Unless circumstances cause

when the town counsel, J. D. Luc-

Esquesing township counsel, L.

Dale, charged the sudden move in-hearing and ordeered the town to submit an amended application of Late last month council passed

A Close Shave

injury resulted in no more than

Lawrence Anthony was at work in the shop of Anthony-Little Motors, More than half a mile shooting rate in the tewn dump.

A bullet travelled north, apparently ricecheted off the highway, caremed in the epon deer

Police reported no action would be taken following the incident.

away from him someone heel of Mr. Anthony's shoe.

a lightly shaved shoe here Sat-

What could have been a serious validated the evidence in township's case prepared on basis of a 1597-acre proposal.

iginal proposal of 1597.

annexation.

where in this issue.

urday night.

SEASONAL BUS TOURS continue to prove popular with groups and Women's Institute took advantage of a sunny, late spring day to organizations in the district. Last week 35 members of the Dublin travel to Midland where they visited the famed Martyr's Shrine

Micro Plastics Fills Boundaries as Annexation Case Now Set for July 6 Third Plant Expansion Undertaken

22 H.S. Students Exempt from Exams building and fills out the Wallace Street property covered by the Exempt from writing any exammations this spring are 22 students of the 128 in Acton high school. For 106, examinations which must be was made necessary to house anwritten vary from one to all subects. 'The students are facing the final questions of the year in all grades this week.

this year than last, principal O. Rob- popularity on the Canadian combins pointed out. Many are exempt mercial and industrial market. from all but one subject, he added. Only five or six in lower and middle school must write all their year's to refrigerator manufacturers in subjects.

promptly by the staff and promotion results will be completed next week. These will be published in the Free Press, probably the week after. Upper school examinations began last Friday, and will be finished at Acton high school June 21. Results will be available about mid-August With all examinations handed in early next week, the students will return to the school for the promotion assembly next Friday. Reports will be given out then. Those students who passed their high school year and were not required to write any final examinations were: Grade nine A. Wanetta Deforest Brian Gervais, Margaret Kirkness, Beth McEnery; grade nine B, Raymond Braida, Margaret Dennis, Helzie. Allan McIntosh. Smith. Grade 10. Elizabeth Jany, Barbara Jensen, Joy Peal, Beth Ritchie.

Marjory Ware. Grade 11, Joe Jany; grade 12, Janice Baker, Mary Braida, Maureen Kinread, Betty May Lambert, Nan-at Fairview cemetery and St. Josions who stress that it is a com-graves of ex-servicemen be decor-

more and more from town and out-halt at the Cenotaph for a brief

Rev. Barker of Georgetown will be the guest speaker for the main part of the service, being held at Final plans were made for the Decoration Day parade at a meet-evening. Members of Acton organizations will march with the three bands from the station to the a service will be held.

The order of the parade is:

p.m.: parade trme. 2.15 p.m.

License Issuer For

17 Years Resigns

vehicle licenses in Acton. J.

Gardiner has passed the mantle of office His successor took over earlier this month. He is R. J. Har-grave who is also examiner for here. Prior to that there had been no office in town. His resignation license applicants in town.

of-town participating.

service there.

noon.

On Sunday's Decoration Day

The event, unique in Acton, is town council, Acton fire brigade.

bring flowers of any kind to place vonshire chapter of the LO.D.E., on the graves of relatives and Lakeside chapter of the I.O.D.E.,

being sponsored by local organizat- Acton Boy Scouts, Acton Cubs.

when Decoration Day will be held with a band.

become an annual one and have Acton Brownies.

cy Lambert, Ruth Marshall.

Micro Plastic's third expansion since establishment here years ago is taking shape this week C.N.I.B. Campaign which squares off the present Street property covered by the local plastics industry.

The new area, one storey high and of cement block construction. other manufacturing unit and the rising production of Micro's high impact styrene, a comparatively new type of tough, flexible sheet Fewer are required to write finals plastic which has gained ready

The material, a polystrene plastic. is being supplied in large quantities this country. It is used in this in- Lightning Strikes Examinations are being marked dustry to form the inside lining for refrigerator doors. Styrene produc-ed at Micro Plastics, now employed at Micro Plastics, now employing in the neighborhood of 50 people, is little more than a year old in this form.

styrene open a broad market for the locally - produced material, in radios, television sets, novelties, the severe electrical storm. advertising gadgets and a multitude of other consumer products.

impact styrene in both commerc-Micro Plastics are the sole Canadglossy substance.

It is expected the building will wierd light filled the barn. en Landsborough, Wendy Macken- be completed next month. Contrac-Beverley tors are Len Ariss Construction of Guelph.

Suggestion

'Have you any good after-shaving lotion?" "Yes, here's a little number that drives the girls crazy. It smells like

Noted Success Here

About 80 per cent. of Acton's does not lessen the success of the drive locally.

storm, brilliant blue flashes of lightning struck locally while thunder Potential users of high impact crashed overhead. Parade postponement, electric power failure, drenched Actonians and visiting bandsmen which may eventually be utilized were among the casualties during

North of Acton, a barn roof was gusts of wnd. Cars were forced to pull to the side of the highway as rain fell in sheets, blown into drenching gusts. The sky, an ominous color of steel gray; warning rumbles of thunder and an abrupt cooling of the air gave warning that the evening's Revere Memory of the Fallen was more lightning, more thunder and more rain.

The downpour came just at the time the parade was to cross town prior to an outdoor band tattoo in Vivid geraniums will prove that | The parade will be divided into the park. "their name liveth forever more" three parts, each under a marshall

The parade was postponed until In Rockwood, hail fell during the Organizations marching. Acton outburst. During the steady rain which followed the first deluge, an accident Group two - Marshal, Gordon occurred on Mill St. in front of the munity occasion. Not only will Beatty; Guelph Sea Cadets' Band. Free Press office. Spectators ap-

A truck driven by Howard Ingram of Streetsville stopped momenfriends. It is hoped the event will Women's Institute, Girl Guides, tarily. Driving behind, the car driven by R. J. Dark of Acton was Group three-Marshal, Max Stor- in collision with the rear of the ey; Oakville Pipe Band. Organizat- truck. Damage to the truck was Decoration Day will in no way ions, Acton Branch of the Canad- estimated at $20 and to the car at supplant Remembrance Day, al- ian Legion and any veteran of any $200. Constable Harness investigat-

Notification this week to town clerk J. McGeachie from the Ontario Municipal Board schedules the hearing on Acton's 566-acre annexation bid for July 6 at 10 a.m. in the council chambers.

quota of $2500 has been received for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind building campaign. When the drive was first organized. this quota was set to cover donations from the district as well as the town; later it was decided only Acton itself would be canvassed. The quota was not lowered, however, and the lower sum received

During Saturdays tumultuous

Power was off for about three quarters of an hour in part of the Company officials have expressed town when a blinding streak of optimism about the future of high lightning struck a transformer on Young St. Repairs were made in the ial and industrial areas. At present, rain. A barn just outside of town was struck while its owner was ian manufacturers of the smooth, milking. He reports his cows fell to the barn floor, dead weights, as the blown completely off by the angry storm was intending to surpass in all resepects the rainfall of the morning. It was successful: there the tail end of the storm was drib-Group one - Marshal, Dr. A. J. bling from the still-grey sky. eph's cemetery next Sunday after- Buchanan; Acton Citizens' Band.

Organizations. Ladies' Auxiliary of peared suddenly from doorways. ated, but everyone is invited to the Canadian Legion. Duke of De- hearing the crash at 8.30 p.m.

Rain Fails to Dampen Spirit of Fairview cemetery, or, in the event of rain, in Acton United church. Colorful Band Tattoo Saturday

ing of the committee on Tuesday ade of bands, nor would there have lett. been even a token audience to hear cenotaph on Mill St. and from there to Fairview cemetery where Wet as it was during nature's tantrum of unco-operativeness, she Assembly point, C.N.R. station, 2 didn't get her way.

> Six bands - five brass groups and one pipe band-braved the scheduled march from the C.N.R. station to the park, led by Acton Citizens' Band. They were applauded along Mill Street for their defiance of the rain, and the downpour didn't even dampen the spirits of baton-twirling majorettes from Acton and Burlington who preceded their respective bands.

A crowd of nearly 150 filed into the arena following the parade to Mr. Gardiner's appointment as front of the grandstand had been issuer 17 years ago was the first prepared for the tattoo, but the rain vetoed those arrangemetns.

Inside the drier atmosphere of the National Anthem, also led by last month became effective June 1. the arena, the program sounded off Bandmaster Perrott.

the program of march music in the this group and for selections played by the other bands in the follow-Royale Canadian Sea Cadet Corps > was Charles Kirkness. Concluding the evening four selections were played by the massed bands. Numbers were O Canada, rott; a march, led by Fergus Bandmaster Lee: Abide with Me. led by Hillsburgh Bandmaster Allan and Appreciative applause greeted band, S. Lieut. R. H. Moseley: Hillsburgh Citizens' Band. Bandmaster C. Allan; Oakville Citizens Band. Bandmaster Frank Lockslev. Lorne Scots Pipe Band, Pipe Major J. A. Sellers and led by Drum Major Finlay McCallum; Fergus Citizens' Band. Bandmaster A. Lee. The parade was under the marshallship of John McHugh, Acton. Master of ceremonies at the arena

the park. An illuminated area in led by Acton Bandmaster A. Per- Gibbons, a veteran of two years' baton-twirling with Acton Citizens' halted while a school bus was dis-Band, finds his own 24-inch baton, like himself, hardly measures up to the heights owned by Drum Major Finlay McCallum, Milton, who stands seven feet, two inches, from spats to busby. Both participated in Saturday's Band Tattoo in Acton park.

County Approves Equalized Assessment of $79 Million

Halton Principals Discuss Text Books

The principals of Halton county held their sixth meeting of the year at Oakwood Public School, Oakville, on Thursday, June 10 All principals, including Oakville's inspectors L. L. Skuce and R. F. Bornhold, extended a warm welcome to the three new county principals. C. Matheson, H. Speers and ment be accepted. M. Mayes.

The agenda of the meeting included directed discussions and cial point of view.

A committee to do research on fice. the topic of report cards was formed. Committee members include a the following principals-W. Kinpostponement of the hearing, the read (Georgetown), E. W. Foster July date falls exactly 19 weeks (Milton), D. H. Ross (Oakville), R. after the first hearing in February M. Acheson (Burlington) and W. which was abruptly adjourned K. Armstrong (Trafalgar).

The retiring chairman W. L. Fulas, announced Acton's proposal had ford (Oakville) was thanked by the in the area. been changed to a bid of 566 acres. group for his fine leadership in a 1031-acre reduction from the or- this most successful year. R. A. Hopkins (Bronte) was elected chairman of the association

Red Shield Appeal Municipal Board officers presiding at the February hearing concurred with Mr. Dale's contention and subsequently adjourned the Next week and the week following, volunteer canvassers will call on residents and businessmen in Acton and district during Salvation Army's annual Red Shield apby-law amending the first applic- peal.

Although the national ation in by-law and submitted it to Shield campaign has been the board. The formal notice of the earlier, it was delayed in this area new application is published elseuntil completion of the C.N.I.B. building campaign. Local campaign treasurer is W

> Woodburn. Donations may be left at the Bank of Nova Scotia here. The Red Shield, symbol of unprejudiced help to the sick, destitute and helpless, is carried by a legion of Christian humanitarians the world over.

To the lonely soldiers who called it 'Sally Ann', to the down-end-out in the desolate anonymity of teaming cities, to broken, homeless families, to the victims of narrowminded society or to the forgotten men caged in cells, the Red Shield of the garage and grazed off the is a sign of comfort and hope. But to be held higher, and carried further, the Red Shield needs your help.

Without a dissenting vote, Halton County Council approved an equalized assessment by-law totalling 79 million dollars, at its regular meeting in the Court House, Milton, Tuesday afternoon. Reeve Bob Shannon, chairman of the assessment committee, and Warden J. J. Stewart expressed high praise to the various assessors in the county and to County Assessor Ford Rogers for their work establishing assessment figures which met with the approval of all municipalities.

Reeve Shannon explained when * he presented the by-law, all but two municipalities were present at Holidays in Local supervising principal A. J. Fish, and as assessment committee meeting where it was agreed the figures as presented by the assessing depart-

Approve Survey Aid

Council approved an expenditure of $1,500 to assist municipalities recommendations on the text books making application for a judge's to be chosen for any particular plan of survey, following a request the last week in July. Beardmore grade was given careful considera- from the inspector of legal offices, and Co. Ltd. holiday periods are tion not only from the desirability Mr. Moore. He explained Trafalgar July 1 to July 19 and July 10 to of the book itself-its content, vo- and Bronte had already embarked July 26, varying with departments cabulary, print, binding and illus- on such a program which assists and running staffs. Wool Combing trations-but also from the finan- with the indexing and abstracting Corporation holidays are July 19 of surveys in the local registry of-

> It would also give a proper survey of all properties in a given area. Payment of the program is divided four ways, the provincial government paying one quarter, the county a quarter, the municipality a like amount and the balance of one quarter by the land owners

The speaker pointed out the registry office was turning over $20,-000 yearly to the county and would not be long before an addition would have to be added to the present building. He said the county was not large enough yet to establish two offices.

Ferestry Competition Winners

county forests this spring. C. R. fry went for a swim the others en-Groves. Ontario Department of joyed a good game of baseball. Lands and Forests, announced to About 5.30 p.m. the picnic hampers members of council. He also report- were opened and a bountiful supper ed 20 rural schools participated in was spread out on the tables and a successful school forestry comp- heartily enjoyed by all. The last etition. Winners were: S.S. 14 Es- car loads had just left the park quesing township $25; S.S. 17 Es- when the violent thunderstorm quesing township $15; S.S. 11 Nel- broke. son township $10. The balance of 17 schools received $3 each as a con-

township, told council his council | der, Bruce Coles; girls six and sevhad been in receipt of a complaint en, Sandra Sinclair, Ann Tryssener; from a ratepayer about the deplor- boys six and seven. John Masales, able condition of a county road, the John McNabb; girls eight to ten, Guelph line between Mount Nemo Jean Kovacs, Doreen McDowell: and the highway. He asked when the county was going to make this a permanent road.

"Its condition is dangerous to traffic and my council would like to know if something is going to be done about it." Reeve Brenholtz asked.

Read is "Deplorable"

"When the road committee made its inspection of county roads we found this road to be not too bad. A great amount of gravel had been on this road last year, preparing it for a hard top," Reeve Wilfred Bird, chairman of the road committee, injected.

done? There are 1000 trucks a day Aitken; girls 11 to 16, breaking balgoing over this road and in two loons, Ilona Kovacs, Margaret Armdays it is deplorable," declared strong; boys 11 to 16, sack race, Reeve Brenholtz.

"I have heard the company which is using this road is prepar- Price and Ted Hansen; thread the ed to assist the county in some needle, Herb Price, Lulu Sinclair; manner to improve it for the heavy kiss scramble, Faye McEachern; traffic. I would suggest the commit- women's three-legged race, Wilma tee see these people in order to Coles, Gladys Davidson. hasten the work," deputy-reeve E. R. Leather, Nelson, said.

Seek to Improve Read "I understand from the engineer which is in suitable condition for hard topping this year," deputyreeve H. Wade, Burlington, stated. After considerable discussion council decided that the road committee should interview the company using this road to see assistance and work could be done to improve the condition of the road in question.

Council later agreed to add two short strips of roads to the county system: one, the portion of 10 Sideroad, Trafalgar, described as the section of road between the First and Second Lines immediately south of Milton; and a section in on and Peel Enderse Resolutions Reeve R. H. Shannon, Burling- southern United States were shown ton, questioned the county taking by Mrs. Elliott. over these roads, saying, "Why should we assume the responsibility of these roads, when there isn't enough money provided to take care of the roads we already have." Member also approved a resolution seeking a supplementary grant on the county road system ... $25,000 which would restore the full amount provided for the roads.

Resolutions sponsored by counties of Brant and Oxford seeking to have legislation approved to Staff Photo reduce the speed limit of traffic in Preston, Ayr, Baden and George-SPEAKING OF SIZES, here's a picture of comparisons. Young Peter school areas and to have traffic town. charging or taking on passengers, was unanimously endorsed and that a more rigid inspection and examination of drivers of school buses be provided.

Plants Announced

Plant holidays in Acton's larger industries were announced this week with late July proving to be the most popular time for holiday closing.

Micro Plastics Ltd. holidays are to August 3, while Force Electric Products Ltd. shut down for holidays July 24 to August 9. Baxter Laboratories holidays are July 29 to August 14.

Leave S.S. Picnic As Storm Starts

Knox church held its annual church school and congregational picnic last Saturday afternoon, at the Breezes on Fairy Lake. The showers in the morning failed to dampen enthusiasm and it was one of the best attended picnics in recent years.

The afternoon's sports began with Eighteen thousand, five hundred races and novelty events for childtrees have been planted in Halton ren and grown-ups. While the small

Winners in the days events were: Straight races-girls five and under, Connie Coles, Barbara McEach-Reeve George Brenholtz, Nelson lern; boys five and under, David Ryboys eight to 10, Leslie McPhedran, John Hurst; girls 11 and 12, Carol Kovacs, Faye McEachern; bdys 11 and 12, Gerald Viterwyk, Bill

> Girls 13, 14, Kathy McPhedran, boys 13 and 14, Gerald Viterwyk, Mike Hurst; girls 15 and 16, Kathy McPhedran, Carol Kovacs; ladies' open, Nan Hurst, Gladys Price; men's open, Jim Greer, Don Ryder, Novelty races-girls 6 and under, pin hanky on line, Ann Tryssener, Sandra Sinclair; boys six and un horse race, David Armstrong and Wayne Aitken; girls seven to 10 batting balloons, Jean Kovacs, Lois Gregory; boys seven to 10, wheel-"But when is this going to be barrow race, John Hurst and James Bill Greer, Gerald Viterwyk.

Men's three legged race, Herb

Music Study Group there isn't a road in the county Has Buffet Supper Presentations, colored slides and piano selections by a talented guest added to the regular meeting of the Acton Music Study group this week. The annual supper meeting was held Monday at the home of Mrs. R. H. Elliott. Following a cold buffet, miscellaneous types of music were considered by the group in charge.

Miss Joan Pickering of Rockwood, who teaches music in Acton. contributed several selections to the program.

Presentations were made to Miss Mary Snyder and Mrs. J. Dills, two Esquesing township, between Hal- members who are leaving Acton this month.

Slides of a motor trip to the Masonic Church Service in Fergus

Masons from all parts of Guelph district attended the district divine service in Fergus.last Sunday evening. About a dozen members of Walker Lodge, Acton, joined others from Drayton, Elmira, Erin, Elora, Galt, Guelph, Kitchener, Wat-

The district chaplain Rev. Crawford Smith, the minister of Knox Presbyterian church, Guelph, conducted the service held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Fergus.

though on Sunday the parade will branch of the services. ed. No charges will be laid. Had nature managed to get her | with several selections by the 75 fickle way Saturday night, there piece Burlington Boys' and Girls' would have been no pre-tattoo par- band, led by Bandmaster E. G. Cor-