Married On May 1 Will Reside In Iowa

Pink and white snapdragons with a background of fern decorated Duff's Presbyterian church at Morrison on Saturday, May 1, when Mary Iris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Small of R.R. 1, Moffat became the bride of Edwin Ernest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gamble of R.R. 2, Hespeler, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Gamble, Acton. Rev. Gordon of Duff's church officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the wedding music played by Mrs. Bruce Smith. She wore a beautiful floor length gown of satin, overskirted with two skirts of net. The jacket was white lace with a pointed turn back collar and long sleeves fashioned to a lily point at the hand. The underskirt of the dress and the collar of the jacket formed a summer flower patterned with white sequins. Accessories were white pearls.

She was attended by her sister Ruth, as maid of honor, gowned in a pale blue waltz length gown of net and lace with matching blue headress. She carried white snapdragons. Caroline Garness was dressed in a dusk pink taffeta of waltz length overskirted with white net and a stole of net. Her flowers were pink and white snapdragons backed with fern. Her sister, Marguerite, was a second bridesmaid wearing a waltz length gown of lime green net over taffeta with a cape of net and three-quarter length white nylon gloves. Her flowers were mauve and white snapdragons. A headress of lime green roses backed with lily of the valley completed her costume.

The groomsmen were Bernie Drung, Acton and the ushers were Jack Small and Peter van Schaik.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where the bride's mother received wearing a pink lace dress over nylon taffeta with white accessories. The groom's mother chose a dress of navy sheer.

For her wedding trip to southern points the bride donned a dusk pink suit with navy and white accessories and she wore a corsage of white gardenias. The couple will reside in Iowa where Mr. Gamble will secure his Ph. D. degree. Guests were present from Pustinch, Kilbride, Acton, Guelph, Morrison and Moffat.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Watkins announce the engagement of their daughter, Jacqueline Betty, to Melbourne Arthur Blow, son of Mrs. A. G. Blow and the late Mr. Blow. The wedding to take place the latter part of June.

MEETING

Two men met each other in a Paris restaurant just in front of the clock room.

"If I'm not mistaken we met here last year," one said.

"Really?" the other said. "Do you recognize me?"

"To be truthful, it is not you I recognize but your umbrella."

"Ah? But I don't think I had it at that time."

"Naturally, you did not. It was I who had it."

Acton High School News

By Nell Benson
STUDENTS OF THE WEEK
Wendy MacKenzie

Wendy was born in Toronto in 1939, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. MacKenzie. Before moving to her present home near Terra Cotta, she lived in Weston, Cooksville and Oakville.

Her brother Kenneth is in Grade one at Clay Hill public school, area one, a country school near her home.

During public school days, Wendy stood very near the top of her classes in all of the eight grades. In high school, she came first in her class, grade 9B, both at Christmas and Easter with 85 per cent.

As yet, Wendy has not decided what vocation to choose, but she intends on going to university, majoring in Arts.

Elizabeth McEnery

Elizabeth was born in Erin in 1940. Her father and mother are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery, who reside on their farm at R.R. 2, Acton.

Beth attended Peacock public school in Erin township before her graduation. Her scholastic abilities in P.S. were very good and she's done just as well in H.S., having come second in the Christmas examinations and first in the Easter examinations with 92 per cent. She's in grade 9A.

For the future, Beth thinks that she will go to Macdonald Hall, O.A.C., Guelph, to major in Home Economics.

Good luck to both Wendy and Beth.

Empire Day Awards Presented to 15 At Junior, Senior School Assemblies

Two Empire Day programs, which included patriotic songs and readings were held Friday afternoon at Acton public school. Mrs. C. Kirkness, representing the Duke of Devonshire chapter of the L.O.D. E., presented the annual Empire Day awards at both the junior and senior assemblies.

Jack McKenzie acted as announcer for the junior assembly. After Judy Papillon gave a prayer, Mrs. Lott Black's class told the story of the flag. Michael Rogers led in the flag salute. Mrs. K. Alger's class had a singing game and recited the Union Jack.

Miss Dena Braida's class sang "The Maple Leaf, O Canada and There are Flags in Many Lands. Another song, "Our Country," was presented by Mrs. Shirley Dill's and Mrs. Lott's classes. They also had a game, "Soldier Boy."

A Princess Becomes a Queen was read by Upple Pasma, Teddy Benton, Helen Benton and Susan Cohen.

Mrs. Gamble's class recited "There are Flags in Many Lands" after a singing game. Children of Our Commonwealth Family was presented by Miss McDougall's class.

The program closed after Mrs. Kirkness made the presentation of awards.

Allan Fetterly was chairman for the senior assembly which began with a hymn and Empire Day Bible reading by David Peal. Donald Cook gave a special Empire Day thought and then Dorothy Brown gave a prayer for the Queen.

Our Flag was sung by the pupils of grade four and Barbara Norton read of the origin of Empire Day. Susan Wilson gave the story of Malta and Jo Ann Force read "Our Flag." A piano solo, "Red, White and Blue," was played by Margaret Armstrong and then Shirley Barratt told of Bermuda.

Two numbers were sung by the senior choir.

During a short play entitled "A Lesson in Citizenship," the whole assembly joined in the oath of allegiance, the flag salute, the singing of O Canada and God Save the Queen. Musical selections were included with Frank Marlack playing the guitar, Dale Woodburn the guitar and Yuk Lum Lee the mouth organ. Anna Bartic sang in Yugoslavian.

Following are the winners of the I.O.D.E. awards this year: Jessie Ware, Linda Braida, Mary Grischow, Diane Swackhamer, Sandra Binnie, Gail Roszell, Carol Chandler, Gary Maszles, Diederick Schull, Pauline Marks, Carolyn Cook, Elyonne McGladery, Sharon Gervais, Ella Jany and Betty Bean.
