OBITUARY
Native of Acton Burial on Friday

Interment took place in Fairview cemetery, Acton, on Friday morning last of Charles Thomas McLam, of 86 Dewhurst Blvd., Toronto. Funeral service had been held in Toronto the previous evening at the Trull Funeral Home on Danforth Ave.
Born in Acton, Charles McLam was a son of the late James McLam and Elizabeth Milne. He spent his boyhood days here and learned the glove cutting trade here. Later he resided in Johnstown, N.Y., but for the past number of years he lived in Toronto. His wife, the former Martha Garvin, predeceased him a number of years ago and an only sister, Mrs. Charles Aikins also predeceased him.
Many friends, former residents of Acton, attended the funeral service in Toronto and also the burial service in Fairview cemetery. The graveside service was conducted by Rev. E. A. Curry of Acton United church.

REPRIMAND
On the veranda of a resort hotel the younger of two sisters from a strict New England family was having trouble with her embroidery. Finally she burst forth with, "Damn it!"
"Mary!" reprimanded her older sister. "Watch your language! Tomorrow is Sunday!"—The Reader's Digest.

Eden Mills Church Wedding Setting

Eden Mills Presbyterian church was decorated with mixed bouquets of spring flowers for the recent marriage of Margaret Roy and Ronald Ernest Perry. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Roy Jr. of Eden Mills and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Perry, Guelph. The Rev. Fred Williamson officiated at the three o'clock ceremony.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of French lace over white sheath satin and her French lace tulle was fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and long lily point sleeves. She carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations and sweetheart roses with ivy.
Mrs. Pat Perry was the maid of honor wearing a strapless witz length gown of Alice-blue topped by a bolero jacket. The skirt of the dress was trimmed with daisies. She carried white carnations and wore a feather headdress.
Bridemaids were Miss Jackie DeCree and Mrs. M. Kostal, who wore identical gowns to that of the maid of honor with matching bouquets of white carnations.
Norman Perry brother of the groom was best man and William Perry brother of the groom, Guelph and Harvey McGrath of Burlington, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.
Mrs. D. McKersie presided at the console of the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. B. Francis, as she sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.
Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall where the room was decorated with pink and white streamers and tapers and bouquets of spring flowers. Mrs. Roy received her guests wearing a cocoa dress with brown and white accessories and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.
She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a navy blue dress with pink accessories and pink sweetheart roses.
For a wedding trip to Atlantic City and the northern United States the bride wore a lime green suit with a black purse and shoes and a white hat and corsage of Johanna Hill roses.
Out-of-town guests were present from Toronto, Burlington, Hespeler, Ottawa and Dartmouth, Nova Scotia.
Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Perry plan to reside at Eden Mills.

Acton High School News

By Neil Benton
STUDENT OF THE WEEK
Elizabeth Jany
Elizabeth Jany is a young Hungarian-born Canadian from Budapest. She moved here in 1947 and has lived in Acton since her arrival. She lived in Uxpeat and Erdovaras while making her way to Canada.
Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jany; she also has a sister, Ella, who goes to Acton Public school and a brother, Joe, who is in grade 11 at AHS.
Outside of school, Elizabeth is a member of the Y.M.C.A. and is very good in the activities there, having won the Junior championship cup. She is also active in some of the clubs in the Y.
In the church, Elizabeth is a member of the choir of the Presbyterian church and is president of the Daughters of Knox.
In school, she is a brilliant student, having stood at the top of her grades and at present is in grade 10. Her Easter percentage was 85.
Elizabeth has been in the Glee Club for the commencingments and also is a pianist. This year, she is treasurer for the students' council and is a good one, too.
Elizabeth has not as yet decided what she would like to do after graduation from A.H.S., but is seriously thinking of going to university, majoring in arts, as she speaks three tongues, Hungarian, German and English, and is learning her fourth, French. We all hope that she will get her wish.
Assembly Quota
Acton High School is to have a number of visitors on Thursday, who will be county students from schools within the Acton district, from the northern parts of Essex and the northern United States. They will attend the assembly at which the film "How to Catch a Cold" is to be shown. The rest of the day is to be spent visiting classrooms, meeting the teachers and Mr. Robbins will discuss options with them in the afternoon.
Miss Harris was ill on Monday and Tuesday, but came back today. Mrs. O. E. Robbins looked after her classes.
There will be no school on Monday as it is the 24th of May.
Dr. George C. Walker of the Ontario College of Pharmacy will speak at an assembly on Friday morning on the subject of "Careers in Pharmacy."
The field meet will be held on Wednesday, May 26.
The final examinations start on June 10 so get studying!

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nakoneczny announce the engagement of her daughter, Stella, to Mr. Michael Bochnak of Hamilton. Marriage to take place Saturday, June 5.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leitch wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie Jeanette, to Ronald Harvey Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Saunders. The marriage will take place on June 12 at 3 o'clock in Churchill United church.
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Denny wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Earldine Marion, to Duncan Alexander Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Robinson of Norval. Marriage to take place in Presbyterian church, Fergus, June 12.
