Mr. and Mrs. R. Wherry and family, Miss E. Wherry and Mr. J. Dinsley of Hamilton, were recent Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. Dilts. Mrs. Wherry was guest soloist during morning service at the United church.

Mr. George Watson of Montreal, who spent a few weeks with his daughter, Mrs. E. Davies, has returned home. Mrs. Davies accompanied her father to Montreal for a short visit.

OBITUARY

Last Post Sounded For C. E. Goldham

Following funeral service for the late Charles Edward Goldham at the Victor Bumble and Son Funeral Home Acton on Tuesday military honors were accorded the deceased by Legionnaires from Guelph at Fairview cemetery. The Last Post was played by Charles Landsborough.

Mr. Goldham who came to Acton about 45 years ago from England as a child, passed away unexpectedly at his home in Guelph on Sunday, May 9. Mr. Goldham received his schooling in Acton and although he lived in various localities, including the United States he was well-known through frequent visits to his home here. He was in his 52nd year.

His parents the late Martha and Henry Goldham lived for many years in Acton.

During World War II he travelled extensively in Canada and was overseas twice. He was a member of the Legion in Guelph.

Rev. Ralph Price conducted the funeral service. Pallbearers were Al Kirkness, Bob Anderson, Clayton Lindsay all of Acton, and Harry Farrelly, Frank Butz and Dominic Tash of Guelph. Flower bearers were Frank Robinson, J. Scott James, Ambrose, Ross Bullock, Leo Lichtenburg and Phil Legault.

Surviving Mr. Goldham are four sisters, Mrs. W. Neim (Dolly), New York city, Mrs. Cook (Florence), Lindsay, Mrs. Creamer (Doris), Acton, and Mrs. H. Holmes (Ethel), Acton, and one brother, Harry Goldham of Georgetown.
