Tell Your Funniest Experience in Life

The Acton Free Press, in conjunction with the producers of "Trouble in Store"—the funniest picture that ever happened— is seeking the best funniest experience that ever happened to its readers.

Just tell us of your funniest experience in writing... add your name and address and mail to: Contest Editor, Acton Free Press, not later than Saturday, April 24.

One year's free pass for two to the Roxy theatre starting with the showing of "Trouble in Store"—a waiting for the person who submits what is considered by a panel of Judges to be the "funniest experience" of his or her life. And who hasn't had, at least once in one's life, an experience that would make a person laugh.

Here's your chance to find out if your "funniest experience" in life is worth $150.00—that's the value, in money, of the prize offered—one year's free pass for two to the Roxy theatre.

Second prize to the runner-up will be a year's subscription to the Free Press.

Many friends are glad to welcome back home Mr. Frank McIntosh, who has been in hospital in Oshawa for some weeks suffering from a foot infection. He is now making favorable progress toward recovery, although still confined to his bed.

The district directors' meeting of the county Women's Institutes was held in Milton last week. Groups are hearing reports from their representatives at their April meetings.
