

WEE SHETLAND COLT, half as tall as his four-foot, four-inch master, was a centre of attraction at Acton Fall Fair recently and won second prize in best-of-foal class. Here Bruce Reinhart, Breslau, holds the half pint while its mother peers at the camera behind Bruce.

COMMUNITY, FRIENDS HOLD PRESENTATION

Bannockburn community and friends gathered in Bannockburn school on Monday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Brown on their recent marriage. M. M. Coles was chairman for the program, which included slides shown by Dr. A. J. Buchanan, piano solo by Mrs. George Robertson and John Hartholt, and brief remarks by several of those present. Mrs. Robertson led in a song.

An address was read by Mrs. R. L. Davidson; Mr. and Mrs. Brown both expressed their thanks for the gifts—a trilight lamp, hostess chair, electric clock and picture. Lunch was served at the conclusion of the program.

OBITUARY

Charles H. Hoare Dies in Hospital

The death occurred on Tuesday, September 21 at Guelph General Hospital of Charles Henry Hoare in his 71st year. Surviving him are Edwin, Oshawa, George, Evelyn (Mrs. Frank Tost), and Reginald, of Acton, Isabel (Mrs. Thomas A. Johanson), Detroit, Jack of Barrie, Charles, Margaret (Mrs. Fred Helson), Robert, and William of Detroit.

He was predeceased by his wife, the late Ida Kelly.

The funeral was held on Friday, September 24 at the McClure Funeral Home in Georgetown and interment followed at Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Mr. Hoare had been living for the past few years in Acton.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Crawford Douglas Organist, Leader

Crawford Douglas is the new choir leader and organist at St. David's Presbyterian Church, Campbellville. Congratulations to the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore, the latter being formerly Phyllis Coulter.

Many from this district were attracted to Milton Fair on Saturday. Sympathy of this community is extended to the relatives of the late Mrs. Peter McPhail.

Friends of Mr. William Turner are sorry to hear he is ill at his home. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. W. McPhedran Institute Hostess

Dublin Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. William McPhedran for the September meeting with the president, Mrs. Thompson, in charge.

Twenty members answered the roll call following the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Seven visitors were also present. Plans were made for fall fair displays. Lunch was served by the committee and a pleasant social half hour was spent.

COUSINS CHRISTENED AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

During the 10 o'clock service at St. John's Anglican church, Nassawaga, Sunday morning, September 19, Rev. R. Porritt christened Trevor James Stokes, month old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stokes, and Shirley Marlene, the month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stokes, both of Campbellville.

Of special interest is the fact that both mothers are sisters and both fathers are brothers.

LIMEHOUSE

Rally Day, Baptism At Church Sunday

Rally Day and sacrament of baptism were observed at well-attended services at Limehouse Presbyterian church on Sunday. Jacqueline Heather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crichton, Richard Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Appleyard, and Cheryl Ann Mabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Harris were baptized by Rev. A. Calder. Miss Muriel Appleyard sang during the offering.

All junior Sunday school children received beginners' pins and earned memory work cards.

Regular church attendance seals were presented to Neil and Bert Benton, ten year Sunday school pins to Kathleen Kirkpatrick, Neil and Bert Benton, fourth to Dorothy Kirkpatrick, second to Kay Norton and first to Bill Sanford and Peter Glynn.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Macusworth motored to New York last week. Congratulations to the W.I. ladies who won two firsts, seven seconds and five thirds for exhibits at Milton Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers were guests at the Louth-Adams wedding and reception in St. George's Anglican church on Saturday. Mrs. Rogers was matron of honor.

Miss Doris Mitchell last week attended the graduation of her cousin, Mr. Ronald Mitchell from the school of Chiropractic, Davenport, Iowa. He is a native of New Zealand.

Nine ladies of the W.A. enjoyed their annual dinner and theatre party in Guelph on Tuesday evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt of Georgetown with the William Mitchell's a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greig and Lois Ann and Mrs. Barker of Brantford, Misses Edna Jacques, Chambers and Rowland of Toronto with Miss Evans and Mrs. Newton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas of Hamilton with the Lanhames, Mrs. Roughley of Edmonton with the Jack Roughleys for a few weeks. Mrs. Ella Judge of Toronto on her eightieth birthday and the John McDonald's, R.R. Acton, with the Gishby's on Monday evening.

You've heard about monkey-shines. Here's a new slant, a monkey who strutted its stuff at Milton fair in a sideshow took such a shine to the Halton countryside that it decided to stay. A bus driver found the monkey at Spesyde early this week.

Acton Woodcrafts
THE BEST IN LUMBER & BUILDING MATERIALS

PHONE 149
ACTON
ONTARIO

FREE
ONE PAIR
Horsehide Work Gloves
WITH $5.00 PURCHASE
OF ANY Work Clothing

Take advantage of this sensational offer—These gloves are sold regularly up to $2.50 pr.

BOB RIDSDALE
Quality Clothes for Dad and the Lad
MILL ST. ACTON

Churchill Church 116th Anniversary

Churchill United church observed its 116th anniversary last Sunday. The neat white church on the hill also held its annual turkey supper on Tuesday evening.

The minister, Norman Russ, spoke at the morning service Sunday and guest speaker in the evening was Rev. Waldemar Williams, M.A., president of the Hamilton conference. He is the minister of Westdale United church in Hamilton.

ROCKWOOD

Guest Minister At Anniversary

On the occasion of anniversary services in the Presbyterian church here, large congregations were present at morning and evening services. Rev. Gowdy of Central Presbyterian church, Galt, was special minister who brought earnest discourses. Special numbers by the choir were enjoyed, including a solo in the morning service by Martin Baye, Jr., and a quartet in evening. Messrs. Martin Bauer and son, Murray Dyer and Albert Gray. The front of the platform was occupied with numerous autumn flowers which added to the dignity of the day's services.

Some who were present at the Presbyterian anniversary: Dr. and Mrs. Fred Croft, and family, Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Croft and family, Toronto; Miss Enid McNabb, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maltby, Puslinch; Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Patterson, Acton.

Mr. Stewart S. Royce returned home during the week-end from a brief holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Patterson of Midland are spending some time with the latter's father, Mr. Stewart S. Royce.

Scout Paper Drive

The local boy scouts held another paper drive Saturday, picking up a large quantity in the afternoon.

Corn Winners

In connection with Erin Agricultural Society, there were 22 entries in field crop competition in ensilage corn. Messrs Lloyd Thomas, Albert Gray, William Ritchie, Charles McNabb and L. D. McDougall were among eight prize winners.

Church Changes

At St. John's church Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. M. Toope, curate at St. George's church, Guelph, conducted the service.

Owing to anniversary services at Eden Mills United church, there was no service in the United church here. Rev. John Dilts was conducting the service in Eden Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fryer, Wilmer, Jack and Eida Fryer of R.R. 4, Acton, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heyerman and family, Rockwood, attended the anniversary service in the Georgetown Baptist church last Sunday evening.

Friends, Community Make Presentations

Mrs. Everett Morton was feted at several showers prior to her recent marriage. She is the former Barbara Blacklock of Campbellville.

Mrs. Lorn Collings held a miscellaneous shower at her home where pink and white gladioli formed the decorations. Bingo and other games were played. Prizes were distributed.

After the gifts were opened and the bride thanked her friends and neighbors in a few well spoken words, dainty refreshments were served.

A cup and saucer shower was held by the groom's sister, Miss Margaret Morton, Milton. Many beautiful gifts were received. A dainty lunch was served after the bride-to-be thanked all very kindly for their best wishes.

Friends and neighbors gathered at Brockville Hall last Friday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Everett Morton, newlyweds. Music was provided by Mrs. Will Early, Alex Near and L. Collins.

At lunch time Mrs. L. Collings read an address to the bride and groom and presented them with a beautiful Lazy-Boy chair and two tables. They both thanked their many friends for the lovely gift.

After a bountiful lunch, dancing resumed.

W.I. Presentation Made to Mrs. Vos

After a recess of two months, Greenwood Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Vos, with Miss Elva Pearson, the president, in the chair. The meeting opened in the usual way. Mrs. E. Pearson read the scripture. The roll call was very interesting as each member and the visitors told where each first attended school and who the teacher was. Answers included Holland, Scotland and England. Minutes of the June meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Elwood Johnston, and the treasurer's report by Mrs. R. McKeown.

A letter had been received from Stockholm, Sweden, with two poems describing their Institute. Delegates were appointed to attend the W.I. convention in Guelph in October.

Mrs. William Johnston took charge of the program, which included the motto, "Brighten the corner where you are." Mrs. Ralph McKeown; a paper on the responsibilities of citizenship in a changing world, by Mrs. C. Aitken; a poem, "Training by Example," by Mrs. Hugh Reid. Two Dutch girls accompanied by a third at the organ, sang duets including "Grandfather's Clock" in Dutch. Then all joined together and sang it in English.

Mrs. J. L. Allan read an address to Mrs. Vos and Mrs. R. McKeown, on behalf of the Institute, presented her with a beautiful necklace, as the family is leaving the community to reside at Dublin.

Lunch served by the hostess and her assistants brought an interesting evening to a close.

OSPRINGE

Dr. McCready Guest At Annual Fall Tea

Dr. McCready of Mac Hall, Guelph, was guest speaker at the annual September Tea at the local Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon. A delicious salad plate luncheon was served to the goodly number present.

Return from Ireland

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Fines and Doris went to Guelph on Sunday to meet their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson and Evelyn, who were returning from a three months' visit to Ireland.

Visits and Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sinclair accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter of Guelph, spent a few days with relatives at Decatur, Ill.

Wiener Feast

Miss Shirley Grundy entertained a number of young people at a corn and wiener roast on Saturday evening.

Mr. George Rennieck of Hamilton was a week-end visitor with Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sumter and Dianne of Niagara Falls were week-end visitors with the former's mother, Mrs. G. M. Sumter, who returned home with them for a holiday.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. James Struthers during the past week included Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McPherson of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. B. Wilson, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gordier, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Simpson and Darlene, Mrs. Robert Struthers of Lucknow.

Holds Demonstration

Mrs. Bert Robertson entertained a number of ladies on Thursday evening at a brush demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart entertained at dinner on Sunday evening with the following guests present, Mr. and Mrs. David Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Berry and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Len Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson, Mrs. D. G. Robertson and Brian.

Two Hospitalized

Lynda Robertson, two year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Robertson of Toronto, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson, fell at Oakville and broke her collar bone. She was confined to the Oakville hospital for a couple of days, and is now in a partial cast. Friends are sorry to learn Mrs. J. A. Bullock is still a patient at the Guelph Hospital where her progress is slow. All wish for her a speedy recovery.

Church of Christ Has New Minister

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Daley and family, Danville, have moved into the church manse. Mr. Daley is the minister now at Church of Christ, Danville.

Misses Lois Black and Virginia Holman, Rochester, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horport and family.

A few from the village attended the turkey supper at Churchill last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McCutcheon spent a few days last week at their cottage at Thornbury, also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mac McLeod and family.

Sunday visitors at home of Mr. and Mrs. John Alton and Miss Jennie Towell were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Alton and family, Galt, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patten, Diane and Kenny, Guelph.

Mrs. Duckett, Guelph, visited over the week-end with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Duckett and Norman.

Misses Mary and Edith Robertson, Cleveland, are home on holidays, staying with their brother, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith, boys Wayne and David, Ariss, were Sunday visitors at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lillie and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jestin, Patsy and Nancy spent the week-end at Cainsville with the latter's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hunter.

—Rev. Toope of Guelph was in charge of the service at St. Alban's church on Sunday.

P.S.P. put me in the money for the first time in my life

The Bank of Nova Scotia's Personal Security Program keeps you saving 'till your goal is reached

P.S.P. works like magic—particularly if you find it hard to save... guarantees your beneficiary the full amount of your savings goal even if you die before you finish saving it. Ask for particulars and free copy of P.S.P. booklet at your nearest Bank of Nova Scotia branch.

Your Partner in Helping Canada Grow

Your BNS Manager is a good man to know. In Acton he is W. A. Woodburn.

SILVER-WOOD

Enroll 35 Pupils At Stone School

There are 35 pupils enrolled at the Stone School with Miss Marjorie Shaw as teacher. Following is the list according to grades. Grade eight, Donald Burt, Roger Hedgie, Christine Melanson, Herbert Wilson, Grade seven, Mabel Greig, Irene Varey, Grade six, Tommy Beney, Ross Burt, Vincent Burt, Eleanor Colborne, Peter Glynn, Grade five, Donald Burt, David Kidney, Hubert Kux, Margaret Melanson, Alice Wilson, Billy Wilson, Grade four, Joan Rundle, Grade three, Rickey Bell, Jacqueline Burt, Alec Colborne, Patrick Graham, Viola Melanson, Richard Wagner, Grade two, Marjory Burt, Terry Burt, James Graham, Keith Hill, Paul Kidney, Eva Lindauer, Diane Melanson, Grade one, John Bailey, Bonny Bell, George Henderson, Robert Melanson.

Home from Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Miller have returned after nine weeks travelling in England, Scotland and on the continent.

We are glad to report that Ben Case is now home from Guelph hospital where he was confined for 10 days, and he is recuperating at his home.

E. L. BUCHNER
Optometrist
IN ACTON
Every Wednesday Afternoon
Office at H. MAINPRIZE BARBER SHOP
Hours 1:30-6:00
Evenings by Appointment
FOR APPOINTMENT TELEPHONE 115

FARMS FOR SALE
In all price ranges and sizes
W. R. GAMBLE
REAL ESTATE
Grand Valley, Ont.

DRIVE IN THEATRE
GUELPH

Thurs.-Fri. Sept. 30-Oct. 1
"RAIDERS OF THE SEVEN SEAS"
(Color)
John Payne Donna Reed

Sat.-Mon. Oct. 2-4
"MONTANA MIKE"
Robert Cummings Brian Donlevy

Tues.-Wed. Oct. 5-6
"AFFAIR IN TRINIDAD"
Rita Hayworth Glenn Ford

Thurs.-Fri. Oct. 7-8
"LIMELIGHT"
Charles Chaplin Claire Bloom

CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUND
2 SHOWS NIGHTLY
Children under 12 years FREE

Special Offer

SAVE $19.95

COLEMAN OIL HEATER
with Blower Power Unit

71.95 and 99.95

BUY NOW AND SAVE $19.95

Symon Hardware
PHONE 49 MILL ST.

WHY THROW AWAY YOUR OLD CHESTERFIELD SUITE?

LET TORONTO FURNITURE Manufacturing Company RE-COVER IT as good as new at FACTORY-TO-YOU PRICES

IN ACTON CALL WATSON'S MUSIC STORE 594