LOCAL NEWS

—Little confusion resulted in the changeover to daylight saving time last Sunday. No one was reported coming into church an hour late.

—No serious damage resulted when a chimney fire broke out Tuesday morning at the home of T. Cutting, Mill St. The fire brigade was summoned and arrived speedily at the scene of the blaze.

—An unofficial visit by the Rotary district governor, Ray Jessup, Sudbury, was paid the Acton club Wednesday evening. At the same meeting John Kyle, Toronto, addressed the local Rotarians on inter-city clubs. The Legion quartet, John McHugh, Wm. Mattocks, Hamilton Peal and George Musselle enertained the members with song selections.

—The mobile chest X-ray clinic has been in town, making regular check-ups at some of the plants.

—A number from Acton and district attended the dinner of Halton County Tuberculosis Association held a Trafalgar Hall on Monday.

—Although the longer evenings usually herald activities in the gardens, the chilly and damp weather has slowed down the spring work of amateur gardeners. As usual, though, there have been quite a few grass fires.
