was held in the Guelph Legion rooms, Tuesday, April 6. Master Tommy Winlow, Eric Hills, Henry Holman and Betty Marsden were the contestants.

The executive committee for the St. Patrick's euchre in connection with the School and Home Association were guests at a chicken dinner on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert. Euchre was enjoyed as well as a musical program during the evening. A hand crocheted doily was presented to each committee member and the hostess, Mrs. F. Lambert, was presented with a bath towel ensemble in rose design. A social hour over the lunch tables brought the evening to a close.

Lenten service was observed at St. John's church Friday evening. Rev. R. E. Price showed Kodachrome slides depicting the Middle Ages.

Rev. and Mrs. John Dilts spent Monday at Dunnville with the former's mother, Mrs. Dilts.

Mrs. J. Land Sr. is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Land and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hills and family spent Sunday with relatives in Preston.

Mr. Neil Lambert of Royal Bank staff, Ingersoll, was home for the week-end.

Mrs. Norman Guild and family of Milton are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Beard, also with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert J. Guild.

Thermometers registered a low dip during the week-end in the community, six to seven degrees above zero. Coldest April week-end in years.

Limehouse W.I. Officers Elected

Limehouse Women's Institute annual meeting was held April 1 in the Memorial Hall. The president, Mrs. E. Sanford and Mrs. J. Ellerby, entertained the ladies to luncheon, following which the business meeting was opened with the W.I. Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect.

The roll call was payment of fees and minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given, correspondence was read and bills presented.

Mrs. William Mitchell gave the library report. There are close to 90 books in the library but the need is great for children's books. The children are the best customers.

In the absence of Mrs. Paul Spitzer and Mrs. Charles Meredith, convener of the financial committee for March, the report was given by Mrs. A. J. Smethurst. The sum of $20 was cleared from a euchre party held at the home of Mrs. Spitzer during the month.

It was passed to send $25 to the provincial project "Help Korean widows to help themselves" by sending sewing machines and hand looms $10 was voted to be sent to "Care" for blankets for Korea.

Mrs. Sanford, the president, was delegated to attend a TB meeting at Trafalgar Hall and to attend the conference at Guelph.

The annual reports were given by convener and secretary-treasurer's report showed a total of $726.22 on hand.

The flower and fruit convener reported sending 17 boxes of fruit and chocolates and, ginger ale, books, etc. to 18 children during the year. Eleven shut-ins were remembered at Christmas.

A meeting of convener's is to be held at the home of Mrs. James Noble to plan the year's program.

Mrs. Sanford vacated the chair and Mrs. Ellerby was asked to preside over the election of officers. Mrs. Jack Noble was appointed secretary. Mrs. R. Turner acted as scrutineer as the voting was by ballot.

The following are the officers for 1954-55: president, Mrs. E. Sanford; first vice-president, Mrs. Newton Ruidell; second vice-president, Mrs. Jack Roughley; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Jack Noble.

District director, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell; alternate, Mrs. A. J. Smethurst; branch directors, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. E. Kern, Mrs. C. Jones; pianist, Mrs. Roughley; Mrs. Meredith and Mrs. H. Norton; press reporter, Mrs. J. S. Noble; roll call, Mrs. C. Jones.

Convener: agriculture and Canadian industry, Mrs. Geary and Mrs. J. S. Noble; citizenship and education, Mrs. H. Brown and Mrs. C. Clark; home economics and health, Mrs. Roughley and Mrs. R. Turner; community activities and public relations, Mrs. Ellerby and Mrs. Smethurst; historical research and current events and Tweedsmuir history, Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Mitchell; flower and fruit, Mrs. J. S. Noble.

Neighbors Control Fire at McMillan's

A chimney fire resulting in comparatively minor damage at the home of Linus McMillan, clerk of Nassagaweya, was put out by neighbors before the Milton district truck arrived, early this morning.

The newly remodelled and redecorated house was damaged only slightly as fire managed to burn a section of floor, witnesses reported.

Mr. McMillan's farm is on the fourth line of Nassagaweya, lot 18.
