Out of Competition For Halton Trophy

Campbellville Merchants passed out of further competition for the Halton Baseball trophy last weekend, as they lost two closely contested ball games to Oakville's well balanced Snow Birds.

Friday's opening game of the series at Oakville featured a pitcher's battle between Jack Roberts and Mel Medland. Oakville took the decision by 2 to 0. Both Oakville runs were unearned.

Campbellville's batters were baffled by the assorted deliveries of Medland and went to the seventh inning before they garnered their first base knock. They failed to get a runner to third base in the game.

Campbellville had three hits, no runs and three errors. Oakville had four hits, two runs and three errors.

Saturday's game at Campbellville was a continuation of the pitcher's mastery over the hitters with the exception of Bob Carriek, who was the shining star for Oakville as he pitched a fine five hitter for the winners. He also came through with two long home runs. Final score was Oakville 4, Campbellville 2.

In the last of the eighth, Henderson led off with a long double over the centre fielders head and was sacrificed to third by Laking. Ken Moore came through with a double to left centre to score the tying run making it 2-2. However, he was left stranded and the next two batters flied out.

In the top of the ninth, Carriek again homered. Then after one was out, Scarow singled and stole second, then scored on Bank's single to right field. Campbellville threatened in the ninth as they had runners on first and second as Henderson hit a 3-2 pitch to the centre fielder back at the fence in deep left centre.

Final score, Oakville 4 runs, 8 hits and 4 errors. Campbellville 2 runs, 5 hits and 2 errors.

Campbellville's downfall in this game was the lack of pay-off hitting. In all, they left 13 runners stranded as the top hitters on the club were stopped by Carriek when he bore down.

Robert Hamilton and Henderson pitched fine ball in the two game series.

NEWS FLASH

CHINCHILLA burst open its shell on world's fur market in NEW YORK on June 21 at $175 PER PELT thereby substantiating its claim as TOP LUXURY FUR. Just 31 years ago chinchillas left their home in the Andes mountains and came to the U.S.A. for demonstration. For 31 years it has struggled for a place in fur farming and it has now achieved the ultimate—recognition under the pedigree livestock act and now recognition under the critical eyes of the world's fur buyers as a luxury fur breeding animal. They are easy to breed. You can handle it. Write for full particulars, or better still, drop in and see us.
