

ROCKWOOD

Present Prizes at Opening Night Of Rockwood Horticultural Society

Rockwood Horticultural Society held an open night last Friday evening in the Sunday school hall of the United church, which was well attended. Mrs. Gordon Harris presided at the piano for the singing of the Maple Leaf. Several of those present received handsome door prizes, followed by prizes given out, first for juvenile garden contest, cup for Peter Heyden, given by Mr. Frank Webster, president of Guelph Horticultural Society; second prize for Donna Kingsbury, Arthur Brown, Adrian Heyden, Anne Gellatly; third prize for Bernice Freeman, Kay Lavery, Janet Day.

First prize in Wellington County Centennial (scrapbook), Donna Kingsbury; second Bernice Freeman. Two age groups for bird houses, (a) 10 years and older, Peter Heyden, second Adrian Heyden, (b) nine years and younger, first Billy Bestward, second Betty Ann Gordon, David Harris.

During the evening, a duet was sung by Gertrude and Bernice Freeman with their mother, Mrs. John Freeman at the piano. The program concluded with God Save the Queen, Mrs. G. Harris at the piano. Lunch was served and a social time for all followed. Mr. Harry O'Connor of Guelph spoke briefly.

W. Bell Preaches
In the absence of Rev. R. H. Armstrong of Acton, who was unable to be present, Mr. Bell of Acton, attending Waterloo College, conducted the service at the Presbyterian church and announced by papers, the pulpit vacant, through a change in church services between Rockwood, Eden Mills and St. Paul's church, Guelph. In the afternoon at St. John's church, Rev. Evan H. Jones commenced his ministry for the parish congregation.

Short Holiday
On account of school teachers' convention last Friday, the public school scholars had a brief holiday.

Scenic Road
The Valley Road at Rockwood at the present time presents a fine scene in the coloring of leaves against a background of the evergreen cedars and pine trees.

Miss Pat Linford, on staff of Victoria hospital, London, Ont., was home for the week-end.

Messrs. Roy Day of Toronto and Norman Lambert, also of Toronto, were home for the week-end.

Mr. Burnett of Vancouver Island has been in town on a visit with his sister, Mrs. J. Hamilton and niece, Miss Pearl Hamilton, also Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Swanson and family, fifth line, Eramosa. Mr. Burnett left for home Sunday evening.

OBITUARY

Born Scot, Lived 50 Years in Acton
A resident of Acton for 50 years, James Mackie passed away in Hamilton on September 25. He was in his 77th year.

Mr. Mackie came to Canada from Stonehaven, Scotland, in 1904. Jane Christie followed him in 1907 and they were married in Acton. He was employed by Beardmore and Co. for 40 years and by A. R. Clarke in Toronto for six years.

He was a life member of the Stonehaven Masonic Lodge in Scotland.
Rev. E. Jones conducted the funeral service at the Victor Rumley and Son funeral home on September 28. Pallbearers were George Murray, Neil McDonald, Stewart Malcolm, David Gordon, Fred Turner and John Lambert. Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

Surviving Mr. Mackie are his wife, a son, Stanley of Islington; two daughters Catherine (Mrs. Fred Sharpe), Weston and Phyllis at home; brothers Stewart of Vancouver, B.C. and John of Liverpool, England; sisters, Margaret (Mrs. Donald), Isabella (Mrs. Wood) Vancouver, Ann (Mrs. James Leys) and Charlotte of Toronto. One brother and three sisters predeceased him.

OBITUARY

Mrs. S. Carnochan Dies in Nelson

Mrs. Eliza Carnochan, wife of the late Stephen Carnochan, passed away at her home, Nelson village, on Wednesday, September 22, following a week's illness, in her 81st year. She was born in Nassagaweya township, a daughter of the late Christian Frank and Ellen McLaughlin, where she resided until 28 years ago, when she went to Nelson.

In religion she was a Presbyterian. She is survived by three daughters and one son, Mrs. George Ramsey (Ellen), St. George; Mrs. George Green (Ruth), Mrs. Jack Auckland (Rae) and Aubrey, all of Nelson, and eight grandchildren; also a brother, Joseph Frank of Nassagaweya, and a sister, Mrs. Hiram Donald, Mount Forest.

The funeral was held from the Ketching Funeral Home, Waterdown, on Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. W. Brearley of Appleby. The pallbearers, who also acted as flower bearers, were Clark Pegg, Bruce Baker, Howard Alderson, George Peer, Mark Alton and Vern Shepherd.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, testifying to the esteem in which she was held in the community. Interment took place in Greenwood cemetery, Burlington.

CUB & SCOUT News

Special instruction and test passing were the highlights of last week's meeting. Test passing for 12 boys on the First Star Cleanliness Test and Highway Code Test were taken by Baloo, while the rest of the Pack remained with Akela for instruction on the Grand Howl. Six of the senior Cubs assisted. Balloon relays filled the games period; a campfire sing song closed the meeting. Points awarded during the competitions found the Green Six still leading with 80 points, but their lead narrowed. Other sixes points are: Red 74, Tawny 71, Yellow 69, White 66, Blue 62.

A crafts night is being planned for the October 14 meeting when the boys will be shown how to make a six neckerchief slide.
—Murray Scoyne, Akela

On Monday night the Scout meeting was opened by Gord Clow. This was followed by inspection, in which the Foxes captured the coveted Honor Patrol flag. Roy Kirkness then took us for a game of Indian wrestling. After everybody had their turn we went to the corner for test passing. Dave Dills gave out the new test cards. After that the meeting broke up.

On Saturday about 20 Scouts spent the day at Blue Springs. There is to be another hike this Saturday, leaving from the Scout Hall at 9:30 a.m. The P.L.'s are going out to the Blue Springs cabin Saturday night to put in the new floor over the week-end.

There will be a court of honor meeting on Thursday at 7:00 to plan for Apple Day.
